1992 OUTLOOK

— 1992 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

If you're a Trojan football follower and you believe in omens, 1992 could be a good year. To wit:

--The last time USC returned 18 starters, like it does this year, was in 1989, when the Trojans went 9-2-1, won the Rose Bowl and were ranked No. 8 in the nation. Nine starters on both sides of the ball return in 1992 (plus the placekicker). In addition, back are 13 other players who started at least once in 1991. Some 45 players return who saw action last year.

--The last 2 times USC had a losing season, like it did last year, the Trojans bounced back the following year (1962 and 1984) to win the Rose Bowl (the 1962 squad even won the national title). USC went 3-8 in 1991 (2-6 for eighth place in the Pac-10) while playing what USA Today ranked as the nation's toughest schedule (Troy faced 6 bowl teams and 5 Top 25 squads). Four of the losses were by just a touchdown or less. The young Trojans averaged 12 freshmen or sophomore starters a game. Injuries took their toll, as 9 starters missed a total of 27 games.

--This will be USC's 100th team. Since its first squad in 1888 (there were 5 years since then that Troy didn't field a team), USC's glorious football tradition has included 8 national championships, 27 Rose Bowls, 4 Heisman Trophy winners, 115 All-Americans, 22 College Hall of Famers, 51 NFL first round draft picks, 19 Academic All-Americans, and 18 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholars. USC's 616 total victories and .704 all-time winning percentage rank in the Top 10 nationally.

--This season marks the 20th anniversary of USC's 1972 national champions, the 25th anniversary of the 1967 national champs, the 30th anniversary of the 1962 national champs, the 60th anniversary of the 1932 national champs, and the 70th anniversary of USC's first Rose Bowl team. It's also the 80th anniversary of USC adopting the "Trojans" nickname.

Despite all these favorable omens, the truth of the matter is that USC must regroup from a disappointing 1991.

"Last year is behind us," said sixth-year USC coach Larry Smith, who has guided USC into 4 bowls (including 3 Rose Bowls) during his tenure at Troy. "We have a lot of very hungry players who are looking forward to 1992.

"Although we're still a sophomore/junior dominated team, we're older and more mature now, and we must take advantage of that. We must take our mix of maturity and youth and blend it into a good, solid team. We'll try to pull everything together and be a winner."

USC features a pair of 1991 All-Pac-10 first teamers on offense in flanker Curtis Conway (who made the team as a return specialist) and tackle Tony Boselli. Conway had 934 all-purpose yards in 1991, while Freshman All-American Boselli became the first-ever freshman offensive lineman named to the All-Pac-10 first team. Both are All-American candidates now (Boselli has already been named to the prestigious Playboy pre-season All-American squad).

All of USC's starting offensive backfield and receivers return. In addition to Conway, they are quarterback Reggie Perry (last year's leading passer), tailback Deon Strother (1991's top rusher), split end Johnnie Morton (last season's leading receiver), fullback Wes Bender, and tight end Yonnie Jackson. And three-fifths of Troy's offensive line is back: besides Boselli, there's guard Kris Pollack and center Craig Gibson. Morton and Jackson are All-Pac-10 candidates (along with Conway and Boselli). Only tackle Michael Moody and guard Derrick Deese must be replaced in the starting lineup.

USC's starting defensive returnees are tackle-outside linebacker David Webb (a second team All-Pac-10er last fall), outside linebackers Willie McGinest and Lamont Hollinquest, inside linebacker Gidion Murrell, cornerback Jason Oliver, safeties Stephon Pace and Mike Salmon, guard-tackle Terry McDaniels, and nose guard Mike Hinz. Webb, McGinest, Murrell, Oliver and Pace are All-Pac-10 candidates. The only losses are inside linebacker Matt Gee (USC's top tackler last season) and cornerback Calvin Holmes.

Placekicker Cole Ford returns, although 3-year starting punter Ron Dale must be replaced.

"We'll come back this year," said Smith. "But we've got to take it one step at a time. Our main objectives are to produce a high-scoring offense and a big-play defense. We need to increase our scoring by at least a touchdown a game (USC averaged 20.8 points last year) and reduce our points allowed by at least a TD a game (USC gave up 25.1 points in 1991). That's all accomplished by making more big plays.

"We'll go out and compete with intensity. We'll stress fundamentals. Offensively, we'll limit our number of formations and work on better executing our run and pass attacks. Defensively, we'll play a wild-and-crazy style, attacking people more.

"The keys to our success will be our character, our competitiveness, and our confidence. Also, we must stay healthy--because injuries took their toll last year (9 starters missed a total of 27 games)--and we must get off to a good start, so we can prove we're a winner and build on that momentum."

USC faces a difficult schedule as it attempts to bounce back in 1992. On tap are 7 1991 bowl teams (5 were winners): defending national champion Washington, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, UCLA, California, Stanford, and San Diego State. The Trojans open with 3 straight road games (in San Diego, Norman and Seattle). USC plays only 5 home contests.

OFFENSE

Nine starters--quarterback Perry, tailback Strother, fullback Bender, flanker Conway, split end Morton, tight end Jackson, tackle Boselli, guard Pollack, and center Gibson--return from an offense which averaged 352.4 total yards (185.4 rushing, 167.0 passing) in 1991. Six of the 9 Trojans who carried the ball last fall are back, as are all 4 players who threw a pass and 9 of the 12 who caught a pass.

"The biggest thing we need to accomplish offensively is to get a high-scoring, yard-producing, big-play offense," said Smith. "Amonng the question marks we must answer are: can we improve our pass game, can we get more big plays out of our run game, can we score more points offensively, and who will win out as the starting quarterback?"

QUARTERBACK--"The one position on offense where we need to see marked improvement is quarterback," said Smith.

"The position improved as last season went on, but we need week-in-and-week-out production from this spot this year. I firmly believe we can have the high-scoring offense we need because of the added maturity and the competition at this position."

A position that had absolutely no experience at the start of last season now features 2 tested signalcallers, plus a pair of promising young players.

QUARTERBACKS
Rob Johnson, So.	1 start as true frosh in '91
Matt Koffler, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American
REGGIE PERRY, Jr.	1,574 pass/254 rush in '91
Corby Smith, Rs. Fr.
Kyle Wachholtz, Rs. Fr.

Junior Perry (131-of-255, 51.4%, 1,574 yards, 3 TDs, 12 interceptions in 1991), who started 10 times in 1991, is the incumbent, but coming out of spring practice with a slight edge was sophomore Rob Johnson (19-of-36, 52.8%, 225 yards, 2 TDs, 2 interceptions in 1991), who was the first true USC freshman to start at quarterback in the post-World War II era when he opened at Arizona last fall (Johnson appeared in 2 other late season games). Perry, a threat not only as a passer but as a runner (his 254 rushing yards were the most by a Trojan quarterback since 1971), improved as the season progressed and played best in USC's biggest games.

Also in the mix are 2 redshirt freshmen, Kyle Wachholtz and Corby Smith, son of USC's head coach.

"Reggie is the incumbent, but Rob was very effective in last spring's drills and if we had to play a game right then, he would have been the starter," said Smith. "I feel very confident that we can win with either one. Reggie improved dramatically as last season went on. He played his best football in our big games and that showed us a lot about his outstanding skills and ability. He's in a battle now to hold onto his starting job, but no matter what, he'll play a lot. He has a very strong arm and is a great threat as a runner. Plus, he has super leadership qualities and knows the game. Rob performed beyond his years last season. He has great touch on his passes. He just needs to improve his arm strength and the quickness on his release."

QB REGGIE PERRY

QB ROB JOHNSON

TAILBACK--USC is well-stocked at tailback.

Although junior Strother (129 carries, 614 yards, 4.8 avg., 7 TDs), Troy's leading rusher in 1991, is the returning starter, electrifying senior Estrus Crayton (69 carries, 405 yards, 5.9 avg., 1 TD in 1991) will get the starting nod entering the fall. Despite playing a limited amount the first half of 1991 after transferring in from a junior college, Crayton--who has great speed and spectacular moves--emerged in a big way late last season, getting 185 yards off the bench at Arizona and 126 yards the next week in the UCLA season finale. He also could returns punts and kickoffs. The elusive Strother, a 5-game starter in 1991, also had a pair of 100-yard rushing contests (153 at California and 122 at Washington State). His 92-yard scoring run at Cal was the longest run in the Pac-10 in 1991.

Redshirt freshman Dwight McFadden, a slippery scatback, will also contend at tailback. He opened some eyes in 1992 spring practice, getting 100-plus rushing yards in both scrimmages. He also will be looked at as a kickoff returner.

TAILBACKS
Terry Barnum, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American
Conrad Coleman, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American
Estrus Crayton, Sr.	405 yards, 1 start in '91
David Dotson, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American, 5 Calif. records
Scott Fields, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American, might try safety
Dwight McFadden, Rs. Fr.	100 yards in both spring scrimmages
DEON STROTHER, Jr.	Team-high 614 yards, 5 starts in '91
Shawn Walters, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-Am., '90 top Texas runner

"Estrus really came on towards the end of 1991 and then was very impressive in last spring's practice," said Smith. "He's a big-play tailback who could be a real shining light for us. He has tremendous speed and catches the ball well. Deon could be the heart of our offense, whether or not he starts. He's a super competitor and leader. He's a big-play back with super balance and running sense, and is hard to tackle. He does it all. Dwight had an outstanding spring and gave notice that he's ready to compete for significant playing time. He has great overall speed, and is very quick and elusive.

"We're going to reduce the amount of option football in our package and go more to the I-back, big-play offense. We've got the tailbacks who are those big-play types. It'll be a very competitive position and perhaps our strongest position from top to bottom. Estrus, Deon and Dwight are all good enough to start."

Five prep All-American tailbacks come aboard in the fall: Terry Barnum, Conrad Coleman, David Dotson, Scott Fields, and Shawn Walters. Dotson set 5 California state rushing records, including most yards in a game (507), season (3,544) and career (7,265). Fields might be moved to safety. Walters was the Texas state rushing leader in 1990 (2,264 yards).

FULLBACK--The fullback corps has good quantity and quality.

Senior Bender (17 carries, 59 yards, 3.5 avg. in 1991), another JC transfer last fall, will start again in 1992 after starting the final 5 contests of 1991 (he didn't see any action until midseason). He was impressive with his tough running and hard blocking.

"Wes really had a good second half of 1991," said Smith.

"He only figures to get better. He's a strong blocker and quick runner, a real impact player. He has excellent speed, and he's quick and low to the ground. He's a fullback's fullback."

FULLBACKS

Kevin Clark, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American
Michael Jones, So.
Mike Mooney, Sr.

A quartet of relatively untested players, none of whom carried the ball in 1991, are behind Bender: senior Mike Mooney is listed at No. 2, followed by soph Michael Jones, junior Rory Brown, and senior Eric Dixon (Dixon can also play tailback).

"Because we'll be going to more of a power running attack, our fullbacks will have to be productive, both running and blocking," said Smith. "We need some reliable backups for Bender."

In the fall, prep All-American Kevin Clark enrolls.

FB WES BENDER

FL CURTIS CONWAY

WIDE RECEIVER--USC's top 6 wide receivers from 1991 return, so this swift group should be a real strength of the offense. In fact, Pro Football Weekly named the 1992 Trojan receivers as the top unit in the nation.

"We have an excellent corps of receivers," said Smith. "We need a much-improved pass game, with more completions and touchdowns. Obviously, part of that depends on the efficiency of the quarterback, but the wide receivers must come through, too."

Speedburning junior Conway (21 catches, 11.4 avg., 1 TD in 1991), USC's offensive Mr. Do-It-All, returns as the starting flanker and will also continue returning kickoffs and punts. An All-Pac-10 first team return specialist in 1991, he's now an All-American candidate. He had 934 all-purpose yards last fall. He was the only Trojan to catch a pass in all 11 games in 1991 (he had 6 grabs at Notre Dame). He's also a sprinter for the Trojan track team.

"Curtis is one of the premier receivers and returners in the nation," said Smith. "With his great speed, he is such a threat whenever he has the ball. I'm looking for him to make more big plays in 1992."

On the other side, junior Morton (49 catches, 13.5 avg. in 1991) is back for his third year as the starting split end and is an All-Pac-10 candidate. Known for his acrobatic clutches and sure hands, he led Troy in receptions last fall. He had 9 catches against Stanford and 8 against both California and Washington.

"Johnnie was our best receiver in 1991 and, if he improves upon that, he'll be one of the top receivers around," said Smith. "He looks like he's ready for an all-star season. He's an outstanding receiver with great athletic ability. He makes the big catch and the big play. He's very mobile, has super hands, and runs well with the ball after he catches it."

Ryan Lenderman, SE, So.
JOHNNIE MORTON, SE, Jr.	Team-high 49 catches in '91
Joel Scott, SE, Sr.	1 start in '91
Jason Sehorn, FL-SE, In. Jr.	'90 and '91 J.C. All-American
Larry Wallace, FL, Sr.	32.2 avg. in '91, 10 starts in '90-'91

Backing up Conway at flanker are a pair of seniors: Larry Wallace (5 catches, 32.2 avg., 2 TDs in 1991) and blazing Travis Hannah (9 catches, 20.3 avg. in 1991). Wallace has started 10 games in the past 2 years (3 times in 1991). Hannah, who has seen lots of action the past 2 years (1 start in 1991), is a nationally-competitive quartermiler for the USC tracksters (he was sixth in the 1990 NCAA 400-meter run). He also might return kickoffs.

Adding top-quality depth at split end are dependable senior Joel Scott (6 catches, 12.7 avg. in 1991 while starting once) and sophomore Ryan Lenderman, who has yet to catch a pass at Troy.

"Larry and Travis will be on the field often in 1992," said Smith. "Larry really came on the last half of 1991. He has great speed, moves and athletic ability. He's a big-play receiver. Travis has great speed, too, and we need to get him the ball often. Whenever he touches the ball, the potential is there for a big play."

Bolstering this group in the fall will be a pair of outstanding newcomers: J.C. All-American Jason Sehorn, the California J.C. career recordholder for all-purpose yards (4,308) who will be a junior flanker-split end, and prep All-American flanker Quincy Harrison, the Nevada Player of the Year.

FL TRAVIS HANNAH

FL LARRY WALLACE

TIGHT END--USC's top 2 tight ends are back, making this another strong unit of the offense.

Senior Jackson (27 catches, 11.2 avg., 2 TDs in 1991), an All-Pac-10 candidate, started in 1991, but entering the fall he's listed as the backup to junior Bradford Banta (7 catches, 10.7 avg. in 1991). Both will play a lot because USC uses many multiple tight end formations. Jackson, USC's second leading receiver last fall, combines outstanding blocking and receiving skills. Banta, who started 3 times last year, is USC's best blocking tight end. He might also be the long snapper.

TIGHT ENDS
John Allred, In. Fr.
Bradford Banta, Jr.	3 starts in '91
Tyler Cashman, Rs. Fr.	Converted split end
YONNIE JACKSON, Sr.	27 catches in '91
Johnny McWilliams, Rs. Fr.	Converted flanker

A pair of converted wide receivers, redshirt freshmen Tyler Cashman and Johnny McWilliams, along with junior walk-on Steve Beckley, will try to break into the picture.

"We're strong and experienced at tight end," said Smith. "It's a real strength position for our team. Yonnie is coming off a very good showing in 1991 and has emerged into one of the Pac-10's top tight end. He's a fine athlete with excellent speed, quickness and pass catching ability. Bradford is one of the best blocking tight ends in the Pac-10. He's working very hard to be a better receiver and, when that part of his game improves, he could become a great tight end."

TE YONNIE JACKSON

TE BRADFORD BANTA

OFFENSIVE LINE--The 3 returning starting offensive linemen are all good ones, providing a stellar foundation up front.

Leading the way is sophomore right tackle Boselli (6-7, 285), who should become USC's next great offensive lineman (there have been 24 Trojan first team All-American offensive linemen since 1964 and 17 linemen who have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968). Now an All-American candidate (he already has been named a prestigious Playboy pre-season All-American), he made All-Pac-10 first team (the first frosh offensive lineman so honored) and Freshman All-American first team in 1991. He was also a 1991 Pac-10 All-Academic first team honoree.

"Tony is the key to our offensive line in 1992," said Smith. "We'll build our line around him. He did a great job last year while playing for the first time, but I expect even more from him in 1992. He has All-American written all over him. He is an excellent run blocker and is very smart and very intense. He's just a solid, mature player."

Also returning in the lineup are soph right guard Pollack and junior center Gibson, who'll be starting for the third year (he's also in the hunt to be the long snapper).

"Kris did a great job last year," said Smith. "He's a big, strong, tough and smart offensive lineman. He'll be a key to our offensive line's performance. If Craig adds strength and weight, he could become a dominant center. He has excellent quickness and is a good scramble blocker. He has the best snap and best first step of any player I've ever coached. He's not going to be a 'muscle-you-out-of-there' guy. He snaps and, boom, he's gone."

OT TONY BOSELLI

OG-OT KRIS POLLACK

To fill in the tackle and guard spots vacated by Moody and Deese, junior Joel Crisman (5 starts in 1991) will line up as the starting left tackle, while at leftt guard it'll be redshirt freshman Robert Loya, although he'll be pushed by prep teammate Clay Hattabaugh, a sophomore. Hattabaugh played often in 1991 and even started at Arizona, becoming the first true freshman to start on the Trojan offensive line since 1979.

Backing up the starters will be junior Keith Siscel and redshirt freshman Norberto Garrido (a converted nose guard) at right tackle, redshirt freshman Kyle Ramsay and soph Jason Keiderling at right guard, junior David Apolskis (who missed last year while recovering from testicular cancer) and junior Matt Butkus (a converted defensive lineman) at center, junior Len Gorecki and sophomore Andre Abrams at left tackle, and senior Titus Tuiasosopo (1 start in 1991; he missed last spring's practice while rehabilitating from a knee injury) at left guard. Redshirt freshmen tackles Stuart Gage (tackle) and Donovan Roy (tackle) will also provide reserve support.

"We'll look to Boselli, Pollack and Gibson, 3 young but experienced players, to lead the way," said Smith. "But we need for the others to develop into starters and top-notch backups."

Freshman tackle Dong Koo is the only new offensive lineman coming in the fall.

DEFENSE

Nine starters--tackle-outside linebacker Webb, outside linebackers McGinest and Hollinquest, inside linebacker Murrell, cornerback Oliver, safeties Pace and Salmon, guard-tackle McDaniels, and nose guard Hinz--return from a defense which allowed an average of 386.6 total yards (187.6 rushing, 198.9 passing) last year. Six of USC's top 7 tacklers from 1991 are back, as are 4 of the 5 Trojans who intercepted passes.

"Defensively, we have a lot of work to do," said Smith. "We want to become a big-play, score-prevention defense. In order to do that, we'll have to change our defensive philosophy. We want an aggressive, attacking style, stunting and blitzing a lot. We want our defensive players going beserk, creating havoc with the opposing offense. We'll move players around more, changing up coverages and looks on every down. We also want to get as much speed on the field as possible."

DEFENSIVE LINE--All 3 starters from last year's defensive front return, although they might not all start this year. And there's some talented young players waiting in the wings. The improvement of this unit could be very important if USC's defense expects to get better.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN
Pat Ah-Hing, DT, In. Fr.
MIKE HINZ, NG, Jr.	7 starts in '91
Jeremy Hogue, NG, Rs. Fr.
Thomas Holland, NG, Jr.	2 starts in '91
Shannon Jones, DG, Jr.	Converted inside linebacker
Matt Keneley, DT, In. Fr.
Elic Mahone, DT-OLB, Jr.	Converted tight end
TERRY McDANIELS, DG-DT, Jr.	31 tackles in '91
John Michels, DT-OLB, Rs. Fr.
Chris Miller, NG, In. Fr.

Jason Uhl, DG, Jr.	2 starts, 1 TD int'ception in '91
DAVID WEBB, DT-OLB, Sr.	50 tackles, '91 All-Pac-10 2nd

Senior Webb (50 tackles, 5 tackles for losses, 2 deflections in 1991), although listed as a tackle, actually plays a position more like that of an outside linebacker to take advantage of his speed and quickness. One of USC's defensive leaders, he's an All-Pac-10 first team candidate now after making the All-Pac-10 second team in 1991.

"David made a lot of big plays in 1991, to the point of being a dominating player," said Smith. "Now, we expect more from him. He'll lead the way for us defensively. He's an aggressive, intense, fast and quick big-play performer, a run-and-hit type who plays a rugged style."

Backing up Webb are "something borrowed and something new." Junior Elic Mahone, who made a successful switch over from tight end last spring, is No. 2 there, while redshirt freshman John Michels is No. 3.

A pair of juniors will battle to start at nose guard: returning starter Hinz (18 tackles, 2 tackles for losses in 1991), who started USC's first 7 games there last fall before getting injured, and Thomas Holland (10 tackles, 2 tackles for losses in 1991), who started there the final 2 contests of 1991 (he was injured earlier in the season). Holland enters the fall as the starter. Redshirt freshman Jeremy Hogue, who can also long snap, is the No. 3 nose guard.

"Mike was playing well in 1991 until he got hurt and that really set him back," said Smith. "He needs to come back and step up his level of play. I expect a better year from him now. He's a strong, dominant, tough, and agile player who can make the plays inside. Thomas is another tough, active, hard-nosed, aggressive player. He's an excellent defender against the run. Both Mike and Thomas will play a lot."

DT-OLB DAVID WEBB

DG-DT TERRY McDANIELS

Junior McDaniels (31 tackles, 7 tackles for losses, 2 fumble recoveries in 1991) has started the last 2 years, but entering the fall he's listed as the backup to junior Shannon Jones at guard. Jones, a converted inside linebacker who has seen sparse action in his Trojan career, was very impressive in last spring's practice. McDaniels, who led the team in tackles for losses (7) last fall, has the potential to be a big-play defender. The No. 3 guard is junior Jason Uhl (9 tackles, 1 tackle for a loss, 1 deflection, 1 interception returned for a TD in 1991), who started twice last fall at nose guard and should see significant action this year.

"Shannon immediately took to the position switch and improved tremendously during the past spring's drills," said Smith. " In fact, he was one of our most impressive players. He makes lots of big plays and has excellent speed. Terry is an experienced, steady performer who plays best when we move him around on stunts and blitzes. He has excellent speed and quickness. He gets to the ball quickly and makes the play. And Jason is a much improved player now that he's bigger and stronger. He's one of our top pass rushers He has super quickness and is a tough competitor."

Senior tackle DeNail Sparks will serve as a reserve.

"Our defensive line is a year older now and must take a step up," said Smith. "Last year, this group was not as productive as we needed, except for Webb's play. We'll move them around more in 1992 with stunts and give them more chances to make big plays."

This fall, 3 prepsters will be added to the roster: tackle Pat Ah-Hing, tackle Matt Keneley, and nose guard Chris Miller.

INSIDE LINEBACKER--Although leading tackler Gee is gone, the Trojans are in good shape at inside linebacker.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS
Joe Barry, Jr.	Michigan transfer set out '91
Mark Farlin, In. Fr.
Brian Haas, Rs. Fr.
Jeff Kopp, So.
Jon McGee, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American
GIDION MURRELL, Jr.	62 tackles in '91
Brian Williams, So.	4 starts as true frosh in '91

Quick, tough junior Murrell (62 tackles, 6 tackles for losses, 2 deflections, 1 fumble recovery in 1991), an All-Pac-10 candidate, will start on the strong side for Gee after being the weakside starter last year. He will be one of the mainstays of Troy's interior defense. Fleet sophomore Brian Williams (34 tackles, 3 tackles for losses, 2 deflections in 1991), who started 4 times last fall as a true freshman (more than any other Trojan first-year freshman) when Murrell was sidelined by injuries, will take over for Murrell on the weak side.

"Gidion was slowed last year by injuries and never really got untracked," said Smith. "If he can stay healthy, he should have a banner year in 1992. He can be a dominating player and will be one of our keys on defense. He has great quickness, movement and big-play ability. He has a chance to be a great player. Brian, with his speed, gives our defense another dimension in the middle. He really opened our eyes last year with his play as a true freshman. He has great instincts and quickness. He's an excellent blitzer and a big-play type of inside linebacker."

Back up Murrell will be junior Joe Barry, who sat out last fall after transferring from Michigan, while soph Jeff Kopp (11 tackles, 1 tackle for a loss in 1991) will be No. 2 behind Williams and redshirt freshman Brian Haas will be No. 3 there.

"This is an excellent group of players," said Smith. "There will be lots of competition for playing time. The key is that we must stay injury-free at this position."

Arriving in the fall will be a pair of freshmen: prep All-American Jon McGee and Mark Farlin.

ILB GIDION MURRELL

OLB WILLIE McGINEST

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER--Both starters return at outside linebacker, another deep position for the Trojan defense.

Looming on the weak side is dominating junior McGinest (35 tackles, 6 tackles for losses, 6 deflections in 1991), an All-Pac-10 candidate who is the prototype outside linebacker: big, strong, fast and athletic. He has the potential to take over a game. In 1991, versatile senior Hollinquest (48 tackles, 1 tackle for a loss, 2 deflections, 1 fumble recovery in 1991) manned the strong side, where he was moved after playing the first 3 games last fall at safety (he then started 6 of USC's last 8 games at outside linebacker). But he sat out spring practice to concentrate on academics, opening the starting job for soph Donn Cunnigan (7 tackles in 1991), who was moved from safety in the spring and really took to the change.

"Willie is a key to our defense," said Smith. "He is a big-play type of player. He's a great athlete who is a fierce pass rusher and is tough against the run. He's a complete outside linebacker. I expect him to be a dominant player. Donnn is an outstanding athlete who really took to the position switch. He made a lot of big plays in the spring. He's an excellent coverage outside linebacker and is a fierce hitter. Lamont is a big rover-type of defender, a cross between a linebacker and defensive back. He's a big, strong, fast athlete and I expect him to make a lot of plays this year. Because he missed spring practice, he'll have to work his way back into the lineup."

Juniors Darren Gallaway (4 tackles, 2 tackles for losses in 1991) and Junior Moi (5 tackles, 1 fumble recovery in 1991) are the second and third players on the weakside behind McGinest, while redshirt freshman Tarriel Hopper and soph Errol Small (a safety last year) are behind Cunnigan and Hollinquest. Moi (elbow) and Small (knee) missed spring practice while recovering from injuries.

Then in the fall, 4 newcomers will join the mix: J.C. All-American Gerald Caruthers, who will come in as a junior, and prep All-American Willie Lowery, as well as incoming frosh Brett Hayhoe, the son of ex-USC and Green Bay Packers star Bill Hayhoe, and Greg Tellam.

"Everything we're doing on defense is geared around getting as many big plays as possible out of our outside linebackers," said Smith. "That's why we want all of our best athletes there. We think this is a good group which will come through for us in a big way."

SECONDARY--With three-fourths of the secondary returning intact from 1991, USC appears solid here.

Both safeties return, senior All-Pac-10 candidate Pace (73 tackles, 5 tackles for losses, 5 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 interception in 1991) for his third year as a starter and junior Salmon (72 tackles, 5 deflections, 1 fumble recovery, 2 interceptions in 1991) for his second season in the lineup. Pace, the strong safety who is the leader of the secondary, was second on the Trojans in tackles (73) last fall. Salmon, the free safety who also will be the backup holder on all placekicks, was Troy's No. 3 tackler in 1991.

"Stephon is our top all-around defensive back," said Smith. "He's one of our best tacklers and big-play types. He's a quick, instinctive player, an attacker, and is an excellent cover defender. He was one of our most improved players last spring and looks ready for an outstanding year. Mike is a very talented and versatile player. Like Stephon, he's a big-play type, an excellent tackler, a good pass defender, and is very aggressive. He got better and better each game last year and made a number of big plays."

The other returning starter is junior right cornerback Oliver (46 tackles, 11 deflections, 5 interceptions in 1991), an All-Pac-10 candidate back for his third year in the lineup. USC's best coverage defender, he led the team in interceptions (5) and pass break-ups (11) last fall while making Sophomore All-American second team. He had 3 picks in the Penn State victory.

"Jason has had 2 great years as the starter and should improve upon that in 1992," said Smith. "He's our best cover man and makes a lot of big plays. He's become a dominant player in the secondary. He has good speed, excellent coverage ability, and has gotten tougher and tougher against the run."

appeared to be soph Jerald Henry (15 tackles in 1991), who started there once last fall as a true freshman. But he underwent surgery for a dislocating shoulder midway through last spring's practice and he enters the fall listed as Oliver's backup at right corner. Sophomore John Herpin goes into the fall as the No. 1 left cornerback, with redshirt freshman Irwin Lincoln as his backup. Both are untested.

"Jerald was an impressive cornerback as a freshman," said Smith. "He has quick feet and is an excellent coverage cornerback. John was impressive this past spring. He turned in one of the best performances of any of our players during spring drills. he can be a real impact player on our defense. He is an outstanding young athlete with speed."

S STEPHON PACE

S MIKE SALMON

Experienced senior safeties Bruce Luizzi (9 tackles in 1991) and Zuri Hector (1 tackle in 1991) will back up Pace and Salmon, respectively. Luizzi, USC's top special teams performer, might also be used at outside linebacker.

It's also possible the incoming freshmen defensive backs will be called upon early: prep All-Americans Micah Phillips, a cornerback, and safety Denard Walker. Also, prep All-American tailback Scott Fields might be tried at safety.

"We have some pluses and minuses in the secondary, mostly pluses," said Smith. "The pluses are the experience we have returning, particularly at safety, which could be our strongest defensive position, as well as the speed at cornerback. The key, though, will be building enough depth in the secondary. We need for the non-starters to come through."

CB JASON OLIVER

PK COLE FORD

SPECIAL TEAMS

The placekicker (Ford), holder (Salmon) and return men are back, but USC must find a new punter and snapper.

"We need to get more big plays out of our special teams," said Smith. "We'll put a big emphasis on that. In particular, we've got to build a better return game because we have such great people back there handling the ball. And we need to find a reliable snapper."

SPECIALISTS
Martin Boskovich, P, Sr.	35.5 avg. on 2 punts in '91
COLE FORD, PK, So.	7-12 field goals, 21-21 PATs in '91
John Stonehouse, P, In. Fr.	'91 prep All-American

PLACEKICKER--Sophomore Ford (7-of-12 field goals, 21-of-21 PATs in 1991) had an above average rookie campaign last fall despite getting injured late in the year, but he needs to improve and stay healthy. Backing him up will be a pair of punters, incoming freshman John Stonehouse and senior walk-on Martin Boskovich.

"Cole did well in 1991 until he got hurt," said Smith. "He needs to stay healthy and get strong in 1992 and, if he does so, he could be one of the better placekickers in the Pac-10. He has the physical tools to be a great college kicker."

PUNTER--Three-year starting punter Dale is gone along with his 40.3 career punting average. His likely replacement will be prep All-American Stonehouse, who will step on campus in the fall. Senior Boskovich (2 punts, 35.5 avg. in 1991) is the backup, with soph Ford available in an emergency.

SNAPPER--An often overlooked, yet critically important, duty is the long snapper and USC must find a replacement for reliable 2-year starter Marc Raab. The likely candidates are junior tight end Banta, who was Raab's backup the last 2 years (he never had to snap, though), junior centers Gibson and Butkus, and 2 redshirt freshmen, defensive tackle Hogue and walk-on center Tony Gnau.

HOLDER--Junior safety Salmon was the holder on all placekicks last year, but redshirt freshman quarterback Smith looks like he'll take over that responsibility. Junior split end Morton can also handle that chore.

KICKOFF RETURNERS--Last year's kickoff returners--junior flanker Conway (20 returns, 24.7 avg. in 1991, 2 scoring returns called back by penalty) and senior flanker Hannah (10 returns, 17.3 avg. in 1991)--are back and should be deep on kickoffs once again. Conway owns the USC career record for most kickoff returns (46) and is second on the all-time Trojan kickoff return yardage list (313 yards behind Anthony Davis' 1,361). Other possible kickoff returners are junior split end Morton (4 returns, 14.8 avg. in 1991), senior tailback Crayton, and redshirt frosh tailback McFadden.

PUNT RETURNERS--Junior flanker Conway (24 returns, 7.2 avg. in 1991) was the only Trojan to handle punt returns last fall and he should do so again in 1992. Also available are senior tailback Crayton, senior flanker Wallace, junior split end Morton, senior flanker Hannah, and redshirt frosh tailback McFadden.

COACHES

—HEAD COACH LARRY SMITH

Sixth-year USC head coach Larry Smith has done what just 1 of Troy's 8 previous head coaches has ever done: guide the Trojans into a post-season bowl in each of his first 4 years on the job (John Robinson was the other).

Although that bowl string was broken in 1991, Smith's fifth year at USC, he is optimistic about bouncing back strong in 1992, when the Trojans field their 100th team. After all, the previous 2 times that USC had losing seasons, it bounced back the following year (1962 and 1984) to win the Rose Bowl (the 1962 team even won the national championship). Eighteen starters from 1991 return in 1992.

Smith's young 1991 squad--which featured an average of 12 freshmen or soph starters each game--was just 3-8 (2-6 in the Pac-10 for eighth place) while playing what USA Today ranked as the nation's toughest schedule (USC faced 6 bowl teams; 5 of its foes were ranked at the time in the AP Top 25: No. 2 Washington, No. 5 Penn State, No. 5 Notre Dame, No. 10 California and No. 25 UCLA). Four of the Trojans' losses were by a touchdown or less. USC did upset Penn State, which finished third in the polls, and posted tough road wins at Oregon and Washington State

During his 5 years at USC (1987-91), Smith--who in August of 1991 signed a multiyear extension of his original 5-year contract--has posted a 38-20-2 record for a .650 winning percentage. In Pac-10 games only, Smith is an outstanding 28-9-2 (.744) while at Troy.

After taking his first 3 Trojan teams to the Rose Bowl, Smith in 1990 guided his fourth squad--USC's least experienced team since 1965--to an 8-4-1 record (5-2-1 for second place in the Pac-10), a No. 20 AP ranking and 22nd by UPI (including rising up to No. 4 early in the season), and a berth in the John Hancock Bowl. Playing a schedule (ranked among the nation's toughest by the NCAA) that featured 6 1989 bowl teams and 8 that were in 1990 post-season play--and with only 5 home contests--Troy included among its victories wins over 2 Eastern powers (Syracuse and Penn State), Big Ten foe Ohio State and crosstown rival UCLA.

In his first 3 years, Smith won the Pacific-10 title each time and steered the Trojans into the Rose Bowl each season. Only 1 other coach in history--Claude "Tiny" Thornhill, whose 1933-35 Stanford teams went to the Rose Bowl--had his first 3 teams go to Pasadena.

In 1989, Smith led USC to a 9-2-1 record and a No. 8 ranking (6 of its foes played in bowls), capped by a 17-10 win over No. 3 Michigan in the Rose Bowl. Before tying UCLA in the regular season finale, his Trojans had won a school-record 19 consecutive Pac-10 games (3 shy of the league mark). USC's "three-peat" in the Pac-10 came by virtue of its 6-0-1 conference mark, sending the Trojans to an unprecedented 27th Rose Bowl. Troy was so dominant that it clinched the Rose Bowl berth with a game left to play. Entering the 1989 season, Athlon publications picked Smith as the National Coach of the Year.

In 1988, Smith guided USC to a 10-2 record and a No. 7 ranking. That was USC's most wins in a season since the 1979 club went 11-0-1. The Trojans were ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation (for 4 weeks) before falling to top-ranked and eventual national champion Notre Dame in the regular season finale.

USC won the Pac-10 and a trip to the Rose Bowl (where it lost to Michigan, 22-14) with an 8-0 mark in 1988, the first time any league team had won that many conference games. And it was the first time that a Pac-10 team went unbeaten and untied through the conference slate since the 1976 Trojans went 7-0. USC's 31-22 Rose Bowl clinching win at UCLA was its first-ever against the Bruins in Pasadena. Smith became the first Trojan coach to send his team to Pasadena in each of his first 2 seasons.

USC's accomplishments were especially impressive considering the quality of competition it faced in 1988. The NCAA ranked USC's schedule among the toughest in the country. USC played 6 top 20 teams and defeated 4 of them: No. 3 Oklahoma, No. 18 Oregon, No. 16 Washington, and No. 6 UCLA. USC didn't face an opponent with a sub-.500 record at the time of its game with Troy.

For all this, Smith was named the 1988 Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (with Washington State's Dennis Erickson) and UPI All-West Coast Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Football Writers Association of America's Bear Bryant Award for national coach of the year. He was the head coach of the West squad in the East-West Shrine Game.

It didn't take Smith long to guide USC to the Rose Bowl. In 1987, just his first year at Troy, Smith directed the Trojans to an 8-4 overall record as they captured the Pac-10 title and a Rose Bowl berth (they lost to Michigan State, 20-17) by going 7-1 in the league. In the Rose Bowl decider, Smith defeated crosstown rival UCLA, then ranked fifth in the nation, 17-13. His Trojans wound up ranked 17th in the nation. Only one other USC coach--Robinson in 1976--got his squad into the Rose Bowl in his first season at the university.

It's no wonder, then, that Smith was named 1987 Pac-10 Coach of the Year, as chosen by the conference coaches. He was similarly honored by the league's media in a poll conducted by The Oregonian newspaper.

Smith is no stranger to the Rose Bowl or any post-season bowl. While an assistant at Michigan, the Wolverines played in the 1970 and 1972 Rose Bowls (losing to USC, 10-3, and Stanford, 13-12, respectively). His 1979 Tulane team lost to Penn State in the Liberty Bowl, 9-6, while his last 2 Arizona squads were in bowls (the Wildcats tied Georgia in the 1985 Sun--now John Hancock--Bowl, 13-13, and beat North Carolina in the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21).

LARRY SMITH'S GOALS FOR USC FOOTBALL PLAYERS

--Be a class team with unity
--Earn a USC degree
--Beat UCLA and Notre Dame
--Win the Pac-10 championship and the Rose Bowl
--National champions

Smith, 52, took over as USC's 19th head football coach (succeeding Ted Tollner) when he signed a 5-year contract on Jan. 2, 1987. He became the first Trojan coach without a prior USC background since Howard Jones in 1925.

He came to USC from Pac-10 opponent Arizona, which he built into national prominence during his 7 years (1980-86) there.

In his last 4 seasons at Arizona, Smith won 70% of his games (31-13-2), including posting a 9-3 mark and a No. 10 ranking in 1986 while guiding the Wildcats to their first-ever bowl win (Aloha Bowl). His team gave Rose Bowl-champion Arizona State its only defeat of 1986, 34-17.

Smith, who compiled a 48-28-3 record at Arizona, set a number of superlatives at the Tucson school. He directed the Wildcats to winning seasons in 6 consecutive years for the first time since 1923, to 5 straight victories over archrival Arizona State for the first time since 1948 (knocking the Sun Devils out of the Rose Bowl twice) and to 4 consecutive seasons of 7 wins or more for the first time ever. His 48 career wins are second only to Pop McKale in Arizona history.

In addition to solid, successful football, Smith's teams are noted for their sound foundation based on fundamentals, recruiting success and good academics. For instance, his teams' grade point average increased steadily each year at Arizona, going up 1 full grade point from when he took over (that trend is continuing at USC).

Smith replaced Tony Mason in April of 1980 at Arizona and faced the difficult task of taking over a troubled program threatened with eventual NCAA probation. Without the benefit of a full spring practice under Smith, Arizona still wound up 5-6 that season, and his Wildcats improved annually each subsequent Year. His 1981 squad logged a 6-5 mark, then improved to 6-4-1 in 1982 despite facing one of the nation's most difficult schedules. The ladder of success continued as Arizona went 7-3-1 in 1983, 7-4 in 1984, 8-3-1 in 1985 (with that Sun Bowl trip), and then 9-3 in 1986.

Smith has consistently beaten Top 10 teams. Besides the wins over No. 5 Penn State in 1991, No. 3 Michigan in 1989, No. 3 Oklahoma and No. 6 UCLA in 1988 and No. 5 UCLA in 1987 while at USC, at Arizona he beat No. 2 UCLA in 1980, No. 1 USC in 1981, No. 9 Notre Dame and No. 6 Arizona State in 1982, No. 3 SMU in 1985, and No. 4 Arizona State in 1986. All those teams except the 1989 Wolverines, the 1988 and 1987 Bruins and 1982 Sun Devils were unbeaten at the time.

Larry is very active in the community. The Los Angeles Press Club named him a California Headliner of 1990. In December of 1989, 1990 and 1991, he and his team hosted Christmas parties in USC's Heritage Hall for sick children from local hospitals. In 1988, he took his team to visit sick children at the Shriners Hospital during one of USC's bye weeks, and he did the same thing in 1987 at the Pediatric Pavilion at the Los Angeles County/USC Medical Center. While at Arizona, the Larry Smith Cancer Run raised more than $500,000 for the university's Cancer Center. The Arizona chapter of Civitan International named him its 1985 Man of the Year.

Smith has been influenced by several prominent college coaches, most notably Michigan's retired Bo Schembechler (against whom he coached in the 1989 and 1990 Rose Bowls) and former Army coach Jim Young. Larry was an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. He served with Young at Lima (Ohio) Shawnee High, Miami of Ohio, Michigan and Arizona.

Larry began his coaching career at Lima Shawnee High. After the 1962 and 1963 seasons as an assistant under Young, Smith took over there for the next 3 years (1964-66) and employed one of the more innovative offenses in prep football at the time--an unbalanced line and a slot offense. He compiled a 28-9-1 record and won 2 Western Buckeye League titles. His final squad was 10-0 and allowed only 1 touchdown all season.

Smith then moved on to Miami of Ohio for 2 years (1967-68), where he served under Schembechler as defensive end coach. When Schembechler took over at Michigan in 1969, both Smith and Young moved there with him. Smith coached the offensive line there 4 years (1969-72). When Young got the head coaching job at Arizona, Smith went with him. Larry was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator there for 3 years (1973-75) as the Wildcats went 26-7 (including 9-2 and a No. 12 ranking in 1975).

Tulane hired Smith in 1976 as its head coach and Larry successfully rebuilt the Green Wave to the point where it was 9-3 in 1979, including that Liberty Bowl berth. His 4-year (1976-79) record at Tulane was 18-27.

His overall 16-year collegiate head coaching mark now stands at 104-75-5 (he got career win No. 100 in 1990 at Oregon State). In Pac-10 games while at USC and Arizona, Smith is 58-30-4 (.652), making him only the eighth coach in league history to win 50 conference games (he is sixth on the all-time chart for league wins).

Smith was a 3-sport star (defensive end in football, forward in basketball, catcher in baseball) at Van Wert (Ohio) High. His outstanding academic record and athletic ability earned him an appointment to the U.S. Military Academy after graduation from high school in 1957. But a year later, he felt coaching was his main interest, so he transferred to Bowling Green (Ohio) State University.

He was a 3-year letterman (1959-61) in football as a 2-way end at Bowling Green. His team won the Mid-American Conference and small college championship during his sophomore year. Larry won all-league honors as a junior and captained the team as a senior. He was drafted in the 12th round by the Chicago Bears. In January of 1992, he was inducted into Bowling Green's Athletic Hall of Fame.

He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Bowling Green in 1962 and then earned a master's degree in education from that university in 1967.

Smith was born on Sept. 12, 1939. He and his wife, Cheryl, have 2 children, a daughter, Alicia, 21 (she's a college senior), and a son, Corby, 19 (he's a redshirt freshman quarterback at USC). Cheryl conducted a popular 4-week seminar during the 1988 and 1990 seasons called "Football For Women."

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRIS ALLEN

Associate Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator
Outside Linebackers

Larry Smith thinks so much of Chris Allen, who has worked for Smith since 1980, that Allen is not only USC's defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach, but also the associate head coach.

Allen was USC's assistant head coach in 1987 and 1988, and was promoted to associate head coach in 1989.

In 1989, USC led the Pac-10 in 3 defensive categories: rushing defense (66.3, tops in the nation), total defense (238.4, No. 2) and scoring defense (11.0, No. 3). Trojan outside linebacker Junior Seau was a first team All-American in 1989 and a first round NFL draft pick.

In 1988, USC topped the Pac-10 in those same 3 defensive categories: rushing defense (76.6, which was No. 2 nationally), total defense (268.9, No. 10) and scoring defense (14.7 points a game, No. 11).

In 1987, Troy led the nation in turnover margin (1.64 a game). Trojan outside linebacker Marcus Cotton was a third team All-American in 1987.

Allen, who came to USC with Smith in January of 1987, spent 7 years (1980-86) at Arizona. He was the outside linebackers coach the first 5 seasons and then spent 1985 as the offensive coordinator (Arizona's low-risk attack ranked second in the country in turnover margin). Chris was promoted to assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 1986 (the Wildcats' rushing defense was fourth nationally and topped the Pac-10 in 1986) while also handling the outside linebackers.

Before going to Arizona, the 50-year-old Allen was the offensive line coach at Central Michigan for 8 years (1970-77) and the defensive coordinator at Ball State for 2 seasons (1978-79). Central Michigan won the NCAA Division II championship in 1974 and Ball State was the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive team in 1978.

Born Dec. 13, 1941, Allen was an All-State guard at Ionia (Mich.) High. He attended Central Michigan, where he received a bachelor's degree in English in 1964 and a master's degree in education in 1967.

Chris began his coaching career at Laker High in Pigeon, Mich., where he was the head coach for 2 years (1965-66). He spent the next 2 seasons (1967-68) as the defensive coordinator at Ferndale (Mich.) High and then was named head coach at his prep alma mater, Ionia High, for the 1969 campaign.

Allen and his wife, Nancy, have 2 sons, Brent, 31, and Shane, 27.

GARY BERNARDI

Tight Ends, Offensive Tackles
Special Teams Co-Coordinator

Being named an assistant coach at USC in January of 1987 was a homecoming of sorts for energetic Gary Bernardi, who grew up in Southern California and began his coaching career in the area. He handles Troy's tight ends amd offensive tackles, and is the special teams co-coordinator.

In 1988 and 1989, USC tight end Scott Galbraith earned All-Pac-10 first team honors (he was a third team All-American in 1988). In 1987, Paul Green made the All-Pac-10 first team and honorable mention All-American.

An all-league receiver and team captain at Monroe High in Sepulveda, Calif., in 1971, Bernardi attended College of the Canyons in Valencia, Calif., for 2 years (1972-73) and then went to Cal State Northridge for another 2 years (1974-75), where he obtained a bachelor's degree in physical education/health sciences in 1976.

He started his coaching career as an assistant at Bellarmine-Jefferson High in Burbank, Calif., for 2 seasons (1973-74) and then spent 1975 as an assistant at his prep alma mater, Monroe High. Gary next went to Fountain Valley High for 4 years (1976-79), where he handled the receivers and tight ends. Fountain Valley was 40-7-1 during his time there (the 1978 squad won the CIF title) and he coached future Stanford All-American receiver Ken Margerum.

Bernardi, 37, has spent his entire collegiate coaching tenure under Larry Smith at Arizona and now USC. He began as a part-time coach working with Arizona's tight ends in 1980, and was also Smith's administrative assistant. He continued as an administrative assistant the next year, then coached tight ends the following 3 seasons. He then became the receivers coach in 1985 and moved back to the tight ends in 1986. Gary was also Arizona's football recruiting coordinator.

He was born on Sept. 24, 1954. He and his wife, Leigh, have 3 children: Marina, 8, as well as 5-year-old twins, Joe and Briana.

BOB COPE

Secondary

Bob Cope, the one-time head coach at the University of Pacific who has 30 years of football coaching experience, joined the USC staff in February of 1991 as the secondary coach.

Known for his fine defensive mind, 18 defensive units that Cope has coached have ranked in the top 10 nationally in at least 1 statistical category. He has coached 4 players who were NFL first round draft picks: Billy Ray Smith, Dan Hampton and Ron Faurot at Arkansas and Freddie Joe Nunn at Mississippi.

Cope, 55, spent the past 2 seasons (1989-90) as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Kansas State. He was also given the additional duty of associate head coach in 1990. The Sporting News named him the "Best Defensive Assistant Coach" in the Big Eight entering the 1990 season.

Before that, Cope was the head coach at Pacific for 6 seasons (1983-88), where his record was 22-46. Among his victories were wins over Oregon, Fresno State, Minnesota, San Jose State and Hawaii.

Cope began his coaching career at the high school level, serving as the freshman coach at Hammond High in Alexandria, Virg., in 1961 and the varsity defensive coordinator at Morristown (Tenn.) High the following 2 years (1962-63).

He moved into the college ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt for 8 years (1964-71). He also was the recruiting coordinator there in 1971. He moved to Pacific as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for the next 4 years (1972-75) before spending 1976 handling the defensive line at SMU under Ron Meyer.

Bob then was the secondary coach at Arkansas for 4 years (1977-80) under Lou Holtz. He was also Arkansas' defensive coordinator his final year there (1980). While Cope was there, Arkansas was 37-10-1, went to bowl games each year (Orange, Fiesta, Sugar, Hall of Fame), and won a Southwest Conference championship.

Cope then spent 1 year each as the defensive coordinator at Mississippi (1981, under Steve Sloan) and Purdue (1982, under Leon Burnett) before landing the head coaching job at Pacific.

He played on 3 state champion teams at Central High in Chattanooga, Tenn. (the team was 31-1-1 during that span) and then was a small college All-American center/linebacker at Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn. He earned his bachelor's degree there in physical education and English in 1961. He received a master's degree in physical education from George Peabody College in Nashville in 1965.

Born on Nov. 6, 1936, he and his wife, Jimmie Ruth, have a daughter, Susan, 19.

RAY DORR

Quarterbacks

Pass Game Coordinator

Ray Dorr came to USC in February of 1988 and he brought along both a great football background and a reputation as an outstanding offensive coach.

After handling USC's wide receivers in 1988, Dorr became the quarterback coach and pass game coordinator in 1989. He was given the additional duty of offensive coordinator in 1992.

In 1990, quarterback Todd Marinovich was a first round NFL draft choice, while in 1989 he was an All-Pac-10 first teamer and was the College Freshman of the Year (by UPI and The Sporting News).

In 1988, split end Erik Affholter was a first team All-American while becoming USC's career receiving leader.

The previous 4 years (1984-87), Dorr was the head coach at Southern Illinois and posted a 17-27 record at the Division I AA school in Carbondale, Ill. His 1986 squad went 7-4.

Before going to Southern Illinois, Dorr spent 9 years (1975-83) as the quarterback coach at Washington under Don James. During Dorr's time there, Washington went 75-30 and played in 6 bowls, including 3 Rose Bowls. Among the Husky quarterbacks he tutored were future NFLers Warren Moon, Tom Flick and Steve Pelluer. Ray also handled Washington's punters (including future NFL star Rich Camarillo) and punt team.

Dorr began his coaching career as an assistant at Wadsworth High in Akron, Ohio, for 2 years (1965-66). He became a graduate assistant coach at Akron in 1967, then was the school's backfield coach for 3 years (1968-70). He moved to Kent State, where he handled the quarterbacks for 5 years (1970-74). James was Kent State's coach beginning in 1971 and took Dorr with him to Washington in 1975.

Dorr, 50, was a 4-sport star at McKinley High in Sebring, Ohio, and started at quarterback for 3 years (1962-64) at West Virginia Wesleyan, which went 19-6-2 with him calling the signals. Ray received his bachelor's degree in social studies from West Virginia Wesleyan in 1965 and earned a master's degree in physical education administration from Akron in 1967.

Born Nov. 2, 1941, he and his wife, Karen, have 2 sons, Stephen, 19, and David, 15.

WAYNE NUNNELY

Running Backs

Wayne Nunnely, who had been a football player, assistant coach, head coach and administrator at Nevada-Las Vegas, joined the USC staff in March of 1991. He's in charge of one of the most prestigious positions in college football, the Trojan running backs.

Nunnely, 40, was UNLV's head coach for 4 years (1986-89), posting a 19-25 record. He was the fifth black head coach at the NCAA Division I level and the first on the West Coast. His 1986 team went 6-5 and beat Big Ten member Wisconsin. In 1987, Rebel running back Elbert "Ickey" Woods led the nation in rushing (150.7). After the 1987 season, Nunnely served as an assistant in the Japan Bowl.

Nunnely spent the previous 4 seasons (1982-85) as an assistant at UNLV, working with the running backs. Besides Woods, he coached 3 other All-Big West first team backs: Keyvan Jenkins (1983), Kirk Jones (1984) and Tony Lewis (1985).

During that 8-year span at UNLV, the Rebels led the Big West Conference in rushing 4 times and had an NCAA and 2 Big West individual rushing champs.

In 1990, Nunnely was UNLV's Director of Minority Student Affairs.

He began his coaching career at Valley High in Las Vegas, where he was an assistant varsity football coach and the head freshman basketball coach in 1975. He then was a graduate assistant at UNLV in 1976, helping with the running backs. He spent the next 2 seasons (1977-78 as an assistant at Cal Poly Pomona, the first year working with the running backs and the next with the defensive line. In 1979, he was the defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton and then spent the following 2 seasons (1980-81) at Pacific as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator.

Nunnely lettered in football and track at UNLV, where he was the Rebels' co-captain at fullback in 1972. He graduated from UNLV in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Nunnely prepped at Monrovia (Calif.) High, where he was team captain, All-CIF, All-San Gabriel Valley and MVP of the Pacific League as a fullback. In 1987, he was inducted into the Monrovia High Hall of Fame. He then attended Citrus Junior College in Azusa, Calif. from 1970 to 1972 before transferring to UNLV. He starred in football and track at Citrus, where he was the football team's captain and an All-Mission Conference fullback.

Born March 29, 1952, he and his wife, Velda, have 3 children: Channing, 19, Amber, 9, and Aaron, 5.

BOB PALCIC

Offensive Guards, Centers

Bob Palcic, an assistant coach at Ohio State the past 6 years who also served under Larry Smith for 2 years at Arizona, was named an assistant coach in charge of offensive guards and centers this past February.

At Ohio State, the 44-year-old Palcic handled the offensive line his first 5 years there (1986-90), working with the tackles and tight ends for the first 2 years and the guards and centers the next 3 seasons. He then spent 1991 guiding the Buckeye defensive ends. He also was Ohio State's special teams coordinator the past 2 years. He coached Buckeye All-American center Jeff Uhlenhake.

Palcic handled the offensive line for Smith at Arizona from 1984-85.

Bob began his coaching career in 1973 as a graduate assistant at Ball State. He spent the next 2 years (1974-75) at Dayton, his alma mater, where he was a fulltime assistant in charge of defensive ends and linebackers the first year and offensive linemen the next season. He returned to Ball State as the offensive line coach for 2 seasons (1976-77) under the late Dave McClain, as the team went 17-5. He then went with McClain to Wisconsin as the offensive line coach for 4 years (1978-81), where he coached All-American offensive tackle Ray Snell, a first round NFL draft pick.

He then was the offensive line coach with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for 2 years (1982-83) and the Argonauts appeared in the Grey Cup both seasons (winning it in 1983).

Born on July 2, 1948, Palcic was a 4-sport star at Cardinal Mindszenty High in Dunkirk, N.Y. He was a 3-year starting linebacker (1968-70) and the team captain as a senior at Dayton, where he received a bachelor's degree in education in 1971.

Bob and his wife, Theresa, have 3 children, Joe, 17, Amy, 16, and Monica, 11.

TOM ROGGEMAN

Inside Linebackers
Special Teams Co-Coordinator

Tom Roggeman is one of the most intense, spirited coaches you'll ever meet...and that makes him the perfect inside linebackers coach.

He is also the special teams co-coordinator.

The 3 years (1988-90), USC inside linebacker Scott Ross was first team All-Pac-10 (he was a first team All-American in 1990 and an honorable mention All-American in 1988).

In 1987, inside linebacker Keith Davis was an honorable mention All-American, while Ross was a first team Freshman All-American.

Roggeman had been at Arizona since 1977 before moving to USC in January of 1987. He coached the Wildcat defensive line for 3 years (1977-79), was the strength coach in 1980 and 1981, and handled inside linebackers the final 5 years (1982-86). He was also Larry Smith's administrative assistant in 1985 and 1986. Among the outstanding Wildcat inside linebackers he molded were Ricky Hunley (now a USC graduate assistant coach) and Byron Evans.

Tom also was the defensive line coach at Purdue for 7 years (1970-76). Before that, he was one of Indiana's all-time great prep coaches, compiling a 77-18-7 record (78.9%) in 11 seasons (1959-69) at South Bend's Washington High. In 1992, he was inducted into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame.

Roggeman attended Mishiwaka (Ind.) High and then starred as a guard at Purdue from 1949 to 1952. He received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue in 1953 and a master's degree in physical education from there in 1957. He played with the Chicago Bears for 3 years (1955-57), including on the 1956 club which played in the NFL championship.

Tom, 61, and his wife, Florence, have 5 children: Karen, Julie, Tom Jr., Pamela, and Tim. Tom Jr., a former defensive lineman (1983-84) and graduate assistant coach (1985-86) at Notre Dame, is now an assistant at Nevada-Las Vegas after a 3-year stint (1987-89) as an assistant at Murray State. Tim, also known as Buck, was a defensive lineman at Stanford (1986-89) and then received his master's degree in journalism at USC. Karen received a master's degree in business administration at USC. Roggeman was born on Sept. 5, 1931 in Mishawaka, Ind., a few miles from the Notre Dame campus.

MIKE SANFORD

Wide Receivers

After a 12-year absence, Mike Sanford returned to his alma mater in the summer of 1989 as an assistant coach. The former USC player and graduate assistant coach is in charge of the wide receivers.

In 1991, flanker Curtis Conway made the All-Pac-10 first team as a return specialist.

In 1990, flanker Gary Wellman was a first team All-Pac-10 pick and became USC's first 1,000-yard season receiver.

In 1989, split end John Jackson was All-Pac-10 first team and became USC's career receiving leader.

Sanford, 37, made 5 coaching stops prior to returning to Troy. For the previous 2 years (1987-88), he was the quarterback and receiver coach and game coordinator at Purdue. Before that, he spent 4 seasons (1983-86) handling the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Long Beach State. He was also Long Beach State's offensive coordinator his final 2 years there (Long Beach was in the Top 10 nationally in pass offense both years). His 49er quarterback, Doug Gaynor, set 4 NCAA career records, while Mark Templeton set the NCAA career pass catching mark. Mike was also at Virginia Military Institute for 2 years (1981-82), working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, as well as serving as the pass offense coordinator. And he spent 2 years (1979-80) at Army under Lou Saban, handling the wide receivers and tight ends. In 1978, he was the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

Sanford began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for John Robinson at USC in 1977. He had spent the previous 4 years at USC as a reserve quarterback and safety. In 1975, John McKay's final year, Mike began the season as the Trojans' No. 4 quarterback, but was suddenly named the starter (for Vince Evans) for the Washington game late in the year. Sanford was such an unknown that when McKay announced this to the media prior to the game, the coach called him "Stafford." Sanford gave a valiant effort, but USC lost, 8-7, on a safety following a bad snap to the punter.

He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from USC in 1978.

He was an All-Northern California quarterback at Los Altos (Calif.) High in the Bay Area. His brother, Bill, played football and baseball at Washington State, while another brother, Steve, played football at Washington.

Sanford was born on April 20, 1955. He and his wife, Melinda (a USC graduate), have 2 children: a daughter, Lindsay, 13, and a son, Michael, 10.

KEVIN WOLTHAUSEN

Defensive Line

Kevin Wolthausen, who handles USC's defensive line, has produced some of the nation's best defensive fronts.

In 1989, the Trojans' rushing defense was tops in the country, allowing just 66.3 yards per game. In 1988, USC's rushing defense was second in the nation (tops in the Pac-10) at 76.6.

In 1990, defensive guard Don Gibson was a first team All-Pac-10er.

In 1988 and 1989, USC defensive tackle Tim Ryan was a first team All-American (he was a Lombardi Award finalist in 1989 and led the Pac-10 in sacks and tackles for a loss last year), while defensive guard Dan Owens won first team All-Pac-10 and honorable mention All-American notice. In 1987, Ryan was an honorable mention All-American.

The 34-year-old Wolthausen came to USC in January of 1987 after 4 years (1983-86) under Larry Smith at Arizona. He was a graduate assistant working with the linebackers and kicking game his first 2 years, then at the age of 27 was elevated to outside linebacker coach in 1985. In 1986, Wolthausen was shifted to defensive line coach. Each of his final 2 years, one of his pupils--Danny Lockett in 1985 and Stan Mataele in 1986--led the Pac-10 in sacks.

Kevin started his coaching career as a student assistant working with the defense at Cal State Northridge in the spring of 1980. He then spent 3 years (1980-82) as a part-time assistant at Humboldt (Calif.) State, handling the linebackers and defensive line.

He had a 5-sport career at Dos Pueblos High in Goleta, Calif., and then was an all-conference linebacker at both Santa Barbara (Calif.) City College (1976-77) and Humboldt State (1978-79). He got a bachelor's degree in physical education from Humboldt State in 1981.

Born Dec. 27, 1957, Wolthausen is married and his wife's name is Michel.

ROBB ROGERS

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Robb Rogers, an assistant at USC since January of 1989, was named the Trojans' head strength and conditioning coach in May of 1990.

Before coming to USC, the 33-year-old Rogers was an assistant at Missouri for 7 years (1982-88), where he received his master's degree in human performance/sports psychology in 1987.

He has been a member of the National Strength Coaches Association since 1982 and is a certified NSCA strength and conditioning specialist. Rogers, who has spoken at clinics across the country and authored aritcles in national publications, has served on the NSCA's Missouri state board and is currently on the California state board. He is also a level I coach in the United States Weightlifting Federation.

He attended Southwest Missouri State and served as a student assistant strength coach there for 2 years (1981-82). He received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southwest Missouri State in 1982.

Rogers prepped at Houston (Mo.) High, where he starred in football, track and baseball.

Born on January 18, 1959, Rogers is married and his wife's name is Michele.

He is assisted by Larry Levermann and Dan Mahan.

RICKY HUNLEY

Defensive Assistant

A 2-time All-American inside linebacker under Larry Smith at Arizona and then a star in the NFL, Hunley reunited with Smith this past spring to begin his coaching career as a graduate assistant at USC. He'll work with the linebackers and special teams.

In the summer of 1992, Hunley gained coaching experience at the Pittsburgh Steelers training camp as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship.

Hunley, 30, spent 7 years in the NFL with the Denver Broncos (1984-87), Phoenix Cardinals (1988) and Los Angeles Raiders (1989-90). He was the seventh pick of the 1984 NFL draft, chosen by the Cincinnati Bengals, but was traded to Denver midseason when the Bengals were unable to sign him. He started his last 2 seasons at Denver (leading the team in tackles in 1986 with 164 and adding 104 in 1987) and played in Super Bowls XXI and XXII. He played inside linebacker and was a key special teams player during his pro career. He served as the executive vice president of the NFL Players' Association. He was involved in numerous charitable activities.

Ricky was a 2-time consensus All-American (1982-83), 3-time All-Pac-10 first teamer (1981-83) and 4-year starter (1980-83) at Arizona, where he totalled 566 tackles in his career. He was the first consensus All-American in school history. He led the Wildcats in total and unassisted tackles his final 3 seasons there. He posted 31 games with 10 or more stops. His 7 interceptions in 1983 topped the Pac-10. He was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and played in the Hula Bowl, Japan Bowl and Blue-Gray Game his senior season, when he co-captained the Wildcats. In 1989, he was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame. At Arizona, he played alongside his brother, LaMonte.

He prepped at Petersburg (Va.) High, starring in football and baseball. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 26th round of the 1980 baseball draft.

Born Nov. 11, 1961, Hunley received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987 and is working currently on his master's degree in business administration at USC. He also earned an Arizona real estate license in 1986. He and his wife, Camille, have a daughter, Alexis, 1. Camille, who received bachelor's and law degrees from USC, is the daughter of Judge H. Randolph Moore Jr., who teaches in USC's Law Center.

JEFF KEARIN

Offensive Assistant

Jeff Kearin joined the USC staff in the spring of 1991 as a volunteer assistant, working with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and placekickers. He was named a graduate assistant this past spring.

Kearin, 32, spent the previous 11 years (1980-90) as an assistant football coach at his alma mater, Loyola High in Los Angeles. During that span, Loyola won 7 league titles and was the 1990 CIF Division I champion. Working under head coach Steve Grady, a former Trojan running back, Jeff helped coach current Trojans Matt Butkus, Corby Smith (son of USC head coach Larry Smith) and John Stonehouse.

His last 2 seasons (1990-91) there, Kearin also was Loyola's junior varsity boys' volleyball coach and taught classes there. And he was the head varsity girls' basketball coach at Marymount High in Los Angeles for those 2 seasons (1990-91).

Kearin prepped at Loyola High, where he played quarterback. He then attended the University of San Diego, playing quarterback there in 1978, before transferring to Loyola Marymount. He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Loyola Marymount in 1983. He then attended Whittier College School of Law, receiving his J.D. degree in 1987. While in law school, he was a law clerk at 2 different law firms. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Born July 14, 1960, Kearin is single.

ANDRE ABRAMS

Offensive Tackle
Sophomore

1992: Recovered from injuries which hampered his early career at USC, the sophomore Abrams is the No. 3 left offensive tackle.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Andre seems to have his shoulder problems behind him now. He is a promising young lineman and we look for him to provide backup help on the offensive line in 1992."

1991: Abrams, a reserve offensive tackle, missed all of his 1991 redshirt freshman year while recovering from surgery following 1991 spring practice to repair a dislocating right shoulder (the second such operation he has had in his career at USC). The injury kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

1990: He missed all of 1990, his first year at USC, after dislocating his right shoulder in pre-season drills and having surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was named Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-American third team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Super Prep Southern California Top 100, All-Ivy League first team and Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire as an offensive tackle in 1989 at Perris High in Nuevo (Calif.). He played a key role in Perris accumulating 625 yards rushing (among the top 5 team rushing totals ever in California prep history) in its 55-14 victory over La Habra High.

Abrams also lettered in track and field. He won the 1990 Ivy League title in the discus. He owns personal bests of 157-0 in the discus and 53-2 1/2 in the shot put.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 5.1 and bench presses 350 pounds.

DAVID APOLSKIS

Center-Offensive Guard
Junior

1992: Here's one of the remarkable stories in college football. Apolskis, a junior, has beaten the cancer which sidelined him all of 1991 and appears ready to once again contribute to the Trojan offensive line. He's the No. 2 center behind Craig Gibson, but is talented and versatile enough to swing to offensive guard.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "David is truly an inspirational story, how he has overcome his battle with cancer. He's really made some progress in getting his weight (he had lost 30 pounds) and strength back. He should be able to compete in the fall for lots of playing time as a swing man at center or guard. He's got good quickness."

1991: Apolskis was expected to be a key backup on the offensive line as a sophomore in 1991. But just before fall practice began, he was diagnosed with testicular cancer and had surgery in early August to remove a testicle. He underwent additional surgery to remove cancerous abdominal lymph nodes in late August. Throughout the fall, he received chemotherapy treatments and sat out the football season. Doctors believe that it is highly unlikely the cancer will reoccur. He was held out of contact drills in 1992 spring practice because of sore ribs from follow-up surgery.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Apolskis started USC's first 6 games at center in 1990 and did a good job, but then gave way to Gibson, who started there the rest of the season. Apolskis spent the rest of the season playing a limited role as a backup, first behind Gibson at center and then behind Mark Tucker at strong offensive guard. He was named a Football News Freshman All-American second teamer.

1989: Apolskis redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way starting lineman as a senior in 1988 at St. Thomas High in Houston (Tex.), Apolskis earned Texas Christian Interscholastic League All-State honors while helping the Eagles to a 9-2 record and the TCIL state title. He was especially effective opening holes in short yardage situations. He made the final sack to preserve St. Thomas' 10-6 victory in the state championship game. He was also named All-Greater Houston, Dallas Morning News Top 100, Fort Worth Star Telegram Texas Top 100, National Prep All-Southwest, Greater Houston Defensive Player of the Year and Houston Chronicle Nifty Fifty in 1988.

He was named All-Greater Houston and TCIL All-State as a junior in 1987 and as a sophomore in 1986. A versatile athlete, he played varsity basketball as a sophomore and threw the shot and discus in track his final 2 years at St. Thomas. He was also an excellent student, compiling a B+ average.

PERSONAL: Apolskis has bench pressed 365 pounds. His brother, Rick, was an offensive lineman at Arkansas (his last season there was 1989) who signed as a free agent with the New York Giants in 1990. David's late father, Rich, played basketball at Houston. His grandfather, Chuck, was an end with the Chicago Bears in 1938 and 1939. His great uncle, Ray, was a center with the Cardinals. David likes to read and fish in his spare time. He's a public administration major at USC with a B- average (2.71 GPA).

DAVID APOLSKIS ON: His cancer: "When I was in the recovery room, they told me it was a tumor. The first thing I thought was I was going to die. I was crying. A nurse had to calm me down...It was really frightening. I was a mess for a few weeks. But I've done a lot of research on cancer and understand a lot more. This is the second or third most curable cancer there is...I got a lot of support from everybody. A lot of people worried about me too much. But sometimes it was good for me because I did need to slow down...What surprised me was the number of people who wrote to me (he received more than 300 letters) and told me they had the same problem. They were real supportive and helped me through it...I just wanted to be as normal as possible. I wanted to kid around with people. I think a lot of them thought I was in denial, that I wasn't really facing up to what was happening. But that was just my way of handling it...Afterwards, the first time I walked from my apartment to Heritage Hall, about 2 blocks, I was just dripping sweat. I was about to faint. I ended up sleeping in the trainer's room...The whole experience has really changed the way I look at football and at life. I feel really guilty now if I waste a day or if I do something dumb. I feel like I should apologize to myself. It's like I've been given this second chance and I don't think I should waste it...It was a shock at first not playing. It was really hard just to go out on the field and watch and know you can't play. I knew physically I couldn't be out there, but mentally I wanted to be in badly. It was really a big test for me to contemplate my football career and how long I wanted to go. I'm really starting to enjoy the game now...I've been pretty positive. I'm learning to appreciate football a lot more than I did before. It was like a chore before. Now it's a little bit different...Being out there watching the Penn State game, I knew I wanted to play again."

BRADFORD BANTA

Tight End
Junior

1992: The biggest and best blocker of USC's tight ends, the experienced Banta enters fall drills as the No. 1 tight end, but is being pushed by returning starter Yonnie Jackson. Whether Banta, a junior, starts or not, he will see plenty of action because the Trojans use many multiple tight end formations. Bradford also could be the long snapper.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Bradford is one of the best blocking tight ends in the Pac-10. He's working very hard to be a better receiver and, when that part of his game improves, he could become a great tight end. He'll be on the field often in 1992."

1991: Banta spent most of his 1991 sophomore season as the backup behind Jackson. Bradford even started 3 games (Washington State, Stanford and UCLA), although Jackson did play in those contests. Because USC often used multiple tight end formations, Banta played often in 1991. He caught 7 passes for 75 yards (10.7 average), including 2 for 30 yards in the Memphis State opener and 1 pass in 5 of USC's last 7 games. He and Jackson were named USC's Co-Offensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame. Banta also served as the No. 2 long snapper behind Marc Raab, but was never called upon in that role.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Banta began 1990 as the No. 3 tight end behind starter Frank Griffin and backup Jackson (Bradford was used often in 3-tight end formations), but he steadily moved up the depth chart as injuries hit the position. By game 6 (Stanford), he was Jackson's backup after Griffin got hurt, and then Bradford became the starter by game 9 (California) after Jackson went down. Banta started 3 contests (California, Oregon State, UCLA) before he fractured the fibula bone in his left leg earlier in the Bruin game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He only caught 1 pass all year, but it was a big one: an 18-yard TD against California (he also grabbed what appeared to be a scoring toss at Arizona State on a botched field goal attempt when holder Pat O'Hara tossed the ball to kicker Quin Rodriguez, who in turn threw it 19 yards to Banta, but the TD was disallowed because of 2 forward passes). Bradford was also the backup long snapper behind Raab before getting hurt, but he never had to snap the ball.

1989: Banta redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the most highly-recruited tight end prospects in the prep ranks in 1988, Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High in Baton Rouge (La.), which is located in the middle of the LSU campus. A 4-year starter, Banta caught 146 passes in his career for 2,629 yards and 22 touchdowns. He had 33 receptions for 563 yards and 3 TDs in 1988, helping University to a 13-0 record and the Louisiana state championship. Defensively at linebacker, he made 102 tackles and picked off 3 passes in 1988. He was the Gatorade Circle of Champions Louisiana Player of the Year, East Baton Rouge Parish Athlete of the Year, Super Prep All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, USF&G Sugar Bowl Award (for state prep player of the year), New Orleans Times-Picayune Top 10, Baton Rouge Morning Advocate Super Dozen, Lindy's All-South and Max Emfinger's Top 100 in the nation. Banta also earned All-State, All-District and All-Parish first team honors on both offense and defense in 1988 (including state and district defensive MVP).

Bradford's stats as a junior in 1987 were 38 receptions for 731 yards, 9 TDs, 75 tackles and 4 interceptions (University was 11-1 that year). His junior honors included 2-way All-District first team, All-Parish first team on offense, All-State first team on offense, and All-State second team on defense.

Banta missed 5 games with a broken leg during his sophomore season in 1986, but still caught 22 passes for 407 yards and 3 scores. He was a 2-way All-District second team pick in 1986.

Surprisingly, Banta's freshman statistics were his most impressive--53 receptions for 928 yards and 7 touchdowns while University lost in the state championship game. In 1985, Banta was named All-District and All-Parish first team, and All-State second team.

Also an outstanding basketball player, Bradford averaged 17 points and 9 rebounds, earning All-District first team and All-State second team honors in 1989. He was University's leading scorer and rebounder in 1987-88. Banta won the discus and was second in the shot put and javelin at the 1989 Louisiana state track meet (University won the team title) and had prep bests of 53-1 in the shot put, 169-7 in the javelin and 163-5 in the discus. He is a 3-time American Legion baseball All-Star and played fast-pitch softball for the nation's No. 2 team in 1986.

PERSONAL: He can run the 40 in 4.8. Bradford is his middle name; his real first name is Dennis. He is a communications major at USC.

BRADFORD BANTA ON: Why he watches cartoons before each game: "I'm a very superstitious guy. I hate watching football on game day because it breaks my concentration on our game."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Joe Paterno, Penn State head coach: "He's as fine a blocking tight end as I've seen."

JOE BARRY

Inside Linebacker
Junior

1992: Barry, a tough, heady junior who is the No. 2 strongside inside linebacker behind Gidion Murrell, figures to see his first action as a Trojan in 1992 after transferring from Michigan. He also will be a key special teams performer.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Joe is an aggressive, intense inside linebacker. He's a good leader. He was very impressive in last spring drills and is firmly entrenched as our No. 2 player at his spot. He see lots of action there and on special teams."

1991: Barry, an inside linebacker, sat out 1991 after transferring to USC from Michigan.

1990: Barry did not play as a 1990 redshirt freshman at Michigan while recovering from the 1989 knee injury.

1989: Barry redshirted in 1989 as a first-year freshman inside linebacker at Michigan. He suffered a right knee sprain late in the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Barry was a 2-time (1987-88) All-Colorado pick when he had 247 tackles as a junior and senior at Fairview High in Boulder (where he was a teammate of current Trojan Tony Boselli). Joe was an All-Iowa second team selection as a 1986 sophomore at Ames (Ia.) High, where he posted 128 tackles. He also starred in basketball and track as a prepster.

PERSONAL: His father, Mike, is the offensive line coach at Colorado who served a similar duty under current USC coach Larry Smith at Arizona from 1980-83 (Smith's son, Corby, currently a Trojan quarterback, and Joe became close friends then). Joe runs the 40 in 4.8. He was born in Murphysboro, Ill.

WES BENDER

Fullback
6-0, 245
Senior

1992: Bender--that rare combination of a fast running, yet rugged blocking fullback--returns as the starter as a senior. He opened the coaches' eyes when he got the opportunity to play in the middle of last season and they hope he picks up where he left off.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Wes really had a good second half of 1991. He only figures to get better. He's a strong blocker and quick runner, a real impact player. He has excellent speed, and is quick and low to the ground. He's a fullback's fullback."

1991: Bender came to USC in the fall of 1991 as a highly-regarded junior college transfer fullback and was expected to redshirt. But he was called into action as a reserve by the fifth game of the season (Washington State) and impressed the coaches with his tough running and hard blocking so much that he ended up starting USC's final 5 contests. Overall, he gained 59 yards on 17 carries (3.5 average) in 1991 as a junior, including 30 yards on 7 carries against Stanford in his first start. He also fielded a short kickoff at Arizona and returned it 8 yards.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Bender was a Cal-Hi Sports J.C. All-State honorable mention and All-Western State Conference first team pick in 1990 at Glendale (Calif.) Community College. As a 1990 sophomore, he gained 999 yards on 141 carries (7.1 average) with 4 TDs and caught 2 passes for 23 yards (11.5 average). Against Moorpark College, he gained 172 yards on 19 carries, winning State J.C. Player of the Week notice. He was also the team's Most Inspirational Player on a squad that went 9-2, was ranked No. 6 in California, and won the Southern California Bowl.

As a 1989 freshman at Glendale, he ran for 471 yards on 84 carries (5.6 average) with 13 TDs and caught 5 passes for 63 yards (12.6 average) and 1 score. He rushed for 113 yards and 4 TDs on just 11 carries against Los Angeles Harbor College. He earned All-Western State Conference honorable mention and team MVP honors. Among his Glendale teammates were current Trojans Martin Boskovich and Roy Talavera.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Burroughs High in Burbank (Calif.) after spending time at Burbank High. Current Trojan teammate Bruce Luizzi also played football at Burroughs.

PERSONAL: He is the strongest Trojan, having bench pressed 440 pounds, and he runs the 40 in 4.5. His hobby is weightlifting. He's an exercise science major at USC.

WES BENDER ON: Overcoming his dyslexia: "It's been quite a fight. In junior high, kids made fun of me because I couldn't talk. Teachers said I was lazy and didn't study. The same thing happened to me in high school. What they didn't realize was that I was dyslexic and that I had a speech impediment. But I continued to work hard at my studies. I did the best I could and I excelled. I've come a long way."

TONY BOSELLI

Offensive Tackle
Sophomore

1992: Meet USC's next great offensive lineman. At a school that has produced 24 first team All-American offensive linemen since 1964 and 17 linemen who have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968, you can count on Boselli--the dominating right offensive tackle--joining those ranks in the near future. Just a sophomore, the All-American candidate who was named to the prestigious 1992 Playboy pre-season All-American team has already proven his ability with an unparalleled freshman campaign while starting all season.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Tony is the key to our offensive line in 1992. We'll build our line around him. He did a great job last year while playing for the first time, but I expect even more from him in 1992. He has All-American written all over him. He is an excellent run blocker and is very smart and very intense. He's just a solid, mature player despite his youth."

1991: As just a redshirt freshman in 1991, the big, powerful and quick Boselli inherited the starting strong tackle spot from NFL first round pick Pat Harlow and Tony had an unprecedented year. He made Football News Freshman All-American first team, All-Pac-10 first team (the first freshman offensive lineman ever honored and 1 of only 2 freshmen to make the 1991 All-Pac-10 first team, along with Arizona's all-purpose performer Charles Levy), Football News Almost All-American, USC's Offensive Player of the Year (the first freshman ever to win that award) and USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award (for most minutes played). A ferocious blocker, Boselli had an amazing 24 "decleaters" (knocking an opposing lineman off his feet) at Washington State, just shy of the USC record of 28 set by All-American and NFL first round pick Dave Cadigan against Boston College in 1987. Tony started every game but Stanford (Kian Ramsay started that one), but he did come in and play most of that contest. After the 1991 season, Boselli had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder.

1990: Although he didn't play in 1990, Boselli spent all of his first-year freshman season as the No. 2 quick offensive tackle behind Michael Moody.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep All-American, Boselli was a 2-way lineman as a senior in 1989 at Fairview High in Boulder (Colo.), collecting 59 tackles (which included 5 sacks). He received All-State honors (first team offense, second team defense), and was named Blue Chip All-American (third team), Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands, Tacoma Morning News Tribune West 100, USA Today Top 100, All-County and All-Centennial League. He had a personal-high 18 tackles (10 solo) in a 1989 game.

He played only on offense during his 1988 junior season and won All-State first team and All-County honors for his play. As a 1987 sophomore, he led Fairview to an 11-2 record and the Colorado State title. Tony's coach at Fairview was Sam Pagano, whose son, Chuck, was a USC graduate assistant coach (1984-85). Current Trojan Joe Barry prepped at Fairview.

He also lettered in basketball in his junior year, averaging 6 points and 7 rebounds, and he was the 1989 Colorado district champion in the shot put (he finished fourth in the state meet).

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 5.0. He enjoys water and snow skiing. He's a business major at USC with a B average (3.22 GPA). He was named to the 1991 Pac-10 All-Academic first team (1 of only 2 freshmen to make the team and 1 of only 5 players to make the All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic first teams). He was also 1 of just 7 players nationally honored as a 1991 Honda Scholar Athlete. He has spent the past few summers working on a 150-acre farm run by 20 Benedictine nuns near Boulder, where he cut fields, baled and stacked hay, moved cattle, and drove tractors (he would then lift weights and run at night).

TONY BOSELLI ON: His expectations: "My expectatations are high, higher than anyone else's. I want to be a great lineman. That's my goal."

Why he chose USC: "When I was a little kid, through my junior year in high school, Notre Dame was the team I rooted for, the team I wanted to win. In my senior year, they were one of my top 5 choices, but they didn't offer me a visit...I came to USC because I just thought of all the great players who had gone here. This is Tailback U., but the offensive linemen played a big part in that."

Observing ex-USC All-American offensive tackle Pat Harlow: "He was so aggressive finishing blocks. He just wanted to kill people. He really had that killer instinct. I tried to work off that to alter my own style."

Working on a farm during the summer: "I never knew farmers worked so hard. It was real tough some days. But I knew I had to get ready for a long season...It was great, the best job I ever had."

On once working at McDonald's (his father and uncle own 11 outlets in Denver): "I probably lost money when I worked there. I ate more than I made."

WHAT OTHERS SAYS: Phoenix Cardinals assistant John Matsko, USC's former offensive line coach: "Tony is a very special guy. They come along every so often. He's in the class of (ex-USC All-American offensive linemen) Dave Cadigan and Pat Harlow. He's really committed to being a great player. He's extremely consistent."

MARTIN BOSKOVICH

Punter
6-2, 190
Senior

1992: Boskovich, a senior walk-on, will serve as the No. 2 punter behind John Stonehouse. He's also available as an emergency placekicker.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Martin has an excellent leg and gets good hang time. He can also backup on placekicks and kickoffs. He will battle John Stonehouse for playing time."

1991: Boskovich was the backup punter behind Ron Dale as a 1991 walk-on junior. He only appeared in the Memphis State opener, booting 2 punts for a 35.5 average. He came to USC in the spring of 1991 as a junior college transfer.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Boskovich was the starting punter (42.9 average) and placekicker (9-of-12 field goals, 40-of-42 PATs) in 1990 at Glendale (Calif.) Community College. He made the All-Western State Conference first team as a placekicker and the second team as a punter. He was also an All-State honorable mention placekicker and was named Glendale's Special Teams Player of the Year. He had a long field goal of 47 yards. Glendale went 9-2 in 1990 and won the Southern California Bowl. In 1989 at Glendale, he handled just kickoffs and was the backup punter and placekicker. Among his teammates at Glendale were current Trojan Wes Bender and Roy Talavera.

HIGH SCHOOL: Martin prepped at St. Francis High in La Canada (Calif.). As a 1988 senior, he was a punter (38.0 average), placekicker and wide receiver. He made the Glendale News Press All-Glendale Area first team as a placekicker in 1987 as a junior, when he hit 27-of-28 PATs. He was also a backup punter as a junior. Boskovich also was a 3-year starting soccer goalie at St. Francis, earning All-Del Rey League first team as a junior and second team as a senior. He also ran track at St. Francis.

PERSONAL: Martin is an economics major at USC with a B+ average (3.50 GPA). He runs the 40 in 4.7.

RORY BROWN

Fullback
Junior

1992: Brown, a junior who has battled injuries throughout his career, is a reserve fullback who figures to also see action on special teams. A strained hip caused him to miss the first part of 1992 spring drills.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "After getting healthy, Rory seemed to get back on track the final half of last spring's practice. We need him to stay healthy because he can contribute as a fullback and on special teams."

1991: Brown missed the first 6 games of his 1991 sophomore season while recovering from surgery to repair torn ligaments in his right knee. The injury occurred in a scrimmage on the last day of 1991 spring practice. Brown was cleared to play in USC's last 5 games of 1991 and he appeared briefly as a reserve fullback at California, but did not carry the ball.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Brown was the No. 3 fullback behind Scott Lockwood and Raoul Spears in 1990. He also played on various special teams. His only carries in 1990 came at Oregon State, where he got 4 yards on 2 rushes. A pinched neck nerve and a sprained right knee slowed him for the second half of 1990 spring drills.

1989: Brown redshirted in 1989, his first season at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: A prep All-American fullback as a senior at Pueblo (Colo.) County High, Brown rushed for 1,472 yards on 139 carries (10.6 average) and 18 touchdowns in just 7 games in 1988. An ankle injury limited Brown's availability during his senior season. His 1988 honors included Super Prep All-American, USA Today's Super 102, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Colorado Super 11, All-State, All-Conference, All-Region, All-Area and All-City.

He rushed for 844 yards on 97 carries (9.1 average) and 19 TDs as a junior in 1987 and made 112 tackles on defense. He made All-State, All-Conference, All-Area and All-City in 1987.

Brown played both ways as a sophomore in 1986, gaining 412 yards on the ground and starting every game on defense. He earned All-Conference honors that season.

An outstanding track athlete, Brown lettered 4 years for Pueblo County's track team, posting bests of 10.8 for 100 meters and 58-0 in the shot put. An outstanding student, Rory had a 3.96 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL: Brown played guitar in a band in Colorado. He runs the 40 in 4.5 and can bench press 370 pounds. His sports hero is Walter Payton because "of his physical and quick style; the defense never knew what he was going to do." Rory is a mechanical engineering major at USC with a B + average (3.26 GPA).

MATT BUTKUS

Center
6-2, 265
Junior

1992: Butkus, a junior who has a strong football heritage, was moved to center from nose guard in 1992 spring drills and has emerged as the No. 3 center. He's also available as a long snapper.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "The switch to center paid off for Matt, as he showed some promise there in spring practice. He has continued to improve throughout his Trojan career."

1991: Butkus was a sophomore reserve nose guard in 1991, but did not see any action.

1990: Butkus was a reserve nose guard in 1990 as a redshirt freshman, but didn't see any action. He missed the California and Oregon State games with a stress fracture in his foot.

1989: Butkus redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-time All-CIF first team pick, Butkus was 1 of the most dominating defensive linemen in Southern California as a senior in 1988 at Loyola High in Los Angeles. He had 85 tackles, 17 sacks, 9 forced fumbles and 6 fumble recoveries while helping Loyola to a 12-1 record. Matt's 1988 honors included Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section and Division I first teams, Del Rey League Lineman of the Year, L.A. Times All-Central City and L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention.

As a junior in 1987, Matt had 57 tackles, 12 sacks, 7 forced fumbles and 4 fumble recoveries for the 11-1 Cubs. He was named All-CIF Big 5 first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, and All-Del Rey League first team in 1987.

He played offensive tackle as a sophomore in 1986 and had a blocking grade of 70 percent each game. He was a prep teammate of current Trojans Corby Smith and John Stonehouse.

PERSONAL: He is the son of NFL Hall of Famer and ex-Chicago Bear linebacker great Dick Butkus, now an actor (Dick was a 2-time All-American center at Illinois). Matt's sister, Nikki, is a Notre Dame graduate who also attended UCLA. Matt was born in Chicago, Ill. He's a communications major at USC. He enjoys listening to classical music. His sports hero is Dan Hampton.

MATT BUTKUS ON: His famous father: "I get to meet a lot of people and do a lot of things because of my dad...I don't promote my name or the fact I'm his son. I'm my own person. I know what my father accomplished. I'm trying my hardest to just be myself."

GERALD CARUTHERS

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 230
Junior

1992: Caruthers, a junior outside linebacker, comes to USC this fall as a highly-regarded junior college transfer.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Caruthers made Blue Chip J.C. All-American, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention, and J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region IV first team as a 1991 sophomore linebacker at Pasadena (Calif.) City College. He averaged 9 tackles a game and, on the year, posted a team-high 7 sacks for minus 44 yards, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 blocked punts. He was the Mission Conference Defensive Player of the Week when he posted 8 tackles, 1 sack, 5 quarterback pressures, and 1 blocked punt in a win over Rancho Santiago. As a 1990 freshman, he was a part-time starter.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Saugus (Calif.) High, where he was All-Golden League in 1989.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.6.

TYLER CASHMAN

Tight End
Freshman

1992: Cashman, a redshirt freshman with a strong Trojan background, was moved to tight end from split end in 1992 spring drills. He did well enough to be in a battle with Johnny McWilliams and Steve Beckley for the No. 3 job.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Tyler took well to the position switch to tight end. He is competing for the No. 3 spot. He's a fine athlete and showed fine promise in the spring."

1991: Cashman redshirted as a split end in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick while at Los Alamitos (Calif.) High, Cashman made 80 catches (tops in Orange County in 1990 and third best ever in county history) for 1,019 yards (12.7 average) and 11 touchdowns. He was also named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Empire League Offensive Player of the Year. He had a single-game best of 14 catches (12 in the first half) for 145 yards.

Cashman collected 45 receptions for a 19.3 average with 8 TDs as a 1989 junior. In his career, he made 126 catches (seventh on the Orange County all-time chart) and averaged more than 20 yards per grab. He played wide receiver, tight end, defensive back and punter. He also starred in baseball.

PERSONAL: He runs a 4.6 40. His father, Pat, was a defensive back at USC in 1966 and 1967 (he won honorable mention All-American laurels in 1967) who returned an interception of a Gary Beban pass 55 yards for a touchdown in Troy's famous 21-20 win over UCLA in 1967 which clinched a Rose Bowl berth and national championship for the Trojans.

CURTIS CONWAY

Flanker
6-2, 180
Junior

1992: Perhaps the most versatile offensive player in college football, Conway is USC's Mr. Do-It-All. The junior, known for his blazing speed (he's also a top collegiate sprinter) and incredible moves, is back as the starting flanker and return specialist after an honor-filled 1991. He's an All-American candidate now. He has also played quarterback and even lined up at tailback in his Trojan career. He missed the last half of 1992 spring practice while competing for the USC track team.

CAREER: Conway owns the USC career record for most kickoff returns (46) and his 1,048 career kickoff return yards are the second most at USC (313 yards behind Anthony Davis' record of 1,361). His 33 career punt returns for 333 yards puts him 15th on the all-time USC list.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Being able to settle in at one position should make Curtis one of the premier receivers and returners in the nation. With his great speed, Curtis is such a threat whenever he has the ball. I'm looking for him to make more big plays in 1992."

1991: As a flanker, quarterback and kick/punt returner, Conway's multi-threat versatility showed up throughout USC's 1991 statistics. He had 934 all-purpose yards as a sophomore in 1991: 493 yards and a 24.7 average on 20 kickoff returns (all team highs), 240 yards, a 11.4 average and a TD on 21 catches, 172 yards and a 7.2 average on 24 punt returns (all team highs), and 29 yards, a 1.6 average and a TD on 18 carries. For all this, he was named All-Pac-10 first team (as a return specialist) and USC's MVP. In an experiment in 1991 spring practice, Curtis spent time at quarterback as well as flanker because of a depth problem at that spot and he emerged as the backup signalcaller (behind Reggie Perry) in addition to his flanker and returner duties. USC's starting flanker in 7 games (including the last 6 of the season), he played 7 series as an option quarterback early in 1991 (4 at Oregon, 2 versus Arizona State, and 1 against Penn State). On his first series against Arizona State, he drove the Trojans 73 yards to a TD (the score came on his 12-yard run) while executing the option offense. Conway had 134 all-purpose yards in that game (95 on kickoff returns, 41 rushing, 1 on punt returns, and -3 on receiving) and another 137 all-purpose yards (102, -10, 30, 15) against Stanford. He threw only 2 passes, completing 1 for 10 yards at Oregon and having the other intercepted against Arizona State. By mid-season, freshman Rob Johnson emerged as Perry's backup and Conway concentrated on his pass catching and returning roles. Curtis was the only Trojan to have caught a pass in all 11 USC games in 1991. At Notre Dame, he had his finest day as a receiver, catching a career-best and game-high 6 aerials for 69 yards (he had never had more than 2 catches or 17 receiving yards in any previous game). He had a team-high 4 catches for 38 yards against UCLA, including a 13-yard TD reception. Conway was third in the Pac-10 (13th in the U.S.) in kickoff returns at 24.7. He had 2 scoring kickoff returns called back by penalty in 1991 (100 yards versus Memphis State and 96 yards against Stanford). The Stanford runback still was good for 82 yards, the second longest in the Pac-10 in 1991 and the longest at USC since Davis went 102 yards against Notre Dame in 1974 (which, incidentally, is the last time a Trojan has run one back for a TD).

1990: As just a first-year freshman, the multi-purpose Conway made an impact catching, running and passing the ball, returning punts and kickoffs, and tackling in 1990. As USC's often-employed No. 3 flanker (behind starter Gary Wellman and backup Travis Hannah), Curtis caught 1 pass (for 0 yards versus California), ran 4 reverses 21 yards, and completed his only pass attempt, a tricky 9-yard throwback to quarterback Todd Marinovich for a TD at Stanford (Conway had lined up at tailback on the play). He also led USC (seventh in the Pac-10) in kickoff returns (averaging 21.4 yards on 26 runbacks, including a USC season-long 46-yarder versus California) and in punt returns (averaging 13.4 yards on 12 runbacks). He already ranks 10th on USC career kickoff return chart, with 555 yards. At Oregon State, he used some dazzling moves to run a punt back 71 yards for a TD. It was USC's first scoring punt return since Joey Browner did so against Indiana in 1982, the longest return of any punt since Lynn Swann went 92 yards for a TD versus Michigan State in 1972, and the fourth longest punt return in the Pac-10 in 1990. Conway also notched 5 tackles while playing on special teams. He sat out the second half of the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State while weakened with the flu.

1989: Conway actually signed with USC in 1989, but did not qualify academically, so he elected to attend El Camino College in Torrance (Calif.) that season as a part-time student (he didn't play any football there). He improved his national board scores and entered USC in the fall of 1990 as a first-year freshman.

TRACK: Conway sprinted for the Trojan tracksters in the springs of 1992 and 1991. He joined the 1992 Trojan track team--which finished third in the NCAA meet--in mid-season after practicing with the football team for the first half of spring drills, although he did double up on the first day of spring practice and ran a lifetime best 10.28 (11th best performance ever by a Trojan and fastest in the Pac-10 for most of 1992) to win the 100 meters in a meet at USC. In all, he ran 8 100-meter races (winning twice), all 10.50 or faster. He was fourth in the Pac-10 100 in 10.34 and third in the Pac-10 200 with a career best 20.77. He qualified for the NCAAs in the 100 (advancing to the semifinals) and 200 (preliminaries). Curtis also ran legs on Troy's 400-meter (leadoff or second legs) and 1600-meter (second leg) teams. The sprint relay, which won 6 races in 1992, won the Pac-10 title (39.32) and was fifth at the NCAAs in 39.21 (eighth fastest time ever at USC). The mile relay, which won 7 of its 9 races (finishing second the other 2 times), also won the Pac-10 crown (3:04.74) and was second at the NCAAs in a USC-record 3:00.58. He missed a week of competition because of the chicken pox.

At the 1991 Pac-10 meet, he finished fifth in both the 100-meters (10.47) and 200-meters (20.94), but set personal bests in the prelims of each race (10.39 to place third in the 100 and 20.86 for second in the 200). He won a pair of 100 races (the USC Homecoming meet in a wind-aided 10.32 and 5-way meet against Arizona State, Washington, New Mexico and Baylor in 10.43) and a 200 (20.91 in that 5-way meet). He also finished second at the UC Irvine Invitational (10.48) and third in a meet against UCLA and BYU (10.57). Conway also ran the second leg on all 6 of USC's 400-meter relay races on a quartet that clocked a season-best 39.71. And he ran the second leg on USC's only 2 1600-meter relay races of 1991.

HIGH SCHOOL: Conway made the 1988 Parade, Super Prep and Tom Lemming All-American teams, as well as USA Today All-USA honorable mention as a senior quarterback at Hawthorne (Calif.) High. His other honors that year included Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Bay League MVP, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West (unanimous), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team and Back of the Year, Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Los Angeles Herald Examiner Southern California Top 25, USA Today pre-season Super 25, and Los Angeles Herald Examiner pre-season Super 11. In his junior and senior years, he ran, passed and returned kicks for 62 TDs (out of the 82 his team scored). He guided Hawthorne into the CIF quarterfinals in 1987 and 1988. His senior season passing stats were 77-of-156 (49.4%) for 1,257 yards and 11 TDs. He also rushed for 758 yards and 10 TDs on 80 carries (9.5 average). He also scored TDs on a punt return and an interception. In 1 game in 1988, he played quarterback, wide receiver, running back and defensive back, and scored a TD from each position.

As a junior in 1987, he accounted for 39 of Hawthorne's 42 TDs (21 rushing, 18 passing), while passing for 1,517 yards on 86-of-157 throws (54.8%) and running for 834 yards on 98 carries (8.5 average). His junior honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State junior team (and the state's Junior All-Sport Athlete of the Year), All-CIF Southern Conference first team, Los Angeles Times South Bay Back of the Year, Daily Breeze South Bay Player of the Year, and Ocean League Player of the Year.

Perhaps the fastest football player in California as a prepster, he was also a premier track sprinter with personal bests of 10.42 in the 100 meters, 20.89 in the 200 and a 46.5 split on a leg of the 1600 relay. He won the 100 at the 1989 state meet (10.42, second best prep time in the U.S. in 1989) and was second in the 200 (20.89, third best 1989 U.S. prep time) as Hawthorne won the state team title. He was a double sprint winner at the 1989 CIF masters (10.66, 21.04) and CIF 4-A (10.44 wind-aided, 21.25) meets. He also anchored the 400-meter relay team in 1989 which set a state record (40.25). He was the 1988 CIF 4-A sprint champion. He helped Hawthorne to the 1988 state team title, too, as he placed second in the state 100 (10.85), third in the 200 (21.30) and ran a leg on the winning 1600 relay. Hawthorne won the state track title in his sophomore year, too. Current Trojan Travis Hannah teamed with Conway on Hawthorne High's football and track squads.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.25. He's a public administration major at USC.

CURTIS CONWAY ON: Returning kickoffs: "Returning kicks is something special to me, no matter whether it's 20 yards or 100 yards. I really like making big plays. Even thoughtit's really hard to return a kick for a touchdown, I really like trying. You get out there and just let it happen. It's all instincts...I'm a reaction player. Going out there, I can't think about some of the things I'm going to do. I try too hard if I plan. I just let things fall into place and rely on reactions...I just try to make something happen when I have the ball. I'm thinking touchdown every time I touch the ball...All you hear around here is that there hasn't been a kickoff return for a touchdown since 1974, and here I had 2 in 1991 and both were called back. It's real frustrating, but you just have to go back and try to make it happen again."

The difference between playing receiver and quarterback: "A quarterback has to run to a certain spot and do a certain thing. But a receiver, after you run your route, you're free to do what you want. I'm not knocking the quarterback position, but I'd just rather be a receiver."

Advice he received from Lynn Swann: "He told me, 'Every time I went out there, I felt that the other guy couldn't beat me.' That's the attitude I took. He also said that if you can do it in practice when the other side knows what the play is, then there's no reason you can't do it in the game when they don't know what the play is."

Running track: "I don't spend all week thinking about track like I do our next football game."

Wanting to be a probation officer: "I grew up in a rough neighborhood and I said to myself if I could survive it, anybody could because I wasn't always on top. I just wanted to get next to young people and be able to talk to them and try to change their direction. I want to get kids into sports, not gangs. Kids grow up in those rough neighborhoods and see gang members and think that's their hero because there's not too many athletes. A lot of people grow up in rough neighborhoods and then they leave. I'm the type of guy who wants to go back and try to clean things up."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Reggie Perry, USC quarterback: "The whole stadium holds its breath when he comes out to take a kickoff. He's like a home run hitter. You don't want to miss him."

Anthony Davis, ex-USC All-American tailback and kickoff return star: "He's a great talent, the fact that he can elude players like he does and not have a structured return set up. He has a great future ahead of him."

ESTRUS CRAYTON

Tailback
Senior

1992: By the end of 1991, Crayton emerged as the starting tailback and he'll go into 1992 fall drills as the starter. The senior is blessed with the gifts of a big-play tailback: outstanding speed and spectacular moves. He might also return punts and kickoffs.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Estrus really came on towards the end of 1991 and then was very impressive in last spring's practice. He's a big-play tailback who could be a real shining light for us this season. He has tremendous speed and catches the ball well."

1991: Crayton came to USC in the fall of 1991 as the nation's top 1990 junior college running back. The tailback appeared in 7 games in his 1991 junior campaign, but going into the 10th game of the season (at Arizona), he had just 94 yards rushing on 21 carries as a reserve. In those limited carries, he had exhibited a tendency to fumble (he dropped the ball 4 of the first 6 times he touched it). But he came off the bench in the second quarter at Arizona and rushed for a USC season-best 185 yards on 27 carries (a 6.9 average). It was the fourth best performance in the Pac-10 in 1991 and the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Mazio Royster had 203 yards in 1990 versus Washington State. Fourteen of Crayton's runs at Arizona were for 5-plus yards, including a half dozen of 10 or more yards (his first 2 carries went for 25 and 23 yards). In the second quarter alone, he had 94 yards on 10 carries. Crayton also had a team-high 4 catches in that game. He scored both of USC's TDs (an 8-yard catch and a 9-yard run) against the Wildcats. Crayton got his first start of 1991 the following week in the season finale against UCLA (he became the first junior college transfer to start at tailback for USC since Lou Harris in 1971) and again broke the century mark by getting 126 yards on 21 carries. It was the most yards by a runner against UCLA in 1991. Eight of his runs against the Bruins were for 5-plus yards, including 5 of 10 or more yards (with a long of 20). He won USC's Offensive Player of the Game versus UCLA award. On the year, Crayton gained 405 yards on 69 carries (a team-high 5.9 average) with 1 TD. Of his 69 rushes, 28 were 5-plus yards, including 14 of 10-plus yards. He also caught 7 passes for 47 yards (6.7 average) and a TD. He did not make the Notre Dame trip while recovering from a bruised left elbow and facial cuts suffered when he fell off his bicycle. He made a quick impression at USC, when he ran for a 65-yard touchdown the first time he touched the ball in USC's first 1991 fall scrimmage.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Crayton was a 2-time J.C. All-American first teamer while at Rancho Santiago College in Santa Ana (Calif.). He is the Orange County J.C. leader in career all-purpose yards (4,062, 53 yards shy of the national junior college record), TDs (42) and scoring (276). He rushed for 2,452 yards in his 2-year career and established 11 Mission Conference and Rancho Santiago records. He once ran for 5 TDs in a game and returned 3 kickoffs for TDs in his career. His No. 20 jersey was retired by Rancho Santiago.

In 1990, he was named J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports J.C. All-State first team (tri-Offensive Player of the Year), Mission Conference Central Division Offensive MVP, and Orange County Register All-County J.C. Player of the Year. As a 1990 sophomore, he had 2,116 all-purpose yards. He gained 1,112 yards on 232 carries (4.8 average), plus had 33 catches for 406 yards (12.3 average), 17 kickoff returns for 502 yards (29.5 average), and 12 punt returns for 96 yards (8.0 average) while scoring 22 TDs. His 138 points were second most in the state. He also ran track at Rancho Santiago in 1991.

As a freshman in 1989, he was J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, J.C. All-State (Southern California) first team, and Mission Conference Central Division Offensive MVP on a team that went 10-1, was ranked No. 8 in the U.S. (fourth in California), and won the Orange County Classic. He posted 1,961 all-purpose yards: 1,340 yards on 204 carries (6.6 average), 432 yards on 34 receptions (12.7 average), and 189 yards on 6 kickoff returns (31.5 average), with 20 TDs (he scored 126 points that season).

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Santa Ana (Calif.) High, where he was an All-CIF Division III defensive back in 1988. He also played running back.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.4. He was born in Vernon, Tex. He's a sociology major at USC.

ESTRUS CRAYTON ON: Why he chose USC: "I hate to talk about this, but out of high school, I was going to go to UCLA as a defensive back. It's kind of funny, because I never did like USC. In fact, I hated USC. The thing that helped change my mind was (ex-USC All-American quarterback) Rodney Peete. He was such a good role model and had so much class. After I saw him, I started thinking that maybe USC wasn't such a bad place after all. I really liked the tradition USC has in football. It's a great school for running backs, as you can tell every time you walk by those Heismans."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Wayne Nunnely: "He has exceptional quickness and acceleration through the hole."

Dave Ogas, Rancho Santiago head coach: "Estrus is the best running back I have seen in 15 years of J.C. coaching."

JOEL CRISMAN

Offensive Tackle-Guard
6-5, 290
Junior

1992: Crisman, a solid, experienced junior who can play either tackle or guard, enters the fall as the starting left offensive tackle.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Joel has earned the starting left tackle job. He's good enough to start there or at either guard spot. I think he's a very good offensive lineman who could be an important factor in our line's success."

1991: Crisman began his 1991 sophomore season as the No. 2 strong offensive tackle behind Tony Boselli, but when quick guard Kris Pollack sprained knee ligaments at Oregon in USC's fourth game, Joel moved into the starting lineup at quick guard and did a respectable job the next 5 games (Washington State, Stanford, Notre Dame, California, Washington). He suffered a mild concussion against Washington, did not play the following week at Arizona and appeared as a reserve in the UCLA season-finale. After the 1991 season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Crisman was switched from the defensive line to offensive tackle in the spring of 1990 and played well enough to serve as the No. 2 strong tackle behind Pat Harlow in 1990 (he played sparingly there and on special teams). But in practice prior to the Arizona State game, he tore ligaments in his left knee and missed the remaining regular season contests while recuperating. He was able to suit up for the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State.

1989: Crisman redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a defensive lineman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Joel was an All-State pick as a 2-way tackle in 1988 while prepping at Grundy Center (Ia.) High. He led the team with 154 tackles and also had 13 sacks and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988. He was a major factor in Grundy Center's state championship titles in 1988 and 1987. Crisman's other 1988 honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Elite All-State first team, and Conference Lineman of the Year. In the state semifinals, Joel had 21 tackles and 2 sacks. He was also named Prep of the Week by the Des Moines Register and Channel 7 in Iowa.

He made 113 tackles, 7 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries and 1 interception as a junior in 1987 and was named All-State, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, and All-Conference.

An outstanding basketball player, Crisman made All-Conference first team and All-State honorable mention as a senior while averaging 23 points and 12 rebounds per game.

PERSONAL: Joel likes to spend his free time hunting and fishing. He's a public administration major at USC.

DONN CUNNIGAN

Outside Linebacker
Sophomore

1992: Cunnigan, a talented sophomore, benefitted from a position switch in last spring's practice when he was moved to outside linebacker from safety. He enters the fall as the starting strongside outside linebacker.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Donn is an outstanding athlete who really took to the position switch. He made a lot of big plays in the spring and ended up the starter. He's an excellent coverage outside linbacker and is a fierce hitter. He has a bright future."

1991: A key special teams player who also saw some action as the No. 2 strong safety behind Stephon Pace, Cunnigan appeared in all 11 games in 1991 as a redshirt freshman. He made 7 tackles in 1991, including 3 against Washington.

1990: Cunnigan redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

BASEBALL: Donn was a reserve outfielder for the 1992 USC baseball team before quitting to concentrate on spring football drills. He was 0-for-1 with a walk in his only plate appearances.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cunnigan earned All-CIF Division III first team honors in 1989 at Gahr High in Cerritos (Calif.). His other senior honors were California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team second team. He also starred in baseball at Gahr.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.6. He's a communications major at USC.

ERIC DIXON

Fullback-Tailback
6-0, 210
Senior

1992: Dixon, a senior, is a reserve running back who can play both fullback and tailback.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Eric is coming off a fine spring practice and he could break into the depth chart. He has promise."

1991: Dixon began his 1991 junior season as a reserve tailback, but was switched to a reserve fullback role midseason. He did not see any action.

1990: Dixon was a sophomore reserve tailback in 1990 who didn't see any action. He missed the last half of 1990 spring practice with a reoccurence of a 1989 dislocated left shoulder injury (it required surgery in the spring and caused him to miss the Syracuse opener).

1989: As a redshirt freshman reserve tailback, Dixon played briefly in 1989, getting into the Utah State game. He gained 9 yards on 2 carries and also caught a 5-yard pass. He suffered a dislocated left shoulder while getting tackled making that catch and that sidelined him for the next 9 contests. In 1989 spring drills, Eric worked some at fullback.

1988: Dixon redshirted in 1988, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Dixon rushed for 1,104 yards on 172 carries (6.4 average) and scored 14 touchdowns in 1987 as a senior at Wayne High in Huber Heights (Ohio). He was named All-Dayton Area, Western Ohio League Back of the Year, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention and team MVP that year. He also caught 8 passes for 136 yards and returned 12 kickoffs for 272 yards (22.7 average). On defense, he made 34 tackles and caused a fumble in 1987. Dixon holds school career records for rushing yardage (3,005 yards), rushing attempts (435), points scored (286) and touchdowns (46).

As a junior in 1986, Eric gained 1,019 yards on 123 carries (8.3 average), caught 23 passes for 344 yards and scored 18 times. He averaged 20.5 yards per kickoff return in 1986. He ran for a 95-yard TD in 1 game, scoring 5 times in that contest. Dixon's junior honors included All-Dayton Area, All-Western Ohio and team MVP.

He was an All-League second team pick as a sophomore in 1985, gaining 882 yards on 140 carries (6.3 average) with 9 TDs. He also had 36 receptions for 493 yards and 5 TDs and returned 11 kickoffs for a 24.6 average. Eric also ran track for the Warriors during his high school career.

PERSONAL: Dixon has been timed in the 40 in 4.5. He likes to play basketball in his free time. His sports hero is Michael Jordan. Dixon is a public administration major at USC.

COLE FORD

Placekicker
Sophomore

1992: Ford, just a sophomore, returns as the starting placekicker after a very good rookie year. Not only is he an accurate placekicker, but he's known for his powerful leg on kickoffs.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Cole did well in 1991 until he got hurt. He needs to stay healthy and get stronger in 1992 and, if he does so, he could be one of the better placekickers in the Pac-10. He has the physical tools to be a great college kicker."

1991: Ford, 1 of 6 first-year freshmen to play in 1991, did a nice job handling USC's placekicks and kickoffs. Despite not using a tee and aiming at narrower goal posts for the first time in his career, he was effective on field goals (7-of-12, including 3 at Oregon, which was 1 shy of USC's single game record) and PATs (21-of-21). He was 7-of-8 inside the 40. His 45-yard field goal try at the gun to tie Stanford was just wide by a foot. He also consistently drove his kickoffs into the endzone (unheard of at USC in recent years), as 18 of his 39 kickoffs reached the endzone and only 3 of those boomers were run out. Ford missed the Washington game with a strained left hip flexor and then appeared in just the first half of the following week's game at Arizona before aggravating the injury (which forced him out of the UCLA season finale).

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 USA Today All-American honorable mention pick, Ford was a key figure in leading Sabino High in Tucson (Ariz.) to the state 4A championship that year. His 32-yard field goal proved to be the difference in Sabino's 31-28 victory over Peoria High of Phoenix in the state championship game played at Sun Devil Stadium. He made 8-of-11 field goals in 1990, including a career-best 54-yarder (he also attempted a 66-yarder) and was good on 51-of-58 PATs. He proved to have a strong leg as evidenced by kicking 46 of 69 kickoffs out of the end zone, including 4 that went through the goal posts. For his play, he was named Super Prep All-Far West, All-Arizona All-Star, All-Arizona 4A first team, All-Southern Division first team, All Phoenix Metro first team, All-Sonoran Conference, All-Tucson and team MVP as a senior. He doubled as a defensive end for Sabino as well, collecting 88 tackles, 4 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. Current Trojan Greg Tellam also prepped at Sabino.

As a junior in 1989, Ford kicked 8 field goals and made All-Southern Division first team on a team which was 12-1 and reached the state quarterfinals.

PERSONAL: His hobbies include snow boarding, water skiing, horseback riding and auto mechanics (he restored a 1929 Ford Roadster pickup). When he was 12, Cole competed in the Western States 100 Horse Race, a 24-hour, 100-mile race in the Sierra Nevadas. His brother, Garrett, is a junior tight end at Colorado who sat out the 1991 season. Cole is a business administration major at USC.

COLE FORD ON: Kickoffs: "I take a lot of pride in my kickoffs. I work hard on them and I really enjoy kicking off. It develops a strong leg for a kicker."

Practicing his kicking in Tucson: "Arizona Stadium was the only place in Tucson that had the narrow goal posts and I used to sneak in there during the summer to practice kicking field goals. Once, the groundskeeper cuaght me, but he thought I was one of the Wildcat kickers."

Lessons learned from his parents: "My parents taught me the value of hard work when I was growing up. We lived in an area that was kind of like a farm. My brothers and I had to mow lawns, trim trees, dig irrigation ditches, bale hay and take care of the animals. My dad taught us early on that you have to work for everything you want in life."

Riding horses: "When I was 8, I started riding in long distance horse races called 'endurance rides.' The races travel along the old Pony Express trails all around the country and you have to complete 100 miles within 24 hours. My family and I went all over the country so that I could compete in these races. When I was 15, I got tired of sitting in a saddle and gave up the riding...My horse was an Arabian named 'Hoss' and he was the toughest horse around in endurance races. He taught me some important things. My family bought Hoss from some people who had purchased him from a meat market. That inspired me because it shows that no matter what you start out as, you can still become something special. Hoss showed me how to be tough. Endurance riding also taught me that to just finish the race can be like winning. Not everyone can be No. 1. Sometimes you can learn more just by finishing, even if you're in last place. If you're losing and stick it out, you can still learn to be tough. If you just hang in there, you can succeed."

His secret ambition: "It would be awesome to kick the winning field goal and then ride Traveler (USC's mascot) around the track."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Noted kicking coach Ray Pelfrey: "Cole is one of the best kickers I've ever coached. He's probably one of the strongest kickoff men in all of college football. He's stronger right now on kickoffs than some starting kickers in the NFL."

STUART GAGE

Offensive Tackle-Guard
Freshman

1992: Gage is a redshirt freshman reserve offensive lineman who can play either tackle or guard.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Stuart is a young, promising offensive lineman who has the ability to swing to either tackle or guard. He's competing to break into the 2-deep in 1992."

1991: Gage redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Honored as a 1990 Super Prep All-Midlands, Gage was a 3-year letterman as a 2-way lineman at Charles Page High in Sand Springs (Okla.). He led the Sandites to the state semifinals and a 9-4 record in 1990. He was named to the All-State first teams of the Tulsa World, the Daily Oklahoman and the Oklahoma Coaches Association. He was also named All-Frontier Conference and All-District 5A-3.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 380 pounds.

DARREN GALLAWAY

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 245
Junior

1992: Gallaway, a junior, will once again serve as the No. 2 weakside outside linebacker behind Willie McGinest. He'll also see lots of special teams action.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Darren is a key backup for our defense, as well as an important special teams player. He has good quickness and makes lots of big plays."

1991: Gallaway spent his 1991 sophomore season as the No. 2 weakside outside linebacker behind McGinest. He saw limited action in 9 games there and on special teams, posting 4 tackles, including 2 for losses of 6 yards (with a sack).

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Gallaway played briefly on special teams in 1990. He spent most of the season as a reserve defensive tackle, but when injuries hit USC's tight end corps, he was switched to a reserve tight end role for the Notre Dame game (but did not play). He was moved from outside linebacker to the defensive line early in the 1990 season.

1989: Gallaway redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a strongside outside linebacker.

HIGH SCHOOL: A defensive end-tight end while at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.), Gallaway was a 2-year starter for the Friars. He was named Super Prep All-Far West, California Football All-State honorable mention, All-Angelus League first team, L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention, All-Big A Empire first team and Servite Defensive Lineman of the Year as a senior in 1988. He made 57 tackles, along with an interception and 4 sacks, while helping Servite to a 10-3 record in 1988.

Gallaway was named All-Angelus League second team as a junior in 1987. He also caught 3 passes in his career at Servite.

PERSONAL: Gallaway runs the 40 in 5.0. He's a business administration major at USC. His sports hero is Howie Long.

NORBERTO GARRIDO

Offensive Tackle
Freshman

1992: Garrido, a redshirt freshman with great size, was switched from nose guard to offensive tackle in 1992 spring practice and made a nice transition. He's listed as No. 3 at the right tackle position behind starter Tony Boselli and backup Keith Siscel.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Norberto looked impressive in the spring when we moved him to offensive tackle. He's battling to earn a backup tackle spot. He's a big, young player with a great future."

1991: Garrido redshirted as a nose guard in 1991, his first year at USC, while sidelined following surgery for a broken left foot suffered in pre-season drills.

1990: Garrido originally signed with USC in the spring of 1990 but did not qualify academically, so he attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut (Calif.) in 1990 as a part-time student. He improved his national board scores and entered USC in the fall of 1991 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1989 Los Angeles Times San Gabriel Valley Lineman of the Year, Garrido posted 41 tackles (20 solo), 12 1/2 sacks and 3 pass deflections as a senior at Workman High in La Puente (Calif.). Offensively, he blocked at an outstanding 91% grade. The numbers resulted in further honors such as Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Valley and All-Valle Vista League first team (both ways). He enjoyed a lineman's dream when he recovered a fumble for a touchdown.

During his 1988 junior season, Garrido was named first team All-League and second team All-Valley. He did not play football until his 1987 sophomore year. An honored performer in track, Garrido was the 1990 Valle Vista League champion in the shot put (54-7) and the CIF 2-A runner-up (54-2 1/4).

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 5.0 and bench presses 410 pounds.

CRAIG GIBSON

Center
6-3, 245
Junior

1992: The veteran on USC's offensive line, Gibson--a consistent, heady junior--returns for his third year as the starting center. He might also be the long snapper.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Craig had a good 1991. Now, if he adds strength and weight, he could become a dominant center. He has excellent quickness and is a good scramble blocker. He has the best snap and best first step of any player I've ever coached. He's not going to be a 'muscle-you-out-of-there' guy. He snaps and, boom, he's gone."

1991: As a sophomore in 1991, Gibson started all season at center (his second consecutive year in the lineup) and proved to be one of the mainstays on the Trojan offensive line.

1990: Gibson, as just a redshirt frosh, spent the first half of 1990 as the backup to Derrick Deese at quick offensive guard (he didn't see any action there), but in game 7, against Arizona, he moved into the starting center job and held it the rest of 1990, performing admirably. He had arthroscopic surgery on torn left knee cartilage following the 1989 season which sidelined him for the first part of 1990 spring practice.

1989: Craig redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Gibson earned All-CIF Division III first team honors as a 2-way tackle at El Modena High in Orange (Calif.) in 1988. A 3-year starter on both sides of the line, he had 59 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, and 2 pass deflections for the Vanguards as a senior. Offensively, he graded out at 3.8 (on a 4.0 scale) for blocking skills and had games of 4.1 and 4.0. Gibson's other senior year honors included All-Century League on offense and defense, L.A. Herald-Examiner All-Southern California, L.A. Times All-Orange County first team, The Register All-Orange County second team, L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 honorable mention and El Modena co-MVP.

Gibson had 75 tackles and 6 sacks as a junior in 1987 and was named All-Century League.

PERSONAL: He was born in Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He likes to hunt and snow ski. Michael Jordan is his sports hero. He has run the 40 in 4.9. He's a public administration and planning major at USC. Craig's brother, Don, was a senior defensive guard at USC from 1987 to 1990 (he was All-Pac-10 first team in 1990 while serving as Troy's team captain) who then played for the Denver Broncos. Another brother, Boomer, started at outside linebacker at Arizona in 1986 (under current Trojan head coach Larry Smith) and 1987. His father, Frank, was a 3-year letterman at Army (tight end/defensive end) and captain in 1960 (the elder Gibson later served as an assistant coach at West Point). One of Frank's teammates on the Army freshman team was Smith.

CRAIG GIBSON ON: His older brothers: "They were great role models to have. It made me want to get a scholarship all the more. I was the little one, the one who was always picked on . It's worked out for the best. It's made me work harder to get where I am."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Don Gibson, Craig's older brother and USC's 1990 team captain: "I knew he was going to be a good player, but I didn't know it would be so early. When he got his shot, he took advantage of it. He's going to be a really good player."

LEN GORECKI

Offensive Guard-Tackle
6-4, 285
Junior

1992: Gorecki, a junior, is listed as Joel Crisman's backup at left offensive tackle, but he's pushing Crisman for playing time.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Len had a very impressive spring practice and is fighting for playing time with Joel Crisman. I expect him to see extended playing time in the fall."

1991: Gorecki spent the second half of his 1991 sophomore season as the backup strong offensive tackle behind Tony Boselli. He appeared briefly in the California and Arizona games.

1989: Gorecki redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Len earned All-CIF Division IV first team honors in 1988 as a senior offensive lineman at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). One of the top prep offensive linemen in Southern California in 1988, he helped Damien gain more than 2,000 yards rushing from the tailback position during his final 2 seasons. Gorecki also was named California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team and All-Baseline League in 1988. Current Trojan John Lewis also prepped at Damien.

Gorecki's 1987 junior honors included All-Pomona Valley, All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Baseline League. He also threw the shot for Damien's track team.

PERSONAL: He's majoring in public administration at USC.

BRIAN HAAS

Inside Linebacker
Freshman

1992: Haas is a rugged, high-potential redshirt freshman who is the No. 3 weakside inside linebacker behind starter Brian Williams and backup Jeff Kopp. He should also play on some special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jeff is a very competitive, intense player. He really had a good performance in last spring's practice. He'll see some action in 1992 as a backup and on special teams."

1991: Haas redshirted as an inside linebacker in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Haas was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention selection at El Toro (Calif.) High. A 3-year letterman at both linebacker and tight end, he posted 110 tackles, 15 quarterback sacks, 6 forced fumbles, 3 pass deflections and 2 interceptions on defense and caught 4 passes for touchdowns on offense as a senior. He was selected the team's Defensive Player of the Year and was the winner of the team's "Bull Hit Award" for having the most big hits during the season. He also was named Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, All-CIF Division II first team, Long Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-County first team and All-South Coast League first team.

As a junior in 1989, Haas was an All-South Coast League first team selection. He was an Orange County Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete honoree as well. He was a member of an El Toro program that went 30-8 during his 3 years. He is 1 of 4 Trojans from El Toro (along with Jeremy Hogue, Rob Johnson and Chris Miller). He also played baseball at El Toro, earning a varsity letter his senior year.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.7. He has a B+ average (3.45 GPA).

TRAVIS HANNAH

Flanker
Senior

1992: Hannah--a nationally-competitive quartermiler who came to USC on a track scholarship (he was fourth in the 1992 NCAA 400-meter run and sixth in 1990)--figures to once again back up Curtis Conway at flanker (along with Larry Wallace). The senior also will return kickoffs. He missed 1992 spring practice while competing for the USC track team.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Travis has great speed and we need to get him the ball often. Whenever he touches the ball, the potential is there for a big play. He'll be on the field a lot in 1992."

1991: Hannah shared the No. 2 flanker job with Wallace (backing up Conway) as a junior in 1991, but played often. Travis even started at Washington State. Overall, he had 9 catches for 183 yards (20.3 average), including 3 catches for 77 yards against Washington. He and Conway were also USC's kickoff returners, with Hannah running back 10 for 173 yards (17.3 average).

1990: Hannah was a backup flanker (behind Gary Wellman) who also returned kickoffs as a sophomore in 1990. Travis had 15 receptions for 267 yards (a team-high 17.8 average), with 2 TDs (15 and 45 yards at Oregon State) in 1990. He caught a pass in 8 of USC's 13 games, including a career-best 6 catches for 102 yards and the 2 scores at Oregon State. Travis also was second on the team in kickoff returns, with 10 for a 19.5 average, and he ran a reverse 8 yards versus Washington State.

1989: As a redshirt freshman in 1989, he caught just 1 pass (a 7-yarder versus Oregon State), but he gained 46 yards running on 2 reverses (37 yards against Utah State and 9 yards at Washington State). By mid-season, he was inserted as 1 of USC's kickoff returners and he had 5 runbacks (including a USC season-long 31 yards against Michigan in the Rose Bowl, 26 yards versus Stanford and 25 each against Arizona and UCLA) for a team-high 116 yards (a team-best 23.2 average).

1988: Travis did not play football in 1988, his first year at USC, but he ran track the following spring.

TRACK: Hannah is a world-class 400-meter runner with a personal best of 45.17. In the spring of 1989, he ran a best of 45.54 (converted) while placing second (by .30) behind Olympic gold medalist Steve Lewis in the UCLA dual. That time qualified him for the Pac-10 (he was third at 46.48) and NCAA meets (he did not advance out of the heats with a 46.25 time). He also won 3 early-season 400-meter races and finished fifth at the Modesto Relays (46.80). And Hannah ran the third leg on USC's 1989 Pac-10 champion 400-meter relay team (40.44), which also won 3 other races, including at the UCLA dual in a season-best 39.50 (the quartet did not run at the NCAAs because of an injury to another team member).

Following 1990 spring football practice, Hannah rejoined the USC tracksters. He won the 200 in the UCLA dual (21.32), won the 400 at the Occidental Invitational (46.32), was second behind Lewis in the Pac-10 400 (46.23 to Lewis' 46.10), and placed sixth in the NCAA 400 (45.90, but he ran a 45.54 in the semis). He also ran a leg on USC's 400-meter and 1600-meter relay teams during the season.

He sprinted again for Troy in 1991, despite missing 4 weeks of the season while in spring football drills. He won the Pac-10 400 (46.16). He made it into the NCAA meet, but did not advance to the 400 final. In all, he ran 7 races under 47 seconds, including his season-best 45.84 to place second at a meet against UCLA and BYU (that was the second fastest time in the Pac-10 in 1991). He also posted a 21.45 to win a 200 in the USC Homecoming meet. He ran the third leg on all 6 of USC's 400-meter relay races on a quartet that clocked a season-best 39.71. He also ran the opening leg on USC's only 2 1600-meter relay races of 1991.

Hannah was excused from all of 1992 spring football practice while running for the Trojan track team, which finished third at the NCAA meet. Travis was fourth in the NCAA 400 (45.37) after running a career-best 45.17 (fifth-best USC performance ever) in the semifinals. He was second behind teammate and NCAA champion Quincy Watts in the Pac-10 400 in 46.15. In the 9 400-meter races he ran in 1992, he won twice and ran under 46 seconds 6 times. He qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials and advanced to the quarterfinals. Hannah also ran the 200 meters once, winning in a triangular at California in a lifetime-best 20.81. He also ran legs on Troy's 400-meter (third leg) and 1600-meter (all legs, mainly leadoff) teams. The sprint relay, which won 6 races in 1992, won the Pac-10 title (39.32) and was fifth at the NCAAs in 39.21 (eighth fastest time ever at USC). The mile relay, which won 7 of its 9 races (finishing second the other 2 times), also won the Pac-10 crown (3:04.74) and was second at the NCAAs in a USC-record 3:00.58.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hannah played wide receiver at Hawthorne (Calif.) High, but was better known for his running feats. He was the 1988 California state 400-meter champion (47.20) after placing second in that meet in 1987 at 47.2 (to Lewis' 46.7). His 46.84 prep personal best was the second fastest time in California in 1988, just behind current USC track and football teammate Quincy Watts' 46.67. Hannah also won the 1988 CIF Southern Section 400 (47.06) and the 1987 CIF Masters 400 (47.80).

In football, Hannah started for 3 seasons at wide receiver. He caught more than 30 passes for 600-plus yards and 10 TDs as a 1987 senior, earning All-Ocean League and L.A. Times All-South Bay honors. He also returned punts (2 for TDs) and kickoffs. He added 6 TD catches as a 1986 junior. He was on the receiving end of passes all 3 years from Conway, now a teammate at USC.

PERSONAL: He has been clocked at 4.21 in the 40, making him the fastest Trojan. His cousin is NFL receiver Stephen Baker, another 5-8, 160-pounder like Travis. Hannah's sports hero is Jerry Rice. Travis is a public administration major at USC. He spent the 1992 spring semester as an intern in the publicity office of the Los Angeles Lakers.

TRAVIS HANNAH ON: His size: "I'm actually 5-7 1/2. They put me down as 5-8 to make me look big...I'm not a tall receiver or big, but maybe I'm the fastest. That's my plus."

Choosing USC: "A lot of schools wouldn't even look at me. But USC seems to get all these little guys like me. We're little, but we're good."

Football versus track: "A lot of people ask me which sport I prefer. I'm in the middle. It's a tie...I use a little track in football and a little football in track...I started off with football in high school, but track enabled me to be great in football. I like football because it's a physical, contact sport, but track is very competitive, too...I like track so much because it helps my speed and it helps my attitude for football. I feel like I'm the fastest guy out there and I can run right by the defensive backs...It's exciting when I get in my blocks, and it's like, 'Hey, nobody can beat me.' Competing in both sports is what made my career at Hawthorne High, and why I chose to come to USC, the chance to do both."

His cousin, NFL receiver Stephen Baker: "I kind of grew up with him. He told me, 'Travis, you don't have to be big. All you have to do is have speed and catch the ball. That's what the NFL likes.' He's helped me a lot. Basically, I'm following in his steps."

Moving from a rough Los Angeles neighborhood to a better part of L.A. when he was in junior high: "Sometimes, I just sit and think what could have happened to me. Sometimes, I just wonder...If we (he, his mother and his brother) hadn't moved, I really don't know what I'd be doing right now. I am one of the few people who have made it out of the old neighborhood and gone into college or got a good job. I would say 9 out of 10 kids I knew there haven't been successful in life. They're selling drugs or they just dropped out of school. Where would I be? Would I be in college or would I be selling drugs?"

Why he wants to be a teacher: "I want to teach elementary school kids. I've always wanted to help kids, to help them grow with special knowledge they need to better prepare for college. Where I went to elementary school, I had it hard."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "Travis has worked so hard at the little things that make you a good wide receiver. I think he has tremendous potential. He used to be a straight line guy, always running the streak. He can still run the streak, but he can also catch the other passes that help you win."

USC men's track coach Jim Bush: "Football is Travis' incentive for running track. He knows that if he does well in track, it enhances his football."

CLAY HATTABAUGH

Offensive Guard
Sophomore

1992: After an impressive showing during his first-year freshman season in 1991, the sophomore Hattabaugh enters fall drills as the No. 2 left offensive guard behind former prep teammate Robert Loya, but Clay will push Loya for the starting job. He missed most of 1992 spring practice while recovering from 1991 post-season shoulder surgery.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Clay is an outstanding young offensive lineman who played very well while getting significant experience in 1991. He should be fully recovered from his shoulder surgery and is in the mix to be a starter this year. He's got a fine future at USC."

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1991, Hattabaugh was the No. 2 quick offensive guard (first behind Kris Pollack and then Joel Crisman) and he was quite impressive while seeing plenty of action. Clay appeared in 7 games (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon, California, Washington, Arizona). He even started the Arizona game, becoming the first true freshman to start on the Trojan offensive line since Bruce Matthews (an eventual All-American and All-Pro) did so in 1979 against UCLA. After the season, Hattabaugh had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: A product of state prep power Fontana (Calif.) High, Hattabaugh teamed with Loya to give Fontana one of the finest rushing games in the nation in 1989 and 1990. During Hattabaugh's 1990 senior season, the Steelers rushed for 3,432 yards (and over his last 2 years there, they rushed for 7,676 yards, a 294-yard per game average). He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-Valley and All-Citrus Belt League.

As a junior in 1989, Clay was named Cal-Hi All-State Underclassman and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana went 34-4 during Hattabaugh's 3 seasons, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

ZURI HECTOR

Safety
6-3, 205
Senior

1992: Hector is a seasoned senior who provides high-level experience in the secondary (he's listed as the No. 2 free safety behind Mike Salmon, but he can also play outside linebacker) and on special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Zuri is a talented athlete who not only gives us quality depth in the secondary, but is an excellent special teams player. He can make an impact there."

1991: Hector was a key special teams player who played in all 11 games as a junior in 1991. Also a reserve cornerback who saw limited action at that spot, he made 1 tackle in 1991. He missed most of 1991 spring practice with a pulled hamstring.

1990: Hector was a sophomore reserve defensive back in 1990 who played sparingly at both cornerback and safety. But it was as a member of USC's special teams where Zuri made his biggest mark. Midway through the first quarter at Ohio State, he picked up a punt that was blocked by Willie McGinest and ran it 8 yards for a TD to open the game's scoring. Overall in 1990, he made 1 tackle.

1989: Hector was a reserve safety as a redshirt freshman in 1989 who played on most special teams. Although he made just 1 tackle in 1989, he made his presence felt on the punt blocking team, where he came oh-so-close many times.

1988: He redshirted in 1988 in his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hector earned California Football All-State honorable mention notice as a free safety in 1987 at Washington High in San Francisco (Calif.). He intercepted 6 passes and recovered 2 fumbles for the San Francisco Section-champion Eagles in 1987. He also played wide receiver for Washington and scored 10 touchdowns as a senior. His other 1987 honors included San Francisco Examiner All-Bay Area second team and All-Academic Athletic Association first team.

As a junior in 1986, Hector picked off a school-record 11 interceptions and had 3 fumbles recoveries. He was named All-AAA first team on defense in 1986. Washington won the league title in 1986 and lost in the San Francisco Section championship game.

An excellent track athlete, Zuri was the city champ in the high hurdles, triple jump and high jump in his senior year and won league titles in the discus, high jump and low hurdles as a junior in 1987.

PERSONAL: His father, Willie, played at Pacific and then with the Los Angeles Rams (in 1961), while his older brother, Byron, played at California in 1984-86. Zuri runs the 40 in 4.6. He likes to snow and water ski, fish and go bike riding. His sports hero is ex-Trojan safety Ronnie Lott. Zuri is a business administration major at USC.

5-8, 185
Sophomore

1992: Henry, who gained valuable experience as a first-year freshman in 1991 (even starting once), enters his redshirt freshman year as the No. 2 right cornerback behind Jason Oliver, but he's also in the running to start at left corner. He missed the last half of 1992 spring practice to have surgery for a dislocating right shoulder, but he should be healthy in the fall.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jerald was an impressive cornerback as a freshman. He has quick feet and is an excellent coverage cornerback. The playing time he received in 1991 will serve him well this year. Despite missing some of last spring's practice with an injury, he likely could be in the starting lineup in the fall."

1991: One of just 6 first-year freshmen to see action in 1991, Henry was the No. 2 pass coverage halfback behind Calvin Holmes. Jerald appeared in 10 games (all but the Memphis State opener), primarily in extra defensive back situations, but he even started the California contest. Overall, he made 19 tackles, including 4 at Washington State and 3 at California.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a 1990 senior at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.), Henry was selected Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division VII first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and Camino Real League Offensive MVP. In 1990, he rushed for 1,705 yards on 160 carries (10.7 average) with 25 TDs. He ran for 337 yards in a game and twice scored 5 TDs in a game. He totalled 176 points in 1990. Serra was a CIF Division VII semifinalist in his senior campaign.

As a 1989 junior, he won All-League second team honors on both offense and defense while running for 890 yards (11 TDs) and intercepting 8 passes. He had 11 career thefts.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5. He's a business administration major at USC.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Marvin Pollard, ex-USC defensive back: "Jerald's footwork is terrific, maybe the best on the team. Nothing bothers him, either."

JOHN HERPIN

Cornerback

1992: One of USC's most improved players, the sophomore Herpin--a one-time flanker who is also a top-flight high hurdler for the Trojan track team--enters the fall as the starting left cornerback.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "John was impressive this past spring. He turned in one of the best performances of any of our players during spring drills and won a starting cornerback job. He can be a real impact player on our defense. He is an outstanding young athlete with super speed."

1991: In the pre-season prior to his 1991 redshirt freshman campaign, Herpin was moved from flanker to the secondary, where he was impressive enough to be listed as the No. 2 pass coverage halfback (behind Calvin Holmes). However, John dislocated his right shoulder in pre-season drills and missed USC's first 2 games. He suited up for Troy's next 2 contests (Arizona State and Oregon) and saw brief action at Oregon (he didn't make a tackle). Then, in practice prior to the following contest (Washington State), he again dislocated his right shoulder and had surgery, which sidelined him for the rest of 1991.

1990: Herpin redshirted in 1990 as a flanker, his first season at USC.

TRACK: Herpin ran the high hurdles for the Trojan tracksters in the spring of 1991 (he redshirted in track in 1992). He finished fourth in the Pac-10 meet with a personal-best 14.14. He ran 7 other races, all posting times of 14.61 or better, including a 14.19 to place second at the USC Homecoming meet and 14.24 (converted) for second against Cal State Northridge, Stanford and UC Irvine. He won 3 races: 14.32 in a 5 way meet against Arizona State, Washington, New Mexico and Baylor, 14.54 in a 4-way meet versus UC Irvine Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and UC Santa Barbara, and 14.59 against UCLA and BYU. He also led off USC's 400-meter relay once when the quartet won the USC Homecoming meet in 40.06.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 prep All-American by Parade, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger, Herpin played in 3 games in for LaPorte (Tex.) High before breaking his arm on the first play of the fourth game as a senior. In the 3 games, he rushed for 248 yards on 17 carries (14.6 average), including 120 yards on his first 4 carries of the season. He also had 3 catches as a wingback. As a safety, he made 19 tackles. He was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Blue Chip All-Southwest Region, Tom Lemming All-Southwest and Texas Football Magazine Super Team. He was rated the No. 10 player in Texas by the Houston Chronicle.

His 3-year career totals show 21 receptions for 530 yards (25.2 yards per catch), 320 yards rushing on 25 carries (12.8 average), 26 punt returns for 340 yards (13.1 average), 16 kickoff returns for 447 yards (27.9 average), 14 touchdowns, 11 interceptions and 7 fumble recoveries. He was All-State as a 1988 junior, when he had 14 catches for 337 yards (24.1 average) with 3 touchdowns, 73 tackles, 4 interceptions (returned 2 for touchdowns) and 481 yards returning kicks (with 2 scores).

An outstanding hurdler, Herpin was named USA Today pre-season 1990 All-USA Track & Field. A 2-time Texas state high hurdle champion, John's 1990 best of 13.52 topped all U.S. preps. He ran 10.52 in the 100 meters. A fine student, Herpin was a member of the National Honor Society.

PERSONAL: He has run 4.32 in the 40. He's a business administration major at USC.

MIKE HINZ

Nose Guard
6-3, 265
Junior

1992: Hinz--an experienced, consistent junior who started at nose guard most of 1991--will battle with Thomas Holland for the starting job in 1992 (entering the fall, Hinz is listed as Holland's backup there).

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Mike was playing well in 1991 until he got hurt and that really set him back. He needs to come back and step up his level of play. I expect a better year from him now. He's a strong, dominant, tough, and agile player who can make the plays inside. He's in a battle to start, but whether or not he does, he'll play a lot."

1991: Hinz started the first 7 games of his 1991 sophomore season at nose guard and held his own. But he sprained his left ankle at Notre Dame and was sidelined the next 2 contests (California and Washington). He returned for Troy's final 2 games (Arizona and UCLA) and played briefly in them as a reserve. Overall, he made 18 tackles (all in the first 7 games), including 2 for losses of 2 yards. He also forced a fumble (which USC recovered at Notre Dame). He had 5 stops (including both of his tackles for losses) against Arizona State.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Hinz spent the first half of 1990 as the often-used backup to both Gene Fruge at nose guard and Don Gibson at defensive guard, but when Fruge was injured at Arizona State, Hinz assumed the starting nose guard role the following game (California) and was in the starting lineup the rest of the regular season, performing well. When Fruge returned to start the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State, Hinz again backed him up. Overall, he had 19 tackles, including 2 for losses, and 1 forced fumble (against Syracuse). He had at least 1 tackle in 11 of USC's 13 contests.

1989: Hinz redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC. He was slowed in pre-season drills with a sprained left ankle.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hinz was an All-State performer as a senior in 1988 at Ramona High in Riverside (Calif.). A very versatile player, he rarely left the field during a game, playing tight end, linebacker, nose guard, punter and special teams. He made 141 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 1 interception in 1988. On offense, Hinz averaged 21 yards per catch on 15 receptions and scored 4 touchdowns as a senior. He also boomed a 72-yard punt in 1988. His 1988 honors included Super Prep All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV Player of the Year, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, L.A. Herald-Examiner All-Southern California and Top 25, L.A. Times Inland Empire Lineman of the Year, Riverside County Defensive Player of the Year, Ivy League Defensive MVP (and All-League on offense), L.A. Herald-Examiner pre-season Super 11 first team.

A 3-year starter, Hinz had 102 tackles as a junior in 1987 and was a 2-way tackle. On offense in 1987, Hinz was named All-CIF Eastern Conference, All-Riverside County, and All-Ivy League, while he earned All-Inland Empire honors on defense.

He played both ways and punted in 1986 as a sophomore, making 36 tackles. He also competed in track, baseball and wrestling while at Ramona. An outstanding student, Hinz had a 3.5 grade point average in high school and was on California Football's Scholar team in 1988, as well as being Ramona's Outstanding Male Citizen.

PERSONAL: He was born in Guatemala City, Guatemala. He can throw with either hand and kick with either foot. He runs the 40 in 4.8 and bench presses 375 pounds. In his spare time, he likes to listen to music and sleep. His sports hero is Bo Jackson. He's an electrical engineering major at USC with a B- average (2.95 GPA).

JEREMY HOGUE

Nose Guard
Freshman

1992: A redshirt freshman, Hogue is the No. 3 nose guard behind starter Thomas Holland and backup Mike Hinz. He's also available as a long snapper. Jeremy had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in an ankle after 1992 spring drills, but he'll be ready to go in the fall.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jeremy is a young, developing defensive lineman who showed lots of promise in this past spring's practice."

1991: Hogue redshirted as a defensive guard in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hogue was a 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team as a senior at El Toro (Calif.) High. He was the highest grading offensive lineman in 5 El Toro games in 1990. Defensively, in a 1990 CIF playoff game, he posted 4 sacks, 5 pressures and 3 forced fumbles. For the 1990 season, he registered 8 sacks, 6 forced fumbles and an interception. He was a 2-year starter for a pair of El Toro teams that went 23-4 and advanced to the CIF Finals in 1989 and the semifinals in 1990.

As a junior in 1989, Hogue was Super Prep All-West. An outstanding student, Hogue maintained a 4.1 GPA (4.0 scale) and was named a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete. He lettered 2 years in basketball and a year in track at El Toro. Brian is 1 of 4 Trojans from El Toro (along with Brian Haas, Rob Johnson and Chris Miller).

PERSONAL: He was born in Houston, Tex. He's a political science major at USC with an A- average (3.74 GPA), tops on the team.

THOMAS HOLLAND

Nose Guard
6-3, 265
Junior

1992: Holland--a junior who finished last season impressively--enters the fall as the starting nose guard, although he'll be pushed by 1991 starter Mike Hinz.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Thomas is a tough, active, hard-nosed, aggressive player. He's an excellent defender against the run. He won the starting job with a fine spring showing. Even if Mike Hinz replaces him, Thomas will play a lot."

1991: Holland spent most of his 1991 sophomore season as the No. 2 nose guard behind Hinz and then Jason Uhl, but Thomas did start USC's final 2 games there (Arizona and UCLA). Early in the season, he sprained his right foot prior to the Penn State game and missed 3 contests (Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon). Overall, Holland made 10 tackles (including 2 for losses of 2 yards). Against UCLA, he had 5 tackles (including 1 for a loss).

1990: Holland was a reserve redshirt freshman defensive lineman in 1990. He saw brief action at Oregon State, but did not make a tackle.

1989: Holland redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-year 2-way starter at tackle, Holland averaged 12 tackles per game as a senior at Newman Smith High in Carrollton (Tex.). He also had 5 sacks and 3 fumble recoveries. Holland earned All-District 12-AAAAA first team honors (offense) and played in the Texas Coaches Association All-Star game in 1988.

He also averaged 12 tackles per game as a junior in 1987 and had 6 sacks for the year. He was an All-District first team pick on defense in 1987. A versatile athlete, Holland took fifth in the state prep wrestling tournament as a senior and reached the regionals in track by throwing the discus 165-0 that season.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.9 and can bench press 370 pounds. He's a communications major at USC.

LAMONT HOLLINQUEST

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 225
Senior

1992: One of USC's most versatile defensive players, the senior Hollinquest enters the fall as the No. 2 strongside outside linebacker behind Donn Cunnigan after starting there most of 1991. Lamont missed 1992 spring practice to concentrate on his academics.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Lamont is a big rover-type of defender, a cross between a linebacker and defensive back. He's a big, strong, fast athlete and I expect him to make a lot of plays. Because he missed spring practice, he'll have to work his way back into the lineup."

1991: Hollinquest--coming off a year's absence--played the first 3 games of his 1991 junior season as the No. 2 free safety (behind Mike Salmon) and saw lots of action in extra defensive back situations. But when injuries hit USC's outside linebacker corps, Lamont was switched to strongside outside linebacker and started--and starred in--6 of USC's last 8 games (Oregon, Washington State, California, Washington, Arizona and UCLA). He backed up Kurt Barber there in the other 2 contests (Stanford and Notre Dame). Hollinquest also was a key special teams performer. Overall, he made 48 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard), recovered a fumble (at California, which set up a TD), forced a fumble (also at California), and deflected 2 passes. He had 9 stops at California and 8 against both Washington State and Washington.

1990: Hollinquest sat out the 1990 spring practice and the fall season while suspended from the team because of disciplinary reasons related to academics. He spent part of the time helping coach the defensive backs at Blair High in Pasadena (Calif.).

1989: As a sophomore in 1989, Hollinquest backed up All-American free safety Mark Carrier. He missed USC's first 5 games while recuperating from a ruptured tendon in his left ring finger which he suffered in pre-season drills. Still, he notched 11 tackles (5 against Oregon State). He also played on special teams. He missed the final half of 1989 spring drills while suspended from the team because of academic difficulties.

1988: Although he was just a first-year freshman in 1988 (1 of only 4 to play that season), Hollinquest backed up Carrier at free safety. He saw some action in that role and on special teams, posting 4 tackles (including 3 at Arizona State) and intercepting a pass at Arizona State, which he returned 29 yards to set up a touchdown. He missed the Notre Dame game because he had the measles.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hollinquest was one of the top prep defensive backs in the nation while at Pius X High in Downey (Calif.), despite missing his senior season in 1987 with a broken ankle. He was injured on the first play of the first game in 1987 and was out the remainder of the year. His injury notwithstanding, Lamont's senior year honors were plentiful: Super Prep All-American and All-Far West, California Football All-State, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits, Joe Terranova's

Nifty Fifty Seniors, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and L.A. Herald-Examiner Super 11 first team. He was also set to play quarterback in 1987 before his injury.

As a junior in 1986, Hollinquest had 121 tackles and 8 interceptions (2 were returned for touchdowns) on defense, and caught 4 TD passes as a tight end. He was named Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass in 1986.

A fine basketball player, Hollinquest earned All-CIF 5-A first team honors while averaging 21.9 points per game in 1988. He averaged 19 points as a junior and was twice named to California Football's Grid-Hoop All-Stars (honorable mention).

PERSONAL: Lamont's cousin is former Philadelphia Eagles wide receiver Charles Smith. He has been clocked in 4.6 in the 40. His sports hero is Michael Jordan. He's a public administration major at USC.

LAMONT HOLLINQUEST ON: Playing outside linebacker: "It's different than safety. It's closer to the ball. You have to be more physical. You're going against big linemen or big fullbacks or tight ends on every play. You have to be physically and mentally tough. It's pretty fun playing there even though I'm not really big enough. But I'll do anything to get on the field to play. I'd play defensive line if it meant getting on the field."

Sitting out the 1990 season: "The suspension was a blessing in disguise. It taught me a lesson. Now I do what I have to do and if I have time for leisure, that comes later. I can see the whole picture now. Before, I had tunnel vision. All I thought about was having a good time and playing football. But now I know there are other things I have to do. Missing a whole season, that was agony. It's no fun to be on the outside looking in. It was hard watching my friends play with me not playing. It was very hard. Sometimes, I'd think about making that big play or being a part of the defense. It bothered me a lot. That really made it a reality check for me."

TARRIEL HOPPER

Outside Linebacker
Freshman

1992: A redshirt freshman, Hopper--whose brother once started for the USC defense--is the No. 3 strongside outside linebacker behind starter Donn Cunnigan and backup Lamont Hollinquest. Tarriel had arthroscopic surgery to remove right knee cartilage following 1992 spring practice, but he should be okay in the fall.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Tarriel has excellent speed and size. And he can really pop you. He could see some action in 1992 as a backup outside linebacker and on special teams."

1991: Hopper redshirted as an outside linebacker and safety in 1991, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: While at Carson (Calif.) High, Hopper was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-L.A. City 4-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team, and All-Pacific League first team. As a 1990 senior, he had 104 tackles, 5 interceptions (2 were returned for touchdowns) and 4 fumble recoveries. Carson went 12-1, was ranked No. 5 in California, and won the L.A. City 4-A championship.

As a 1989 junior, Hopper made the Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team as a punter (35.7 average). In his career, he made 225 tackles (fourth most in school history). He also was the team's backup quarterback as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.6. His brother, Darrel, was a part-time starting defensive back at USC in 1982, 1983 and 1984 who then played in the NFL (San Diego Chargers, Los Angeles Raiders) and CFL (Ottawa Roughriders). Tarriel is a public administration major at USC.

TARRIEL HOPPER ON: Why he chose USC: "I fell in love with the tradition. I saw all the games when my brother was here. It's somewhere I always wanted to be."

Playing quarterback in high school: "It helped me playing quarterback. I learned a lot about how an offensive mind works. I just took what I learned over to the defense."

Helping out at a local church after last spring's Los Angeles riots: "I had to help out whatever way I could. We're a part of this commuity. My father has a business here, my fazmily's here and I'm a USC student. I'm a part of this city in a lot of ways."

YONNIE JACKSON

Tight End
Senior

1992: Although he enters the fall listed as the No. 2 tight end behind Bradford Banta, Jackson--the 1991 starter--will push Banta for the starting job. Whether he starts or not, Yonnie will play often because USC uses many multiple tight end formations. Jackson, a senior, is an All-Pac-10 candidate with outstanding blocking and receiving abilities.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Yonnie is coming off a very good showing in 1991 and has emerged into one of the Pac-10's top tight end. He's a fine athlete with excellent speed, quickness and pass catching ability. He's also one of our senior leaders."

1991: Jackson started 8 of USC's 11 games (all but the Washington State, Stanford and UCLA games, but Yonnie appeared in those 3) at tight end as a 1991 junior. He was second on the team in receptions with 27 for 302 yards (11.2 average) and 2 TDs (a 7-yarder against Penn State and a 6-yarder versus UCLA). He caught a pass in 10 games in 1991 (all but the Arizona State contest). He had 4 catches against both Notre Dame (39 yards) and Oregon (36 yards). An All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick, he also was USC's Co-Offensive Player of the Game versus UCLA (with Banta).

1990: Jackson began his 1990 sophomore year as the often-used No. 2 tight end behind Frank Griffin (he was employed often in 2-tight end formations). When Griffin was hurt in game 5 (Washington State), Yonnie started the next 3 games (Stanford, Arizona, Arizona State) before suffering a stress fracture in his left foot at Arizona State, which sidelined him the rest of the season. Overall, he had 12 catches for 133 yards (11.1 average), including 5 for 52 yards versus Arizona (tied for game high with Gary Wellman) and 2 each against Syracuse (27 yards) and Washington (19 yards). He had a catch in 6 of the 8 games in which he played.

1989: Jackson was a redshirt freshman reserve tight end in 1989 who was used at times in extra tight end situations. He did not catch a pass in 1989. In 1989 spring practice, Jackson was well on his way to establishing himself in the tight end corps before suffering a stress fracture in his left foot and missing the final half of drills.

1988: Jackson redshirted in 1988 in his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jackson caught 27 passes for 448 yards (16.6 average) and 8 touchdowns as a senior tight end in 1987 at Tokay High in Stockton (Calif.). As a defensive end in 1987, Jackson made 134 tackles, recovered 5 fumbles and blocked 5 kicks. He was named All-San Joaquin Athletic Association first team on offense and All-SJAA second team on defense, Stockton Record All-Area first team, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, California Football All-State honorable mention and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 as a senior, as well as team MVP.

Yonnie had 21 receptions for 424 yards (20.2 average) and 6 TDs as a junior in 1986, earning All-SJAA and All-Area first team honors.

As a 2-year varsity starter in basketball, Jackson was named All-SJAA second team as a junior and senior, helping the Tigers to the SJAA title both years. He was named to California Football's 1988 Prep Grid-Hoop team (honorable mention). Also a standout in baseball, Yonnie was an All-SJAA leftfielder in 1987. A star in the classroom, too, Jackson compiled a 3.3 grade point average (out of 4.0) in high school.

PERSONAL: Jackson has run the 40 in 4.6 and can bench press 365 pounds. He likes to play baseball and fish in his spare time. His sports hero is Magic Johnson. Yonnie says the funniest thing that has happened to him on the field was "once in a football game in the rain, after making a catch, I slid for 50 feet onto the track and the crowd yelled, 'Safe!'" He's a public administration major at USC.

YONNIE JACKSON ON: Catching passes: "I love to catch the ball and run with it. When we call pass plays, my hands start sweating. I have to wipe them off on my pants before the play."

Waiting his turn: "My first 3 years at USC I was behind (future NFLers) Frank Griffin, Paul Green and Scott Galbraith. I used to watch those guys in practice and I knew I wasn't ready to play. I was happy to wait my turn. I've learned that good things come to those who wait. I now have the confidence that you need to have to play this game at this level. It's a kind of cockiness that says you're as good as all the others."

Thrillseeking: "I have a dream of learning to skydive. I want to know what it is like to drop out of an airplane at 10,000 feet, to free fall and do flips in the air. I also want to learn to surf and then try the big waves in Hawaii."

ROB JOHNSON

Quarterback
Sophomore

1992: Johnson, a tested, athletic sophomore who was impressive when he played last year, will battle Reggie Perry for the starting quarterback job. Rob came out of 1992 spring practice with a slight edge over Perry.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Rob got some quality playing time last season and performed beyond his years. He was very effective in last spring's drills and if we had to play a game right then, he would have been the starter. He has great touch on his passes. He just needs to improve on his arm strength and the quickness on his release."

1991: The backup quarterback to Perry most of 1991, Johnson became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for USC in the post-World War II era (records before then are incomplete) when he started at Arizona. Rob played that entire Arizona game, hitting 10-of-20 passes for 114 yards and an 8-yard TD to Estrus Crayton (with 2 interceptions) while guiding USC to a pair of TDs. Two games before then, at California in USC's eighth game of the season, Johnson made his first appearance of 1991 by playing nearly all of the fourth quarter, going 6-of-9 for 80 yards and a TD (22 yards to Larry Wallace) while leading USC to 2 touchdowns. The next game, against Washington, he relieved Perry in the third quarter and was 3-of-7 for 31 yards and led Troy to a field goal (its only score in the game). Overall in 1991, as 1 of just 6 first-year freshmen to play at USC, Rob completed 19-of-36 passes (52.8%) for 225 yards, 2 TDs and 2 interceptions (he also lost 22 yards rushing on 17 carries, a -1.3 average).

BASEBALL: Johnson was a righthanded pitcher for the USC baseball team in the spring of 1992 before quitting to concentrate on spring football practice. He had a 6.75 ERA while appearing briefly in 2 games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Johnson was one of the most celebrated prep quarterbacks in the nation in 1990, winning All-American first team honors from Super Prep and Tom Lemming. He led El Toro (Calif.) High to the 1990 CIF semifinals and an 11-2 record by completing 207-of-303 passes (68.3%) for 2,788 yards and 29 touchdowns. As a result, he was named Super Prep All-Far West Offensive Player of the Year. His other 1990 honors included Blue Chip All-American second team and USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-County Offensive Player of the Year and South Coast League Co-Offensive Player of the Year. His 2 finest single-game performances included numbers of 21-for-25 passing for 275 yards and 3 touchdowns, and 16-for-19 for 241 yards and 3 touchdowns. He passed for 312 yards in 1 game and threw 4 touchdown strikes in another game. He set 5 school season passing records. Rob's father, Bob, was the El Toro coach.

As a 1989 junior wide receiver (El Toro's quarterback was Steve Stenstrom, now at Stanford), Johnson made 65 catches for 1,260 yards (19.4 average) and 12 touchdowns. For his play at receiver, he was named California Football All-State honorable mention, CIF All-Southern Section, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team and Orange County Register All-County second team. He also was 20-for-25 (80.0%) for 550 yards as a backup quarterback in 1989. El Toro was 12-2 in 1989 and advanced to the CIF finals.

As a 1988 sophomore, Johnson split time with the varsity and junior varsity teams as a quarterback and defensive back. Current Trojan teammates Brian Haas, Jeremy Hogue and Chris Miller also prepped at El Toro.

A 3-sport star at El Toro, Johnson was named the 1991 Cal-Hi Sports and Amateur Athletic Foundation Boys State Athlete of the Year and was the first prepster named twice as the Orange County Register Male Athlete of the Year (1990 and 1991). He was a 4-year starter for the Charger varsity basketball team, twice earning All-County honors and 3 times winning All-League recognition. He averaged 17.5 points a game as a sophomore, 21.8 as a junior and 25.0 as senior and was named team MVP both his junior and senior seasons. Rob was also a 4-year letterman in baseball, pitching El Toro to more than 20 victories during his career. He was a 16th round draft pick by the Minnesota Twins in 1991. A fine student with a 3.5 GPA at El Toro, he made the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports Scholar Squad.

PERSONAL: His older brother, Bret, is the ex-UCLA and current Michigan State quarterback. Rob runs the 40 in 4.7. He's a public administratoin major at USC with a B average (3.10 GPA).

ROB JOHNSON ON: His brother, Bret: "I've learned a lot from my brother and what he has gone through. That provides me with an example of what can happen in college football, that you never know what is going to happen."

Playing for his father in high school: "Playing for Dad was fun and it was also demanding. I knew he was going to be harder on me than on anyone else on the team. But he also separated it. He kept football away from home. Sometimes I'd ask him a football question and he wouldn't answer it."

MICHAEL JONES

Fullback
6-0, 220
Sophomore

1992: Jones, a hard-running sophomore, is the No. 3 fullback behind starter Wes Bender and backup Mike Mooney. A one-time tailback, Michael also figures to see some special teams duty.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Michael is a solid runner who gives us good depth. He's made the transition to fullback very well. He should play a lot on special teams and in the backfield. I like his future."

1991: Midway through his 1991 redshirt freshman year, Jones was switched from tailback to fullback. A reserve, he appeared briefly in the California and UCLA games, but did not carry the ball. Following 1991 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery on torn cartilage in his left knee.

1990: Jones redshirted in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 2-way performer at Montclair Prep in Van Nuys (Calif.), Jones accrued 3,372 yards rushing, 69 touchdowns, 66 receptions, 214 tackles and 6 interceptions in a 3-year career. He helped guide the Mounties to 3 straight Alpha League titles.

As a senior in 1989, he was a Parade and Max Emfinger All-American as he rushed for 1,863 yards with 29 touchdowns as a tailback and caught 22 passes for 301 yards. In 3 different games he eclipsed 200 yards rushing, posting a season-best of 215 yards against Simi Valley High. Defensively, he registered 90 tackles and 2 interceptions, splitting time between safety and linebacker. His other 1989 honors included Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Small Schools) first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Long Beach Press Telegram Best in the West, USA Today Super 100, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division IX first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team and Daily News All Valley second team. During 1989, Jones teamed with Derek Sparks to give Montclair Prep perhaps the best prep offensive backfield in the nation. The pair rushed for more than 3,200 yards and 40 touchdowns. Montclair, which was 6-5 in 1988, bolted to 12-1 in 1989 and advanced to the CIF Division IX semifinals.

As a 1988 junior, Jones rushed for 1,693 yards with 23 touchdowns while averaging 10.1 yards a carry. He rushed for a career-high 298 yards on 19 carries (including 4 TDs) against Western Christian High. Jones was named 1988 All CIF Division IX first team and Daily News All-Valley second team. Current Trojan Donovan Roy also went to Montclair Prep.

He also lettered in basketball, averaging 12 points a game in 1989-90. A fine student, Jones was a member of the National Honor Society and the Honor Roll while in high school.

PERSONAL: He has run a 4.5 40 and bench pressed 380 pounds. He was born in Chicago, Ill. He's a communications major at USC.

MICHAEL JONES ON: His running style: "I'm going to get you where you need to go. I run hard. There's nothing sweet about my running."

SHANNON JONES

Defensive Guard
6-4, 265
Junior

1992: Jones, an untested junior, was moved to defensive guard from inside linebacker in 1992 spring practice and was one of USC's most pleasant surprises. Shannon enters the fall as the starter there.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Shannon immediately took to the position switch to the defensive line and improved tremendously during the past spring's drills. In fact, he was one of our most impressive players, ending up as a starter. He makes lots of big plays and has excellent speed."

1991: As a reserve inside linebacker, Jones suffered a dislocated right shoulder in pre-season drills and that sidelined him for his entire 1991 sophomore season.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Jones was a reserve weakside inside linebacker in 1990 whose only action was limited time on special teams. Jones began the season as an outside linebacker on the weakside. He won USC's Howard Jones Academic Incentive Award (for the most improved GPA).

1989: Jones redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, following surgery for a dislocated right shoulder injury suffered in pre-season drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jones was a 2-year 2-way starter at offensive guard and defensive end as a prep at Smiley High in Houston (Tex.). He averaged 8 tackles per game as a senior in 1988 and was named All-Conference first team, All-District first team on defense (second team on offense) and Dallas Morning News Texas Top 100.

As a junior in 1987, Jones made All-District first team and All-Conference second team. An excellent student, he carried a B+ average in high school.

PERSONAL: Jones' father, Bill, played for the Kansas City Chiefs. Shannon has run the 40 in 4.6 and bench pressed 360 pounds. He is majoring in business administration at USC.

JASON KEIDERLING

Offensive Guard

1992: Keiderling, a sophomore, is No. 3 at the right offensive guard spot behind starter Kris Pollack and backup Kyle Ramsay.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jason is a young, developing player with excellent strength. He bolsters the depth of the offensive line. He had a solid spring and could contribute in the fall."

1990: Keiderling redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC. He did not suit up for the first 4 games of 1990 while recovering from a broken hand.

HIGH SCHOOL: For his performance during his 1989 senior season as a 2-way tackle at Reseda (Calif.) High, Keiderling earned recognition on the Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press Telegram Best of the Rest, California Football All-State second team, All-L.A. City 3-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team and Daily News All-Valley second team. He was team captain as a senior in 1989. As a defensive starter, he accumulated 60 tackles, recovered a fumble and forced another. A 3-year letterman, he helped the Regents post a 3-year record of 24-6-2.

He also competed for Reseda's basketball, volleyball and track and field teams.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 5.0. He enjoys deep sea fishing. He's a business administration major at USC with a B-average (2.80 GPA).

JEFF KOPP

Inside Linebacker
6-3, 235
Sophomore

1992: A determined, aggressive sophomore, Kopp is the backup weakside inside linebacker behind Brian Williams, but figures to push Williams for playing time.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "He's still young and relatively inexperienced, but Jeff is cut in the mold of many of USC's outstanding inside linebackers. He had an outstanding spring practice. He can play either inside linebacker spot. He should be on the field a lot this fall."

1991: Kopp backed up Matt Gee at strongside inside linebacker as a redshirt freshman and appeared in 9 games there and on special teams. He didn't get into the Stanford game and, because of a sprained right knee suffered in practice prior to the UCLA game, he sat out the Bruin season finale. Overall in 1991, he made 11 tackles (including 1 for a loss of 1 yard). He had 4 stops against California.

1990: Kopp redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A Super Prep All-American, Kopp registered 172 tackles, 7 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries and an interception as a linebacker in 1989 at San Ramon High in Danville (Calif.). He was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team and Defensive Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-Northern California, San Francisco Examiner All-Bay Area first team, and MVP of the All-Alameda County first team (as a linebacker and offensive lineman). He led San Ramon to an 8-4 record and the CIF North Coast Section 3-A Division semi-finals.

As a 1988 junior, he earned All-County and All-Bay Area honors while recording more than 120 tackles and 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.7 seconds. He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.80 GPA). His father, Thomas, played at Arizona State.

RYAN LENDERMAN

Split End
Sophomore

1992: A sophomore with glue-like hands, Lenderman is the No. 2 split end (with Joel Scott) behind starter Johnnie Morton.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Ryan has kept improving since he arrived at USC and now should see significant playing time this fall. He has great hands, excellent concentration, and is a tough, hard-nosed competitor. He's much like Erik Affholter (a split end at USC in 1985-88 who is Troy's No. 2 career receiver)."

1991: Lenderman was a reserve split end as a redshirt freshman in 1991, but he didn't see any action. He didn't suit up for USC's first 2 games (Memphis State and Penn State) while recovering from a dislocated right shoulder suffered in pre-season drills. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on that shoulder.

1990: Lenderman redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Colorado's all-time prep receiver, Lenderman snared 251 passes during his 4-year career at Grand Junction (Colo.) High, 1 reception shy of the national high school record. A 4-year starter, Lenderman was a 1989 Parade and Super Prep All-American. He was also USA Today All-USA second team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Central Region, Tom Lemming All-Midlands and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. A 3-time All-State honoree, Lenderman caught 62 passes for 950 yards (15.3 average) and 13 TDs in 1989. He had 23 grabs and 4 TDs in the season-finale against Cortez High. He started 43 of 45 games during his career.

As a 1988 junior, he caught 89 passes for 1,468 yards (16.5 average) and 20 TDs. Grand Junction won the Colorado State 3A championship with a 14-0 record (the team was 31-4 in Lenderman's 3 seasons). Ryan was named 1988 USA Today All-USA honorable mention.

He posted 76 catches for 1,156 yards (15.2 average) and 14 TDs as a sophomore in 1987. He had 27 receptions and 4 TDs as a 1986 freshman.

He also lettered in baseball (centerfield), winning All-State honors in 1989 and 1990. He batted .490 in 1990 with 4 home runs.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5.

IRWIN LINCOLN

Cornerback
Freshman

1992: Although he missed last fall with a knee injury, Lincoln had a fine showing in 1992 spring practice, earning the redshirt freshman a No. 2 listing at left cornerback behind starter John Herpin. Irwin can also play safety and should be on many special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Irwin was very impressive in last spring's drills. He figures in a prominent backup role in the secondary and will be a key special teams player."

1991: Lincoln redshirted as a cornerback in 1991, his first year at USC, while recovering from pre-season surgery to repair torn ligaments in his left knee.

HIGH SCHOOL: In 3 years of high school play, Lincoln was beaten for a passing touchdown just twice. A 1990 Blue Chip All-American honorable mention pick despite being sidelined 7 games of his senior season at DeAnza High in Richmond (Calif.) with various shoulder and knee injuries, Lincoln still collected 40 solo tackles and an interception in 6 games. Also as a wide receiver, he caught 15 passes for 260 yards (17.3 average) and 2 touchdowns. He returned a punt 89 yards for a touchdown. His additional 1990 honors included Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team (and Medium Schools 2-A Division first team), San Francisco Examiner All-Northern California first team and All-San Francisco Metro first team, and All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League. DeAnza posted an 8-4-1 record and advanced to the 1990 CIF North Coast Section 2-A Division finals.

As a 1989 junior, Lincoln had 53 tackles, 5 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries and was named All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League. He posted 45 tackles, 3 interceptions and 5 fumble recoveries as a sophomore in 1988 and won All-Diablo Foothill Athletic League recognition. For his career, he had 12 interceptions.

He also lettered in track and has a lifetime best 14.32 in the 110-meter high hurdles. He won the CIF North Coast Section high hurdles championship in 1988 and 1989. He finished fourth in the high hurdles at the 1990 state championship. He was editor of El Vaquero, the DeAnza school newspaper.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.47. He was born in Trinidad and Tobago and immigrated with his parents to the United States in 1979.

ROBERT LOYA

Offensive Guard

1992: Just a redshirt freshman who showed much promise last fall before hurting his neck, Loya enters the fall as the starting left offensive guard, although he'll be pushed for playing time by former high school teammate Clay Hattabaugh. Robert had arthroscopic surgery to remove right knee cartilage following 1992 spring practice, but he'll be ready to compete in the fall.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Robert has recovered from his neck injury and had a very impressive spring practice. He's a tough, hard-nosed, aggressive player who provides good leadership despite his youth. He's the likely starter at left guard, but even if he doesn't start, he'll play quite a bit."

1991: Loya appeared briefly in the Memphis State opener as a backup strong offensive guard, but then suffered a pinched nerve in his neck prior to the next game (Penn State) and was sidelined the rest of his 1991 freshman season. Because of the early injury, he was allowed to redshirt. He was 1 of just 6 first-year freshman to see action in 1991.

HIGH SCHOOL: Loya teamed with Hattabaugh to give Fontana (Calif.) High one of the finest offensive lines in the state in 1989 and 1990. Fontana gained 7,676 yards rushing his last 2 seasons, including a school-record 4,244 in 1989. He was named to 6 1990 All-America first teams -- USA Today All-USA, The National's Top 50, Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. Robert also made Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Super 75, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Fontana was 24-2 in Loya's final 2 years, including 14-0 during its 1989 state championship season.

As a 1989 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassman, All-CIF Division I first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team and All-Citrus Belt League. Both years, he made the team's line calls and had blocking grades of more than 80%.

PERSONAL: He bench presses 365 pounds and runs the 40 in 5.0. He's a business administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.56 GPA).

BRUCE LUIZZI

Safety-Out. Linebacker
Senior

1992: Luizzi is a multi-talented, veteran defensive player. The senior is listed as the No. 2 strong safety behind starter Stephon Pace, but Bruce can also play cornerback and he was even used at strongside outside linebacker last spring. Plus, he is USC's best special teams player.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Bruce had a very good performance in last spring's practice and will play a lot this fall, both on defense and on special teams. He's our top special teams player. He's an intelligent, instinctive player and is very versatile, as he can play a number of positions."

1991: The winner of USC's Special Teams Player of the Year award, Luizzi was also the No. 2 free safety (behind Mike Salmon) for the second half of his 1991 junior season. Overall, Bruce made 9 tackles and forced a fumble (on the opening kickoff of the second half against UCLA, which USC recovered) while appearing in all 11 games. He had 3 stops against Penn State.

1990: Luizzi finished his 1990 sophomore year as the No. 2 free safety behind Pace after spending the first part of 1990 as the backup to strong safety Marcus Hopkins. Bruce played often in extra defensive back situations, as well as on special teams. Overall, he had 3 tackles, a deflection and an interception (at Oregon State, which he returned 19 yards to set up a TD).

1989: Luizzi was 1 of USC's top kickoff returners as a redshirt freshman reserve cornerback in 1989. He had a team-high 7 runbacks for 115 yards (16.4 average). He had a 21-yard return at Washington State. He also played on other special teams, although he did not make a tackle. He suffered a mild left shoulder separation at Notre Dame and that sidelined him for the Stanford contest.

1988: Luizzi redshirted in 1988, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned All-CIF Northwestern Conference first team honors as a defensive back as a 1987 senior at Burroughs High in Burbank (Calif.). Luizzi intercepted 7 passes (19.8 yards per return), made 123 tackles, had 2 fumble recoveries, 2 sacks and 1 blocked kick in 1987. On offense as a wide receiver, he caught 8 passes, gained 209 yards on 34 carries and scored 5 touchdowns. Other 1987 honors for Luizzi included California Football All-State honorable mention, All-Foothill League first team, Daily News and L.A. Times All-Valley, and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. Luizzi helped Burroughs to a 12-2 record (best in the school's history) and the final game of the CIF playoffs in 1987. He also averaged 45 yards per kickoff return and returned 2 for TDs as a senior.

As a junior in 1986, Luizzi was named All-Foothill League first team. He had 3 interceptions (2 went for TDs), 103 tackles, 2 fumble recoveries and a blocked kick in 1986. Current Trojan Wes Bender also attended Burroughs.

A fine sprinter for Burrough's track team, Luizzi took second at the 1988 CIF 3-A meet in the 100 meters (his best time of the year was 10.6). In that CIF race, Bruce fell at the finish line and separated his shoulder. Luizzi finished fifth in the 1987 CIF 3-A 100 meters and posted season bests of 10.83 for the 100 and 21.96 for the 200.

PERSONAL: He has clocked 4.4 for 40 yards and bench pressed 365 pounds. He's communications major at USC. He likes to fish and play golf in his free time. His sports hero is ex-Trojan safety Ronnie Lott.

ELIC MAHONE

D. Tackle-Out.Linebacker
Junior

1992: Mahone, a junior, benefitted from a position switch in 1992 spring practice, as he was moved to defensive tackle-outside linebacker from tight end. He's now listed as the No. 2 defensive tackle behind starter David Webb, but Elic figures to see lots of action.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Elic made a quick transition from offense to defense. He's an aggressive, big-play type of defensive player and an excellent pass rusher. He has outstanding speed, quickness and size. He'll definitely help our defense in the fall. He's good enough to push David Webb for playing time."

1991: A reserve tight end as a 1991 sophomore, Mahone played in extra tight end situations and on special teams. He appeared in 8 of USC's 11 games (all but the Penn State, Arizona State and Arizona contests), but did not catch a pass.

1990: As a first-year freshman, Mahone began 1990 as a reserve tight end, but as injuries hit the tight end corps he steadily moved up the depth chart to where he saw plenty of action as the backup behind Bob Crane for the Notre Dame game and No. 3 behind Frank Griffin and Crane in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State. Elic made 1 catch in 1990, a 10-yarder at Arizona State, and also recorded 1 tackle on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Super Prep, Blue Chip, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger All-American, Mahone enjoyed an outstanding career at Muir High in Pasadena (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game as a defensive end in 1989 and collected 6 sacks on the year. Out of his tight end position in a Wishbone offense, he caught 13 passes for 275 (21.2 average) and 6 TDs. In 1 game, he caught 4 passes for more than 200 yards and made 2 sacks. His other senior honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team (as a tight end), All-CIF Division II first team (as a defensive lineman) and All-Pacific League. His 11-1-2 team was the 1989 CIF Division II co-champions.

Elic made 40 catches with 6 TDs as a junior in 1988. He also lettered 2 years in basketball, averaging 11 points as a senior. In track and field (he was All-Pacific League in 1990), he long jumped 20-0, high jumped 6-5 and ran a 10.9 100 meters. A fine student with a 3.29 GPA in high school, Mahone was a Scholastic All-American as a junior. He served as Muir's activities commissioner his senior year.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.4 and bench presses 360 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

TERRY McDANIELS

Defensive Guard-Tackle
Junior

1992: As the veteran on USC's defensive line (he started the past 2 years), the junior McDaniels enters the fall as the No. 2 defensive guard behind starter Shannon Jones, but expect Terry to push Jones for playing time. He has the potential to be a big-play performer up front.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Terry is an experienced, steady performer who plays best when we move him around on stunts and blitzes. He has excellent speed and quickness. He gets to the ball quickly and makes the play. He must hold his weight down to maintain his quickness."

1991: McDaniels started USC's first 7 games at defensive guard as a 1991 sophomore before giving way there to Matt Willig for the final 4 games (Terry did play in the last 4 games as the backup). Switched to guard in the pre-season from defensive tackle, McDaniels had 31 tackles overall, including a team-high 7 for losses of 24 yards (2 were sacks for minus 16 yards). He also recovered 2 fumbles (against Penn State and Notre Dame, both of which set up TDs). He had 4 stops against both Washington State and Washington. He broke his right hand on the last day of 1991 spring practice.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, McDaniels started all of 1990 at defensive tackle and did a commendable job. Terry had 27 tackles overall, including 8 for losses of 18 yards (4 were sacks), plus 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery (in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State), and 1 forced fumble (against Washington State). He had 6 tackles versus Notre Dame and 3 tackles for a loss against Washington State.

1989: McDaniels redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A prep All-American as a 1988 senior at Pasadena (Calif.) High, McDaniels was 1 of the top 2-way high school linemen in California. In 1 game in 1988, he scored a touchdown after recovering a fumble he forced on defense and then scored again on offense when he recovered his teammate's fumble in the end zone. His 1988 honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-American, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, California Football All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. McDaniels was also named L.A. Herald-Examiner Southern California Top 25 and pre-season Super 11 first team, L.A. Times San Gabriel Valley Player of the Year, Pasadena Star News All-Pasadena first team and All-Pacific League on both offense and defense.

A 3-year 2-way starter for the Bulldogs, McDaniels made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior team and All-Pacific League (on offense) in 1987 and was All-League as a sophomore in 1986.

A fine track athlete, McDaniels' specialty, surprisingly, was the hurdles where he had impressive prep bests of 14.7 in the 110-meter high hurdles and 40.1 in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles. A B student in high school, Terry was also involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was active on Pasadena High's anti-drug campaign.

PERSONAL: He can bench press 370 pounds and has run the 40 in 5.0. His sports heroes are Karl Mecklenburg and Lyle Alzado. Terry is a history major at USC.

TERRY McDANIELS ON: USC's defensive line: "I believed when they recruited us as freshmen that they picked the best defensive linemen in the nation and I still feel we're the best in the nation. We just have to come out and play like we are."

DWIGHT McFADDEN

Tailback
Freshman

1992: Because he has yet to play at USC, not many people know about McFadden, but if his showing in 1992 spring practice is any indication (he gained 100-plus yards in both spring scrimmages), expect exciting things from this redshirt freshman tailback. He enters the fall as the No. 2 tailback (with Deon Strother) and figures to see lots of action. He might also return kickoffs.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Dwight had just an outstanding spring and was our leading groundgainer in our spring scrimmages. He gave notice that he's ready to compete for signficant playing time at tailback. He has great overall speed, and is very quick and elusive."

1991: Although at times during the 1991 season, his first at USC, McFadden was listed as a key reserve tailback, he never made it into a game and therefore was redshirted.

PERSONAL: McFadden, who rushed for 1,938 yards and 26 touchdowns as a 1990 senior at Eisenhower High in Lawton, (Okla.), was named 1990 All-American first team by Super Prep, Tom Lemming and Max Emfinger. His additional honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Tom Lemming All-Midlands, and All-State. He also played defensive back. Eisenhower was named 1990 national champion by USA Today after going 14-0 and winning the state's 5-A title.

As a 1989 junior, he ran for 1,156 yards on 190 carries (6.1 average) with 18 touchdowns, and also had 5 interceptions. He also was a state qualifier in the high hurdles and intermediate hurdles.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5. He's a public administration major at USC.

WILLIE McGINEST

Outside Linebacker
6-6, 240
Junior

1992: Look for McGinest, a junior All-Pac-10 candidate who returns for his second year as the starter, to be a dominant force from his weakside outside linebacker spot. He's a prototype outside linebacker: big, strong, fast and athletic.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Willie is a key to our defense. He is a big-play type of player. He's a great athlete who is a fierce pass rusher and is tough against the run. He's a complete outside linebacker. I expect him to be a dominant player. He needs to stay healthy and be on the field often."

1991: The starting weakside outside linebacker as a sophomore in 1991, McGinest recorded 35 tackles, including 6 for losses of 16 yards (including 2 sacks for minus 7 yards). He also forced 3 fumbles (1 against Penn State and 2 at Washington State, both of which USC recovered, the second to set up a TD) and deflected 6 passes. He appeared in 9 games and started 8 times. He did all this despite being nagged almost all season with a lingering ankle injury. He sprained his left ankle against Penn State and missed the next 2 games (Arizona State and Oregon), then returned as a backup in the Washington State game before regaining his starting job. He had 10 tackles (2 for losses) at Arizona and 6 against Penn State.

1990: As just a first-year freshman, McGinest served as a backup outside linebacker in 1990, the first half of the season behind Kurt Barber on the strong side and then behind Craig Hartsuyker on the weak side. Willie even started 3 games: in the Syracuse opener on the strong side (Barber replaced him in the second series) and against Arizona State and California on the weak side (although Hartsuyker did play in those 2 games). Willie also played on special teams. Overall, McGinest had 27 tackles, including 6 for losses of 39 yards (5 were sacks), and 2 deflections. He made a tackle in 11 of USC's 13 games. He had 2 sacks at Ohio State. He was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week for blocking a punt at Ohio State (which Zuri Hector ran in for USC's opening score of the game).

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the top Southern California preps in 1989, McGinest earned Super Prep, Tom Lemming and Blue Chip All-American honors in 1989 as a linebacker at Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High. He posted 107 tackles, 18 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 4 deflections, 4 blocked kicks and an interception as a senior. He led Poly to a 9-2 record and the Moore League title. In 1 game, he collected 4 sacks and 3 quarterback hurries. He was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West (unanimous), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Coast first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team as a senior.

As a 1988 junior, McGinest was All-South Coast League

second team with 80 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 deflections. He was a 3-year football starter. He was also a highly-regarded basketballer, winning Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, All-CIF Southern Section, All-Long Beach and All-League honors after averaging 14 points a game in 1989-90.

PERSONAL: Willie runs the 40 in 4.5 and bench presses 365 pounds. He's a public administration major at USC.

WILLIE McGINEST ON: Chasing quarterbacks: "When I get close to a quarterback, I'm like a shark with blood in the water. I'm moving in for the kill. That's what makes the game fun: getting in and messing things up for the other team."

Being compared to ex-USC All-American outside linebacker Junior Seau: "When I first came to USC, the coaches were using Junior Seau as an example of the type of player I should strive to be like. They stressed that he was very aggressive in practice and he played hard on every down. They also told me that they saw the potential in me to be an All-American linebacker like he was. Junior is an excellent ballplayer and I don't mind being compared to him, but I want to make a name for myself."

Why he chose USC: "I chose USC because of the academics, the alumni and because (ex-Long Beach Poly High teammate and former USC All-American safety) Mark Carrier went there."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Ex-USC inside linebacker Matt Gee, Troy's 1991 captain: "You can just stand there and let Willie chase the quarterback to you. It's nice to kknow if your tired that Willie will bring them to you."

JOHNNY McWILLIAMS

Tight End
Freshman

1992: McWilliams, a redshirt freshman, was moved to tight end from flanker in 1992 spring drills. He did well enough to be in a battle with Tyler Cashman and Steve Beckley for the No. 3 job.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Johnny is an excellent athlete. We really saw improvement when we moved him to tight end last spring. He's in the hunt for the No. 3 spot."

1991: McWilliams redshirted as a flanker in 1991, his first year at USC. He sprained his right knee in pre-season drills and was out of action during the early part of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: An outstanding athlete, McWilliams was a quarterback, wide receiver, running back and punter as a 1990 senior at Pomona (Calif.) High. As a quarterback, he threw for 1,200 yards and 11 touchdowns. As a receiver, he caught 8 passes for 260 yards (32.5 average). As a running back, he rushed for 2 touchdowns. And he averaged 41 yards per punt. He was named a 1990 Super Prep All-Far West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 pick. He also starred in basketball (his team won the CIF 3-A title), averaging 27 points and 15 rebounds to make the 1991 All-CIF Division III first team. He was on the 1990 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoops first team. He lettered in baseball as well.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.4.

JOHN MICHELS

D. Tackle-Out.Linebacker
Freshman

1992: Michels, a redshirt freshman with loads of potential, is the No. 3 defensive tackle behind starter David Webb and backup Elic Mahone. He should be recovered from last season's shoulder surgery.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "John has a great future. Once he gets totally healthy, he could be a factor in providing quality depth on the defensive line. "

1991: Michels redshirted as a defensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC. After the season, he had surgery to repair a dislocating left shoulder and was held out of 1992 spring practice.

PERSONAL: Michels was on the 1990 Super Prep All-American first team after collecting 90 tackles in 13 games at La Jolla (Calif.) High. He also posted 13 sacks, 8 pass deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries. As a result, he was also named Blue Chip All-American second team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, All-Western League and Western League Defensive Player of the Year. He was a key figure in La Jolla's 10-2-1 season that resulted in the Western League co-championship and a CIF semifinal appearance.

John played 3 years of varsity basketball and track (hurdles, high jump, discus) at La Jolla as well. A fine student, he was named a National Football Foundation All-Academic.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.9 and bench presses 320 pounds. He's a business administration major at USC with a B average (3.20 GPA).

JUNIOR MOI

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 230
Junior

1992: Moi, a talented junior who should be recovered from last year's post-season elbow surgery, enters the fall as the No. 3 weakside outside linebacker (behind starter Willie McGinest and backup Darren Gallaway). But expect him to get a good amount of playing time both on defense and on special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Although Junior missed last spring's practice recovering from his elbow surgery, with his experience he should see lots of action as a backup outside lineback and on many special teams. He has excellent speed and quickness, runs and tackles well, and uses his hands effectively. He gets to the ball and makes the play."

1991: Moi spent most of his 1991 sophomore year as the No. 2 strongside outside linebacker behind Kurt Barber and then Lamont Hollinquest (Junior also was available as a backup at the weakside outside linebacker spot). He also played on special teams. Moi saw limited action in 7 of USC's 11 games (all but Arizona State, Oregon, Washington State and Notre Dame), notching 5 tackles and recovering a fumble (on the opening kickoff of the second half against UCLA). He dislocated his left elbow against Penn State and missed the next 2 games (Arizona State and Oregon). He had 2 stops against both Washington and UCLA. After the season, he had surgery on his elbow and missed 1992 spring practice.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Moi was a backup strongside outside linebacker in 1990. His only action came on special teams at Washington (he didn't make a tackle).

1989: Moi redshirted in 1989, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Moi was an All-CIF San Diego Section first team selection in 1988 as a senior linebacker for state-champion Rancho Buena Vista High in Vista (Calif.). Junior made 64 tackles, 10 sacks, 5 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988 for the Longhorn defense which was instrumental in 13-0 Rancho Buena Vista's CIF San Diego Section title and designation as the state champs. Moi's other 1988 honors included Vista Press-Courier North County Defensive Co-Player of the Year, L.A. Times All-County first team, Avocado League Defensive Player of the Year and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100. A 2-way starter in 1988, Moi caught 6 passes for 111 yards (18.5 average) and scored 2 touchdowns.

As a junior in 1987, Moi had 26 tackles, 3 sacks, 1 forced fumble and had 3 receptions for 24 yards. A versatile athlete, he also played basketball and baseball at Rancho Buena Vista.

PERSONAL: He is called Junior because his real first name, Vaelaa, is the same as his father. Former USC All-American Junior Seau is his cousin. Moi has run 4.9 in the 40. His sports hero is Dominique Wilkins. Junior is a public administration major at USC.

MIKE MOONEY

Fullback
6-1, 235
Senior

1992: Mooney, a senior who has battled foot injuries throughout his career, appears healthy now and is listed as the No. 2 fullback behind starter Wes Bender. He'll also play on special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Mike had a great spring practice and established himself as the backup fullback. He's a tough, hard-nosed player, a real hustler. His forte is blocking. He should be a real contributor for us."

1991: After re-injuring his right foot and big toe in practice prior to USC's third game (Arizona State), Mooney had surgery and missed the rest of his 1991 junior season. He did not play in USC's first 2 games as a reserve fullback. He missed 1991 spring drills while recovering from 1990 foot tendon surgery.

1990: As a sophomore reserve fullback in 1990, Mooney saw his only action in 1990 on special teams in the Penn State and Washington games. After that, he began experiencing pain in his left foot and had surgery on the tendon prior to the Oregon State game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He missed the last half of 1990 spring practice with a reoccurence of a stress fracture in his left foot.

1988: Mooney redshirted in 1988 in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Despite missing 5 games in 1987 due to a knee injury, Mooney earned Rio Hondo League Offensive Player of the Year honors as a senior fullback at Temple City (Calif.) High. He gained 750 yards on 125 carries (6.0 average) and scored 10 touchdowns during his abbreviated season in 1987. In 1 game, he rushed for 205 yards and 3 TDs. Mooney was also named All-State, Super Prep All-American and All-San Gabriel Valley second team.

He amassed an impressive 1,575 yards on 242 carries (6.5 average) and 22 TDs in 1986 while leading Temple City to a 13-1 record and second place in the CIF Northwestern Conference. In a playoff game in 1986, Mooney ran for 210 yards, including a scoring jaunt of 62 yards. Mooney's junior honors included All-CIF Northwestern Conference first team, All-Rio Hondo League first team and All-San Gabriel Valley first team.

He gained 308 yards on 55 carries as a sophomore in 1985, earning All-League second team honors and All-San Gabriel Valley honorable mention. Temple City's short yardage specialist as a soph, Mike scored 10 times.

A versatile athlete, Mooney was also a standout in basketball, wrestling and baseball. Mike was a star in the classroom, too, carrying a 3.5 GPA (out of 4.0) and earning a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete award. He played the lead in Temple City High's production of "South Pacific" and won the Bank of America award for musicianship.

PERSONAL: He lists his hobbies as singing, acting and camping. He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.80 GPA). His sports heroes are NFLers Roger Craig and Tom Rathman because "both have exceptional work habits and run very hard." Mike's brother, Mark, was a part-time starting quarterback for 3 years at Army (1986-88). His great uncle was ex-Trojan Homer Griffith (1931-33), MVP of the 1933 Rose Bowl.

JOHNNIE MORTON

Split End
Junior

1992: The acrobatic, velcro-handed Morton, a junior All-Pac-10 candidate who is USC's top receiver, returns for his third year as the starting split end.

CAREER: In his career, Morton has made 64 catches for 925 yards, good for 21st on USC's all-time chart.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Johnnie was our best receiver in 1991 and, if he improves upon that, he'll be one of the top receivers around. He had a great spring practice and looks like he's ready for an all-star season. He's an outstanding receiver with great athletic ability. He makes the big catch and the big play. He's very mobile, has super hands, and runs well with the ball after he catches it."

1991: Morton was USC's leading receiver as the starting split end in his 1991 sophomore season with a team-high 49 catches for 662 yards (13.5 average). That put him sixth on USC's season pass catching list. He had a career-high 9 receptions (for 77 yards) versus Stanford, 8 both at California (for a career-best 135 yards) and versus Washington (83 yards), and 5 each against Memphis State (62 yards) and Penn State (67 yards). He had a 14-game pass catching streak dating back to 1990 snapped at Arizona. He did not start the California game (Joel Scott did), but Johnnie played in the game. Morton also returned 4 kickoffs for 59 yards (14.8 average). He was also the backup holder on placekicks behind Mike Salmon, but was never called on to hold. For all this, he was named All-Pac-10 honorable mention and Football News Almost All-American. He missed most of 1991 spring practice with a slight fracture and strained tendon in the big toe of his right foot.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Morton started 5 of the last 6 games at split end in 1990 (Arizona State, California, UCLA, Notre Dame, and the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State). Before that, he was an often-used backup to Larry Wallace and Scott the rest of the time. Morton made 15 catches for 263 yards (17.5 average) and 3 TDs. He etched his name into Trojan lore when he caught 2 dramatic TD passes from Todd Marinovich late in USC's 45-42 victory over UCLA, the first a 21-yarder where he had to outjump a Bruin defender with 3:09 to play to give USC a 38-35 lead and then, after UCLA recaptured the lead, a game-winning 23-yard diving grab in the corner of the end zone with 16 seconds remaining. Johnnie had 4 catches for 70 yards and the pair of scores at UCLA, plus 3 catches for 111 yards (with a 77-yard TD, tied for the longest reception in the Pac-10 in 1990) against California, 3 catches for 36 yards versus Michigan State, and 3 grabs for 35 yards versus Penn State. He also returned 5 kickoffs for 100 yards (20.0 average).

1989: Morton redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Morton was an exciting pass receiver/return specialist as a 1988 senior at South Torrance (Calif.) High. He caught 60 passes for 951 yards (15.9 average) and 9 touchdowns in 1988. He also rushed for 2 TDs and had 5 scores on returns that year. Morton's 1988 honors included All-CIF Division VII first team, California Football All-State honorable mention, Super Prep All-American, Ocean League MVP, L.A. Times All-South Bay first team, Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribue Western 100, and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest. One of Johnnie's kickoff returns went for 103 yards (a school record).

He had 46 receptions for 857 yards (18.6 average) and 10 touchdowns as a junior in 1987. Morton made All-Bay League first team, L.A. Times All-South Bay second team and Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team in 1987. He played varsity as a sophomore in 1986 and was a reserve defensive back.

Morton also starred in track in high school and posted sprint bests of 10.8 in the 100 meters and 22.3 in the 200 meters. An outstanding student, Johnnie had a B average in high school and made the California Football Scholar team in 1988.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.36. He's a communications major at USC. He would like to try his hand at acting and modeling. His sports hero is ex-Trojan receiver Lynn Swann "because he adjusted his body so well to any kind of throw and also because he is a good role model." However, until he got to Troy, Morton didn't know that Swann attended USC (all he knew was that Swann played for the Pittsburgh Steelers)! Johnnie went to a Japanese elementary school for 3 years (his mother is Japanese American) and used to speak some conversational Japanese ("but now I've forgotten most of it").

JOHNNIE MORTON ON: What kind of receiver he is: "I want to go deep, I want to go short, across the middle, to the corner, down the sidelines, everywhere. I don't want to be just a certain type of receiver. I want to be a threat everywhere."

His famous 1990 TD catches at UCLA: "It really hasn't sunk in yet. I think it will later on when I'm done with football. When you're still playing, it's hard to put it in perspective...It was the biggest moment I've ever had in football. But it happened so early in my career. I want to do a lot of things in my career. One of my goals in 1991 was to make people forget about 1990. I don't like to live off the past glories too much. I'll go back and remember those times when I'm out of college...I don't like talking about it that much. There's so much emphasis on my catches. Mine just happened to come at the right moment...People mention that game to me all of the time. I get tired of it because I think that's all people are going to remember me for. I don't want to go down being remembered for that one game only. I have a lot I want to accomplish in my career. I think people will understand. I just expect a lot from myself."

The 1991 season: "It was tough because we (the receivers) knew our ability and were hoping for a big year. As the season went along, we were calling more pass plays. We were more optimistic and I think that will carry over into 1992."

Meeting Lynn Swann, his idol: "He talked to me about his philosophy of receiving. He told me that wherever the ball is, his attitude is that it belongs to the receiver and not the defender. He was the one who inspired me to be a receiver."

Why he chose USC: "I didn't really want to come to USC originally because I used to like UCLA and Washington. Then, when I was a senior in high school, one of my good friends led me here. And I found a good balance of athletics and academics, so I ended up a Trojan."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "We always knew Johnnie was capable of making big plays.

He has excellent hands and is tough, not afraid to go in traffic. He works hard and watches plenty of game film. He wants to be a great receiver."

USC quarterback Reggie Perry: "Johnnie has those great hands and he has a knack for the ball. It's great to have that clutch receiver out there that you know will come up with the catch no matter where the ball is."

GIDION MURRELL

Inside Linebacker
Junior

1992: One of the mainstays in the middle of the USC defense, Murrell returns for his second year as a starter, this year as the strongside inside linebacker for Matt Gee after starting on the weak side in 1991. The performance of the quick and tough junior All-Pac-10 candidate could be a key in USC's defensive success. After 1992 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder to remove cartilage (he'll be ready to go in the fall).

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Gidion was slowed last year by injuries and never really got untracked. If he can stay healthy, he should have a banner year in 1992. He really had an outstanding spring practice. He can be a dominating player and will be one of our keys on defense. He has great quickness, movement and big-play ability. He has a chance to be a great player."

1991: Murrell started 7 games at the weakside inside linebacker position and did a solid job despite being hampered most of the year with injuries. A knee sprain suffered in the Memphis State opener slowed him in the following game against Penn State (he played, but didn't start; Brian Williams did) and then he sprained his right ankle in practice prior to the Oregon game and sat out that contest and Washington State. He played as Williams' backup in the following game (Stanford), then Gidion returned to the starting lineup for the Notre Dame game and the rest of the year. Despite all this, Murrell made 62 tackles (fourth on the team) overall, including 6 for losses of 28 yards (with 2 sacks). He also recovered a fumble (against Washington), forced another (against Penn State, which USC recovered to set up a TD), and deflected 2 passes. He had 9 stops against UCLA (a team high) and Notre Dame, and 8 against Arizona State and Arizona.

1990: In 1990 spring drills, Murrell was switched from tight end to inside linebacker and the move paid off in a big way. As just a redshirt freshman, he spent the first half of 1990 as the No. 2 strongside inside linebacker behind All-American Scott Ross and saw limited action. But when injuries hit the inside linebacker corps, Gidion took on a greater role, to the point where he started the last 3 regular season games (Oregon State, UCLA and Notre Dame) at the weakside spot for an injured Brian Tuliau and Gee (Tuliau returned to start the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State). And Murrell was outstanding, getting a team-best 8 tackles at Oregon State, 5 at UCLA, and a game-high 10 versus Notre Dame (to share USC's Co-Defensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame award with Ross). He also had a team-high 6 stops against Michigan State and 5 stops at Washington. Murrell also played on special teams. Overall, Murrell had 40 tackles (including 2 for losses) and 2 deflections, plus a fumble recovery and a forced fumble (both occurred on the opening kickoff against California, when he first stripped the ball from returner Russell White and then recovered it, setting up a USC TD).

1989: Murrell redshirted in 1989, his first season at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Murrell earned All-CIF Division IV first team honors while playing tight end and linebacker as a senior in 1988 at Palm Springs (Calif.) High. He caught 33 passes for 521 yards (15.8 average) and 4 touchdowns, helping the Indians to a 9-2 record. He also had 130 tackles, 1 interception, 3 fumble recoveries, 9 forced fumbles, 13 pass deflections and 2 blocked kicks on defense in 1988. Murrell's other 1988 honors included California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Times All-Inland Empire first team, District MVP, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest.

He had 17 receptions for 337 yards (19.8 average) and 4 TDs as a junior in 1987, along with 64 tackles, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery, 3 forced fumbles and 4 pass deflections at linebacker. He earned All-Ivy League honors in 1987.

A versatile athlete, Murrell was an All-League first teamer in basketball as a senior and also competed in track.

PERSONAL: His nickname is "Batman," because of the way his shoulder pads ride high on his shoulders, giving him the look of the Caped Crusader, and the way he swoops in to make tackles, a la the crimefighting Batman. Actually, Murrell is the second Trojan linebacker to carry the Batman moniker; 3-time All-American Richard Wood (1972-74) also had that nickname. Gidion has run the 40 in 4.6. He enjoys listening to music in his leisure time. His sports hero is Bo Jackson.

JASON OLIVER

Cornerback
Junior

1992: Now in his third year starting, Oliver--a junior All-Pac-10 candidate from his right cornerback spot--is USC's best coverage defender. He makes a ton of key plays in the secondary. He missed part of 1992 spring practice because of an ankle sprain, but finished up strong.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jason has had 2 great years as the starter and should improve upon that in 1992. He's our best cover man and makes a lot of big plays. He's become a dominant player in the secondary. He has good speed, excellent coverage ability, and has gotten tougher and tougher against the run. He done all this under some trying circumstances. Sometimes a person's true character doesn't come out until he's faced with a lot of adversity. Jason is a very strong man. He's mature beyond his years."

1991: Oliver--who started all of his 1991 sophomore season at run support cornerback--had a team-high 5 interceptions which he returned 11 yards (2.2 average), tied for third in the Pac-10 at 0.5 (tied for 22nd nationally). He also had 46 tackles (including a career-high and team-best 9 at California and 7 against UCLA) and a team-best 11 deflections (including 4 versus Stanford and 3 versus Stanford). He made Football News Sophomore All-American second team, All-Pac-10 honorable mention, and Football News Almost All-American. He picked off 3 passes against Penn State, 1 shy of the USC game record and the first time that happened since Cleveland Colter had 3 thefts against Stanford in 1987. Jason was named Sports Illustrated's national Defensive Player of the Week and the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week for his performance. His pick in USC's 34-27 win at Washington State came at the USC 3-yard line with 17 seconds to play as the Cougars were driving (the ball was snapped from the USC 34). He also had an interception in the fourth quarter against Washington to help shut out the then-No. 2 Huskies in the second half.

1990: As just a first-year freshman, Oliver started 5 of the last 7 games in 1990 (Arizona, Oregon State, UCLA, Notre Dame and the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State) at the run support cornerback spot after spending the first part of the season as a reserve at that position. He played exceptionally well...and did so despite some adversity. He made 18 tackles, deflected 3 passes, forced a fumble (at Stanford, as the receiver was about to score a TD, giving USC possession of the ball), and intercepted 3 passes (at Stanford in the end zone, at Oregon State, which he returned 66 yards for a TD, and the following week at UCLA, which he ran back 34 yards for another score). The last Trojan to return 2 thefts for TDs in a season was Joey Browner in 1982. The 66-yard return at Oregon State was the longest run with an interception by a Trojan since Colter went 94 yards for a TD at California in 1987.

That Oliver did all this as a true freshman was amazing, but the fact that he had to endure tragedy during the 1990 season made it even more remarkable. Both of his parents passed away within a 26-day span in mid-season, first his mother, Juanda, and then his father, Marvin, 2 days before Jason received his first starting assignment (Arizona). Oliver started against the Wildcats and made a season-high 4 tackles, then missed the following week's practice and the subsequent Arizona State game to attend his father's funeral. Jason was left with a 9-year-old brother, Clinton.

HIGH SCHOOL: An All-CIF Central Section honoree in 1989, Oliver led Bakersfield (Calif.) High to a 26-0 record (13-0 each season) and 2 CIF championships as a 2-year starter. The Drillers were 45-1 in Oliver's 4 years in high school. Jason played both sides of the line in 1989, as a wide receiver and cornerback. Offensively in 1989, he made 20 receptions for 318 yards (15.9 average) and 8 TDs. He also returned 2 punts and a kickoff for touchdowns while accounting for 983 all-purpose yards. Defensively, he amassed 56 tackles and 5 interceptions. His other 1989 honors included Blue Chip All-American third team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, and California Football All-State second team. In the 1989 CIF championship game, he had 3 interceptions off of Robert Dougherty of Mt. Whitney High, the state's completion percentage record holder.

As a 1988 junior, he had 63 tackles, 6 interceptions and 2 TDs on defense, and 10 receptions for 290 yards and 3 TDs on offense. Oliver was also part of a CIF championship with the Drillers' basketball team (1989), which won 2 successive South Yosemite League titles. He won 1989 All-League honors for his basketball play.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5. He's a business administration major at USC.

JASON OLIVER ON: Dealing with the tragic death of both parents: "After a game, you're excited. It's like with trophies or something. If you win something, you go tell your parents. Sometimes I feel real empty. But when I was on the field, I got away from reality. I was enjoying the game. When the game was over, I had to deal with reality again. It doesn't hurt quite as much now. Every now and then, you have a memory that reminds you of something you used to do. I don't think about it near as much as before. Usually, it's at family times of year, like Thanksgiving or Christmas. If it's during the day, I get busy and try to do something else. If it's at night, I take the easy way out and go to sleep. The first question that comes to mind is 'Why?' That's when I start to get busy or go to sleep."

His traumatic freshman year: "It's kind of hard to believe. If everything hasn't happened, what else can happen?...There is always going to be a chip on my shoulder because I don't understand what happened. It makes me sad, but it makes me mad at the same time...I'm just a kid. But these days I don't feel much like a kid. I've never had so much responsibility dropped on my shoulders all at once."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC quarterback Reggie Perry: "When he gets on the field, he has such focus. We all draw power from him."

STEPHON PACE

Safety
6-0, 190
Senior

1992: USC's veteran in the secondary, the senior Pace will be starting for the third year and is an All-Pac-10 candidate at strong safety.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Stephon is one of the leaders of our secondary and our top all-around defensive back. He's one of our best tacklers and big-play types. He's a quick, instinctive player, an attacker, and is an excellent cover defender. In this past spring's practice, he was one of our most improved players and provided great leadership. It looks like he's ready for an outstanding year."

1991: Pace was USC's leader in the secondary as a 1991 junior as he started all season at strong safety and was second on the team in tackles with 73, including 5 for losses of 31 yards (with 3 sacks). He also intercepted a pass (against Washington, which he returned 4 yards), broke up 5 passes, recovered 2 fumbles (against Arizona, which set up a TD, and Arizona State), and forced another fumble (against Penn State). He had 10 stops against Penn State, 9 against both Notre Dame and UCLA (a team high), and 8 at Oregon. He was named All-Pac-10 honorable mention and USC's Defensive Player of the Game versus Notre Dame. He was moved to strong safety from free safety in 1991 spring practice.

1990: Pace started all of his 1990 sophomore year in the secondary, at the pass coverage halfback spot in the opener against Syracuse and then at free safety the rest of the season. As USC's leader in the secondary, he was named All-Pac-10 honorable mention and Football News Sophomore All-American third team. Stephon had 76 tackles (third on the team), including 1 for a loss, a team-high 20 deflections, a fumble recovery (versus Notre Dame), and 4 interceptions (tied for the team lead with Mike Salmon). Two of his picks came against Penn State, both in the second half, while 1 was at UCLA on the second play of the game, which he returned 27 yards for a TD just 52 seconds into the game (the quickest score in the history of the Trojan-Bruin series), and 1 was in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State to set up a field goal). He led USC in tackles against Syracuse (10), Penn State (8) and UCLA (7), and also had 8 stops at Washington and 7 against Stanford and Notre Dame. He broke up 3 passes in the Penn State, Washington State and Arizona games. For his performance against the Bruins, Pace was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week and USC's Defensive Player of the Game versus UCLA. He also played on special teams.

1989: Pace backed up Dwayne Garner at the pass coverage halfback spot in 1989 as just a redshirt freshman. Stephon played often there and on special teams. He had 21 tackles (including 4 each against California and Oregon State) in 1989, plus an interception (in the end zone against Utah State) and 2 deflections. Stephon actually began the season as the No. 2 free safety behind All-American Mark Carrier, but was moved to the No. 2 halfback spot when backup Marvin Pollard was injured versus Washington.

1988: Pace redshirted in 1988 in his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was 1 of the top defensive backs in the state in 1987 while at perennial football power Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). He had 101 tackles and 6 interceptions in 1987. An All-CIF Big Five Conference first team pick as a senior, he was also named Angelus League Defensive Player of the Year, California Football All-State honorable mention, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-American first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, L.A. Herald-Examiner Southern California Top 25 and pre-season Super 11 honorable mention, and L.A. Times All-San Gabriel Valley. Offensively as a receiver, Pace caught 15 passes for 190 yards and 4 touchdowns, and rushed for 136 yards on 15 carries and 1 TD in 1987. Pace's 12 career interceptions tied Bishop Amat's school record. The Lancers posted a 33-3 record during Stephon's 3 years at the school (11-1 in 1985, 1986 and 1987). Current Trojans Scott Fields and Jess Holguin also prepped at Bishop Amat.

Pace led Bishop Amat in receiving in 1986 with 17 catches for 236 yards (13.9 average) and 2 TDs and had 45 tackles and 6 interceptions on defense. He earned All-Angelus League, L.A. Times All-San Gabriel Valley and San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Valley first team honors. Pace caught 21 passes for 258 yards and 3 TDs as a sophomore in 1985.

A basketball player during his 4 years at Bishop Amat, Pace was an All-League performer as a sophomore and junior and was named to California Football's 1988 Prep Grid-Hoops second team.

PERSONAL: Stephon has clocked 4.5 in the 40. He likes to spend his free time watching movies, playing basketball and being with his family. His sports heroes are Michael Jordan and Larry Bird. Pace was born in South Bend, Ind., home of USC's intersectional rival, Notre Dame. His cousin is ex-Notre Dame fullback Anthony Johnson. He's a public administration major at USC.

STEPHON PACE ON: His 1992 goal: "My main concern is to get the defense playing better. My recognition will come when we win more games and stop other people from scoring points."

Playing safety: "I've played all the secondary positions since I've been at USC. I learned certain things from (ex-USC All-American safety) Mark Carrier, like where people are, where they should be and what defense you should be in in certain formations...At safety, you're basically one of the people who control the secondary, making sure everyone is in the right checks when the offenses give you different formations. The offense does not come out there to make you look good. You have to adjust, you have to be thinking. I enjoy it because it's a challenge."

His South Bend roots: "I lived in South Bend until I was 6 months old and much of my family still lives in that area. They've always rooted for Notre Dame. My mother really wanted me to go to Notre Dame, probably because it would give her the chance to go home and visit her family more often."

His coaching aspirations: "I want to coach in order to show kids that they can make something of themselves. I want the challenge of helping them get better. I want to teach them that winning isn't the most important thing. Rather, it's how you compete."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC secondary coach Bob Cope: "Stephon is a very gifted athlete who has good strength, speed and quickness. He has the ability to play both safety, which requires one to be physical, and cornerback, which demands man-to-man overage. He is intelligent, possesses good natural instincts and has a real feel for the game of football. I think he could be an excellent coach some day."

REGGIE PERRY

Quarterback
Junior

1992: Perry, a junior who as the 1991 starting quarterback got better and better each week, enters the fall battling with Rob Johnson for the No. 1 signalcaller job. Whether he starts or not, look for Reggie to take plenty of snaps.

CAREER: With 131 career completions (all in 1991), Perry is 16th on USC's all-time list.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Reggie improved dramatically as last season went on. He played his best football in our big games and that showed us a lot about his outstanding skills and ability. He's in a battle now to hold onto his starting job, but no matter what, he'll play a lot. He has a very strong arm and throws a very good deep ball, but he is also a great threat as a runner. Plus, he has super leadership qualities and knows the game. He's got great athletic ability and excellent quickness."

1991: Although he came into his 1991 sophomore season with only 3 career snaps (and no pass attmepts) under his belt and had to replace Todd Marinovich, USC's No. 2 career passer and an NFL first round draft pick, Perry started 10 of USC's 11 games at quarterback (he did not play at Arizona) and did a commendable job. He completed 131-of-255 aerials (51.4%) for 1,574 yards and 3 TDs, but threw 12 interceptions. The 131 completions put him 10th on USC's single season passing chart. Against Stanford, he had his best day as a Trojan, going 22-of-33 for 201 yards, including 19-of-27 for 189 yards in the second half (12-of-15 for 122 yards in the fourth quarter alone). He upped his career pass yardage best the next week at Notre Dame, getting 222 yards on 20-of-35 passing (including 14-of-20 for 179 yards in the second half), despite playing most of the second half with a torn tendon in the little finger of his right (throwing) hand. Against UCLA, he threw for 2 TDs (13 yards to Curtis Conway and 6 yards to Yonnie Jackson) and 209 yards on 13-of-28 passing. He completed 14-of-29 passes for 196 yards versus Washington. His other scoring toss of 1991 came against Penn State (7 yards to Jackson), when he was 10-of-20 for 123 yards. In his other starts, Perry was 13-of-23 for 155 yards against Memphis State, 13-of-28 for 136 yards against Arizona State, 6-of-12 for 64 yards at Oregon, 7-of-21 for 104 yards at Washington State, and 13-of-16 for 165 yards at California. He was particularly effective passing in the second half of games, hitting 55.6% of his aerials (70-of-126) for 915 yards and just 3 picks. In his last 5 games of 1991 (Stanford, Notre Dame, California, Washington, UCLA), his second-half passing line read: 48-of-76 (63.2%) for 632 yards, 1 TD and no interceptions. Reggie proved to be equally skilled at passing and running, in the mold of ex-Trojan Heisman Trophy runnerup Rodney Peete. Perry ran for 254 yards (with 5 TDs on 105 carries, a 2.4 average) in 1991, the most rushing yards by a Trojan quarterback since Jimmy Jones had 267 yards in 1971. (Troy Winslow is USC's most prolific rushing signalcaller with 319 yards in 1965; before 1953, Trojan quarterbacks were primarily runners operating out of the single wing.) Perry had 60 rushing yards in the Memphis State opener, the most by a Trojan quarterback since Shane Foley had 60 at Arizona State in 1990. In that Memphis State game, Perry ran for a 20-yard TD, the longest scoring run by a Trojan quarterback since Peete went 32 yards against Illinois in 1986. Reggie added 53 rushing yards at Washington State, 52 versus Penn State and 51 at Notre Dame. And his 35-yard run versus Penn State was the longest by a USC quarterback since Vince Evans went 36 yards against UCLA in 1976. Reggie's TDs came on short runs against Penn State, Stanford, California and UCLA. Perry's 1,828 yards of total offense ranked 16th on USC's single season list and he was fifth in the Pac-10 in total offense at 182.8.

1990: As a redshirt freshman, Perry spent 1990 as the No. 3 quarterback (with Pat O'Hara) behind starter Marinovich and backup Foley. Reggie appeared in just 1 game in 1990, late in the Oregon State contest, where he ran the ball once for 7 yards. He missed the last half of 1990 spring practice after dislocating his left elbow in a scrimmage.

1989: Although Perry redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, he served as the No. 3 quarterback behind Marinovich and Foley (he never was called into action).

HIGH SCHOOL: Perry was one of the most highly recruited quarterbacks in Texas after passing for 2,100 yards and running for another 1,140 yards in his 3-year prep career at Denison (Tex.) High. Despite missing 5 games as a 1988 senior with a broken foot, his honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Super All-State second team, Dallas Morning News Texas Top 30, Fort Worth Star Telegram Texas Top 100 and was the top-rated quarterback in the Texas Blue Chip Prospects pre-season list. He helped Denison to a 12-2 record.

As a junior in 1987, he completed 65-of-132 passes (49.2%) for 912 yards and 3 touchdowns and rushed for another 715 yards with 5 TDs on 126 carries (5.7 average). He made USA Today All-USA honorable mention, All-State second team and District MVP as a junior. He also starred in basketball, baseball and track for the Yellowjackets.

An outstanding student, Reggie carried a 3.6 grade point average in high school and was an Academic All-American in 1987. He served as president of the National Honor Society chapter at Denison.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.5. His sports hero is Walter Payton. He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.81 GPA). He enjoys listening to classical music.

REGGIE PERRY ON: His 1991 performance: "I made all the right checks and the right decisions and I had guys open many times, but I just didn't execute enough. I have to work on touch and making quicker decisions--releasing the ball before the receiver breaks, anticipating the breaks instead of waiting for guys to get wide open and throwing it late...There's no trick to being the quarterback at USC. What you need is poise, on and off the field. You're going to run into a lot of ups and downs, but you can't let that distract you. I have to face it if I want to be a great leader. I have to take full responsibility for what my team does."

His style: "I want to be known as a versatile quarterback, one who can roll out, run, or pass in the pocket. I want the defense to have to worry about everything I do. I'm a big, physical quarterback and I like to stick my nose in the middle of things. I've worked hard at being a leader by being confident, mature and upbeat. I want my teammates to respect me, both on and off the field. I think I have the talent. I like having eyes on me and being given the opportunity to show what I can do.

But my main motto is I love to have fun. I always try to keep an upbeat attitude. I smile so much that if I'm not smiling, the team will ask me what's wrong."

Being compared to Rodney Peete: "That's not a bad comparison. I like Rodney's style. I like the way he played. He was aggressive. If he had to run the ball, he ran it, and if he had to throw it, he threw it. He was not afraid to go for the big play. If I could be half as good as him, I'd be okay...When I first got to USC, so many people told me I reminded them of Rodney. We have the same initials, the same uniform number and we're about the same size."

Children: "As a quarterback, there's always someone watching everything you do, especially little kids. I want to be a good example for them. Whenever I go home to Texas, I spend 75 percent of my time with the kids in the neighborhood. In the mornings, my doorbell will ring and there will be several kids at the door wanting to know if I can come out to play or if they can come in and watch TV with me. There's no better feeling than looking in a kid's face and seeing that you've made them happy. I spend time with these kids to show them that I'm not any different than they are."

His musical taste: "I love listening to classical music, especially anything by Mozart or Beethoven. I also learned to love opera after I started watching it on public TV. I don't understand the words, but the TV versions have the translations on the screen so I'm able to follow along. I've always wanted to see an opera in person or go to see musical plays in the theatre. That's one of the reasons why I left Denison and came to USC, to experience new and different things in the world."

His diet: "I'm a junk food nut. I eat anything that's bad for me. The greasier, the better. I'd rather go out and eat a hamburger and fries than eat a meal with vegetables."

His Texas drawl: "In practice in 1990, when I went into the huddle and called a play, everybody would laugh. They'd ask me to repeat it just so they could hear me talk again. Then they'd laugh some more."

KRIS POLLACK

Offensive Guard-Tackle
Sophomore

1992: A pleasant surprise in 1991, Pollack returns as a starting offensive guard as just a sophomore. Versatile enough to play either of the guard spots and even at tackle, Kris will start at right guard in 1992.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Kris did a great job last year and followed that up with an outstanding showing in last spring's drills. He's a steadfast starter for us. He's a big, strong, tough and smart offensive lineman capable of playing several positions. He'll be a key to our offensive line's performance."

1991: Pollack started--and was impressive in--9 games at offensive guard as a 1991 redshirt freshman: USC's first 4 at quick guard and the Trojans' final 5 at strong guard. He sprained his right knee at Oregon and was sidelined the following game (at Washington State), but returned for the next game (Stanford) to play some as Joel Crisman's backup at quick guard. When starting strong guard Derrick Deese suffered an elbow injury against Stanford, Pollack assumed Deese's spot in the lineup for the remaining games.

1990: Pollack did not play in 1990 as a first-year freshman. He spent the first part of the year as a reserve, but when injuries struck some of USC's backup offensive linemen, Kris moved up and served as the backup quick offensive guard behind Deese.

HIGH SCHOOL: During his 1989 senior season at Clovis West High in Fresno (Calif.), Pollack was named Blue Chip All-American third team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-Northern California, All-Central Section first team, and All-North Yosemite League (and NYL Outstanding Lineman). He was a 2-way tackle for the Golden Eagles.

Kris made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclassmen and All-North Yosemite League teams as a 1988 junior. Clovis was 15-5-1 during Kris' junior and senior seasons. At his size, Kris posed an interesting figure on the Clovis West high golf team, where he won All-League honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Pollack is a businessadministration major at USC.

KYLE RAMSAY

Offensive Guard-Center
Freshman

1992: Just a redshirt freshman, Ramsay is the No. 2 right offensive guard behind Kris Pollack. He also could play some at center or tackle. The coaches like his future chances.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Kyle is an excellent young offensive line prospect. He had a solid showing this past spring. He's a versatile, strong, smart player with an outstanding future."

1991: Ramsay redshirted as a center in 1991, his first year at USC. But the end of the season, he had advanced to the No. 2 center behind Craig Gibson (but Kyle never saw any action). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left ankle.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1990 Max Emfinger All-American first team selection from McKay High in Salem (Ore.), Ramsay was a key figure in McKay's offensive scheme. In one game as a senior, the McKay offense ran 12 consecutive rushing plays behind Ramsay to score the game-winning touchdown. While at McKay, Ramsay was also named USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and Northwest Nugget and All-State.

He also played basketball at McKay. An excellent student (he maintained a 4.0 GPA in high school), he received an Academic Letter Award, was a member of the National Honor Society and was named Who's Who for outstanding academic achievement.

PERSONAL: His older brother, Kian, played on the Trojan offensive line from 1988-91 (a pinched neck nerve ended his career). Kyle is a mechanical engineering major at USC.

DONOVAN ROY

Offensive Tackle
Freshman

1992: Roy is a redshirt freshman reserve offensive tackle. He sat out 1992 spring practice to concentrate on his academics.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Donovan is a young, developing player who provides depth to our offensive line. He has a chance to contribute in the future."

1991: Roy redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A member of the 1990 CIF Division X championship team at Montclair Prep in Van Nuys (Calif.), Roy was the main reason Mountie backs rushed for over 6,500 yards his last 2 seasons there. As a 1990 2-way senior lineman, Roy had a 90% blocking grade on offense and made 56 tackles (35 solo), 6 sacks and 5 fumble recoveries on defense. He was named to the 1990 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools (2-A Division) first team, All-CIF Division X first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Daily News All-Valley first team and All-Alpha League first team. Montclair Prep was 22-4 in Roy's final 2 seasons.

Donovan also played basketball and volleyball at Montclair Prep. Current Trojan Michael Jones also attended Montclair Prep.

MIKE SALMON

Safety
6-1, 200
Junior

1992: Salmon, a talented junior free safety who is always around the ball, returns for his second season starting in the secondary. He'll also serve as the No. 2 holder on all placekicks (behind Corby Smith).

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Mike is a very talented and versatile player. He's a big-play type, an excellent tackler, a good pass defender, and is very aggressive. He got better and better each game last year and made a number of big plays. We need for him to have a big year in 1992."

1991: Salmon started all of his 1991 sophomore season at free safety and recorded 72 tackles (third on the team), 2 interceptions which he returned 4 yards (at Washington State and Notre Dame), 5 pass deflections, a fumble recovery (at Washington State, which set up a TD), and 2 forced fumbles (against Penn State, which set up a TD, and at Oregon, which set up a field goal). He led USC in tackles against Penn State (11) and California (9), and also had 9 stops versus Memphis State and 8 at Arizona. He also was the holder on all placekicks and performed the job flawlessly. In 1991 spring practice, Mike was moved to free safety from run support cornerback.

1990: Salmon, as just a redshirt freshman, benefitted from a position switch in the spring of 1990 which saw him go from split end to free safety to, in the 1990 pre-season, run support cornerback. Although he spent the final 4 games of 1990 backing up Jason Oliver at cornerback, Mike started 7 mid-season contests (Penn State, Washington, Ohio State, Washington State, Stanford, Arizona State, and California). He also played on many special teams. Overall, he had 45 tackles (including 1 for a loss), 5 deflections, a forced fumble (against Penn State, which set up a field goal), and 4 interceptions (tied with Pace for tops at USC and tied for ninth in the Pac-10 at 0.3) which he returned 27 yards. Two of his picks came in his hometown at Arizona State (1 near the goal line on a great over-the-shoulder grab and 1 to set up a field goal), while 1 was against Washington State on another over-the-shoulder catch and the other was a diving clutch in the end zone at Oregon State. He had 6 tackles at both Ohio State and Oregon State. He had a tackle in 12 of USC's 13 games. He was named a Football News Freshman All-American second teamer.

1989: Salmon redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC, as a split end.

BASEBALL: Salmon was a reserve outfielder for the USC baseball team in the springs of 1992, 1991 and 1990 before quitting the team to concentrate on spring football drills. In 1992, he appeared briefly in 2 games, but didn't get an at-bat. In 1991, he didn't get a hit in 2 at-bats, but scored once. In 1990, he appeared in 5 games (starting once), getting no hits in 6 at-bats, but scoring 3 runs, getting 1 RBI, and stealing 2 bases in 2 attempts.

HIGH SCHOOL: The 1988 Arizona Big School Player of the Year, Salmon was a record-setting, do-it-all athlete while at Greenway High in Phoenix (Ariz). He played receiver, running back, defensive back, return specialist, placekicker and punter while at Greenway. As a senior in 1988, he caught 31 passes for 485 yards (15.6 average), rushed for 574 yards on 67 carries (8.6 average) and scored 13 touchdowns on offense. He also hit 8-of-10 field goals, including a 49-yarder (he once kicked a 67-yarder in practice), and converted 35 PATs as a placekicker, and averaged 40.1 yards per punt. Including a TD on an interception return, Salmon scored 137 points in 1988. He also averaged 29.3 yards per kickoff return and 12.0 per punt return in 1988. He even passed for 187 yards and 2 scores on halfback options as a senior. Defensively, Salmon had 108 tackles, 10 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 4 forced fumbles in 1988. His other 1988 football honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, and All-Skyline Division at 3 positions. In 2 games as a senior, Salmon passed for 2 TDs, caught a 31-yard scoring pass, kicked 2 field goals (including the 47-yarder), intercepted 2 passes and kicked 4 PATs--all in the first half. His 18 career interceptions are an Arizona prep record.

He earned All-Skyline Division honors on offense and defense as a junior in 1987, despite missing some games because of a broken ankle (he did play 5 games with it).

Salmon was also a 2-year starter in basketball (he averaged 10 points) and an All-Skyline Division pick in baseball (he hit .405 as a junior in 1988 and was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies). He was the USA Today and Arizona Republic state Athlete of the Year.

PERSONAL: Salmon has run the 40 in 4.5. He likes to water ski and play tennis in his spare time. His sports hero is Chuck Cecil. His brother, Tim, set the career home run record at Grand Canyon University and was a third round major league draft pick in 1989 by the California Angels (one publication lists him as the Angels' top minor league prospect). Mike's cousin is actress Holly Hunter. Mike is a communications major at USC.

MIKE SALMON ON: Playing on the scout team in 1989: "I'll never forget those days. We were going to play Ohio State, so I was impersonating tailback Carlos Snow. The coaches are riled up, they want us to beat Ohio State, so I'm getting chased down and hit by Junior Seau, Dan Owens, Tim Ryan. I mean, I can remember getting gang tackled by the first four rounds of the NFL draft. It was crazy. At the time I kept telling myself, 'It's not going to be a fun year.' I kept telling myself that I'd be glad that I did it. I was really discouraged all that year. I began not liking football. I see guys going through it now and I make it a point to bring up their spirits, because it's the worst."

A boyhood collecting hobby: "I used to collect all sorts of Arizona State football gear. My older brother, Tim, and I used to go to all the Sun Devil games and stand above the tunnel. When the players would run by, we would yell at them and ask them to give us something. We collected chin straps, wrist bands, elbow pads, water cups, decals, anything that said 'Sun Devil Football' on it."

Athletes' stereotypes: "I'd like to shed the image of the dumb jock. We're not just the 'mean, lean fighting machine.' Myself, well, a lot of people might think it's weird that I read about world news or sit up late at night watching CNN News."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC secondary coach Bob Cope: "Mike has excellent speed and he has a good knack for playing the ball in the air. He's a very aggressive and confident player."

JOEL SCOTT

Split End
Senior

1992: Scott, a sure-handed senior, is the No. 2 split end (along with Ryan Lenderman) behind starter Johnnie Morton. He should play a lot.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Joel is a physical receiver--big, strong and fast--with great hands and the ability to make the clutch catch. He looked good in last spring's practice and took his game up another step."

1991: Scott played often as a 1991 junior while backing up Morton at split end (he even started at California, but Morton did play) and caught 6 passes for 76 yards (12.7 average) overall. After 1991 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove bone spurs from his left ankle.

1990: Slowed in the 1990 pre-season and early in the 1990 campaign by a sprained left ankle suffered while playing basketball in the summer of 1990, Scott spent most of his sophomore season as the often-used No. 3 split end behind Larry Wallace and Morton (Joel did start the Syracuse opener). Overall, Scott had 9 catches for 83 yards (9.2 average) and 1 TD (a 12-yarder at Stanford). He caught a pass in 8 of USC's 13 games.

1989: Scott served as the often-used backup split end behind John Jackson in 1989 as a redshirt freshman. Joel had 18 grabs for 226 yards (12.6 average) with a TD in 1989. He had 3 receptions each against Washington State (for 49 yards, all during USC's late game-winning 91-yard drive), Stanford (34), Oregon State (48, including a 17-yard score) and Michigan in the Rose Bowl (19). He made a catch in 9 of USC's 12 games (including the final 6), with a long grab of 24 yards versus Washington. The Sporting News named him on its Redshirt Freshman Honor Roll.

1988: Scott redshirted in 1988 in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the top players in Texas in 1987 as a senior, Scott played wide receiver and tight end at Willowridge High in Houston, and earned All-State 5-A first team honors. He caught 48 passes for 968 yards (20.2 average) and scored 9 touchdowns in 1987. Also a kicker, Scott booted 30 extra points and 2 field goals (including a 42-yarder), scoring a total of 96 points in 1987. His other senior honors included USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Houston Post and Houston Chronicle All-Greater Houston first team, 25 5-A All-District first team, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, Houston Offensive Player of the Year finalist, and Super Prep All-Southwest. He was rated the 19th best player in Texas. He led Willowridge to the state semi-finals in 1987.

As a junior in 1986, Scott had 37 receptions for 632 yards and 4 TDs, and kicked 35 PATs and 2 field goals. He led the 25 5-A District in receiving in 1986 and earned All-District second team honors. He played for Willowridge as a reserve during his sophomore year in 1985. Joel also played baseball in high school.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.36. Away from football, he enjoys music. His sports hero is ex-UCLA tight end Charles Arbuckle, who also prepped at Willowridge. Joel is a public administration major at USC. He was born in Germany.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "Joel has outstanding hands. He's a natural catcher. If he drops a pass, it's only because of a lack of concentration."

JASON SEHORN

Flanker-Split End
6-3, 205
Junior

1992: Sehorn, a junior flanker-split end, comes to USC this fall with a decorated junior college portfolio. Not only is he a talented receiver, but he's a dangerous return specialist.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Sehorn's 1991 honors included Max Emfinger J.C. All-American, Blue Chip J.C. All-American, Super Prep JUCO 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and All-Golden Valley League first team (and Offensive MVP) while at Shasta Community College in Redding (Calif.). As a 1991 sophomore, he had 2,404 all-purpose yards (a national-record 267.1 average per game), the best-ever by a California J.C. non-back: 56 catches for 1,020 yards (18.2 average per catch, 113.3 per game) with 14 TDs, 36 carries for 196 yards (5.4 average) and 2 TDs, and 59 returns for 1,188 yards and 1 TD. He owns the state career J.C. record for all-purpose yards and average all-purpose yards per game (4,308, 239.3). He had a national-record 506 all-purpose yards with 4 TDs in one game and returned a kickoff 100 yards for a TD in another.

In 1990, he made J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team and All-Golden Valley League first team with 59 catches for 1,033 yards (17.5 average) and 17 TDs, all school records. He had 1,904 all-purpose yards. He also rushed for 119 yards on 19 carries (6.2 average). In one game, he had 5 TDs and 189 yards on only 5 catches. He was coached at Shasta by ex-USC assistant Ron Ponciano.

He also was on Shasta's basketball (averaging 12.0 points) and track (a school-record 48-1 in the triple jump) teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: He didn't play football at Mount Shasta (Calif.) High, where he starred in basketball (averaging [illegible] points), track (48-0 triple jump) and baseball. He signed a baseball contract with the Chicago Cubs in 1988 and played 2 seasons (1988 and 1989) in their minor league system.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.47.

KEITH SISCEL

Offensive Tackle
6-4, 290
Junior

1992: Healthy for the first time in his USC career (he has been slowed by shoulder injuries), the junior Siscel is the No. 2 right offensive tackle behind starter Tony Boselli.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Keith has been fighting shoulder problems, but he got himself healthy for last spring's drills and did well. He is a fine prospect who gives us solid backup help."

1991: Siscel, a reserve offensive tackle, missed all of his 1991 sophomore season recuperating from 1991 summer surgery to repair a dislocating right shoulder, his second such operation at USC. He missed 1991 spring practice because of the injury.

1990: As a redshirt freshman offensive tackle, Siscel missed all of the 1990 season while hampered with a dislocating right shoulder which required surgery. He missed 1990 spring practice with that injury.

1988: Siscel actually signed with USC in 1988, but did not qualify academically, so he elected to attend Solano Community College in Suisun (Calif.) that year as a part-time student. He didn't play any football there. He improved his grades and entered USC in the fall of 1989 as a first-year freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL: Siscel was 1 of the top offensive linemen in Northern California in 1987 as a senior at Vacaville (Calif.) High. He was named All-Northern California, California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-Superior California and All-Montecello Empire League in 1987.

A 3-year starter, he consistently received blocking grades of 80-90% during his prep career. Keith earned All-Superior California and All-League first team honors as a junior in 1986 and was second team All-League as a sophomore in 1985. Vacaville was 24-9-1 in the 3 years Siscel was in the lineup and advanced to the Sac-Joaquin section finals in 1985.

Siscel also participated in track in high school, winning the Montecello Empire League title in the shot put as a senior. He played basketball as a freshman and sophomore.

PERSONAL: He likes to golf in his free time. His sports hero is Howie Long. Keith is a public administration major at USC.

ERROL SMALL

Outside Linebacker
6-3, 220
Sophomore

1992: Prior to 1992 spring practice, which he missed while recovering from 1991 knee surgery, Small was moved from safety to outside linebacker, where he is a reserve on the strong side. He might also play on special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "We don't know yet what Errol can do at outside linebacker, because the knee injury kept him out of spring drills. But we feel he has the potential to be a contributor there and on special teams."

1991: Small, a reserve safety, tore ligaments in his right knee in pre-season drills and had surgery which sidelined him all of his 1991 redshirt freshman campaign.

1990: Small redshirted in 1990, his first year at USC. He dislocated his right shoulder in practice prior to the John Hancock Bowl and had surgery, which kept him out of most of 1991 spring drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: A 1989 Blue Chip All-American second team selection, Small enjoyed a star-studded career as a safety and running back at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). Offensively in 1989, he rushed for 1,567 yards (7.7 average), collecting 21 touchdowns, while on defense he posted 67 tackles with 7 interceptions. He also averaged 12.9 yards on 10 punt returns. Further 1989 honors included Super Prep All-Far West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Blue Chip All-Western Region, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-CIF Division VII first team (as a running back), Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team (as a defensive back) and San Fernando Valley League MVP. In his senior year, Small registered touchdown runs of 89 (twice) 60, 57 and 35 yards. Against Alemany High, he rushed for 213 yards on 14 carries (15.2 average), scored 3 touchdowns (on runs of 89, 57 and 7 yards), snared 2 interceptions and forced 2 fumbles. He also played fullback and outside linebacker. Current Trojan Mike Curiel also prepped at Notre Dame.

As a junior in 1988, Small rushed for 557 yards on 64 carries (8.7 average) and recorded 10 TDs. He led Notre Dame to a 19-4 record and 2 San Fernando Valley League titles (1988 and 1989).

He lettered in basketball through his junior year.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5. Errol is a sociology major at USC.

CORBY SMITH

Quarterback
Freshman

1992: Smith, a redshirt freshman, is listed as the No. 3 quarterback (along with Kyle Wachholtz) behind Rob Johnson and Reggie Perry. Corby will also be the holder on all placekicks and he might even play on other special teams.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Corby is a promising young quarterback and a very good athlete. He has improved his arm strength. He is an intelligent player and provides great leadership."

1991: Smith redshirted as a quarterback in 1991, his first year at Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Smith led Loyola High in Los Angeles (Calif.) to a 12-2 record, the No. 7 state ranking and the 1990 CIF Division I championship as a senior. He completed 88-of-151 (58.3%) passes in 1990 for 1,428 yards and 7 TDs. He collected another 8 TDs rushing. He won All-Angelus League honors for his play.

As a 1989 junior strong safety, Corby made 55 tackles with 2 interceptions, 4 fumble recoveries and a pair of sacks. He earned All-Del Rey League honors in 1989. As a part-time starting quarterback during his 1988 sophomore season, he completed 10-of-13 passes for 130 yards and 3 TDs. Loyola was 35-5 during Smith's 3-year career and won 2 Del Rey League titles (1988 and 1989).

Smith was also a 3-year starting catcher for Loyola's baseball team. Current Trojans Matt Butkus and John Stonehouse also prepped at Loyola.

PERSONAL: His father, Larry, is USC's head football coach. Corby was born in Ann Arbor, Mich.

DeNAIL SPARKS

Defensive Tackle
6-3, 265
Senior

1992: Sparks, a senior, is a reserve defensive tackle.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "DeNail adds depth to the defensive line corps. He's a quiet, calming influence on the team. Consistency is the key for him to get playing time."

1991: A reserve defensive lineman as a 1991 junior, Sparks' only action of the year was a brief appearance at Oregon (he did not make a tackle). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder.

1990: As a sophomore, Sparks was switched from strong offensive guard to defensive tackle in 1990 pre-season drills. He did not see any action in 1990. He missed part of 1990 spring practice with torn cartilage in his left knee.

1989: Sparks did not see any action in 1989 as a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard while hampered with torn cartilage in his right knee. He was moved in the spring of 1989 from the defensive line to offensive guard.

1988: DeNail redshirted in 1988, his first year at USC, while recovering from arthroscopic knee surgery to remove torn cartilage suffered in the pre-season.

HIGH SCHOOL: An All-CIF Eastern Conference first team pick as a senior in 1987 at Claremont (Calif.) High, Sparks was 1 of the top prep defensive linemen in Southern California. He had 77 tackles (5 for losses), 6 sacks, 1 fumble recovery, 2 pass deflections and a blocked extra point in 1987. His other 1987 honors included Baseline League Defensive MVP, Pomona Valley MVP, California Football All-State second team, Super Prep All-Far West, and San Gabriel Valley Tribune and L.A. Times All-Valley.

He had 28 tackles and 5 sacks as a junior in 1986 and 14 tackles and 3 sacks as a soph. Sparks' first year of organized football was as a sophomore in 1985 when Claremont won the CIF Eastern Conference title. He also threw the shot for Claremont's track team.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.8. DeNail spends his spare time fishing and "learning and studying the word of God." His sports hero is Los Angeles Laker A.C. Green because "he's a true champion for Christ on and off the basketball court." Sparks is majoring in sociology at USC.

DEON STROTHER

Tailback
6-0, 200
Junior

1992: USC's most experienced tailback, Strother--an elusive, hard-running, shifty junior with great balance who started most of 1991 and led the team in rushing--enters the fall No. 2 on the depth chart (along with Dwight McFadden) behind starter Estrus Crayton. But count on seeing him on the field a lot.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Deon could be the heart of our offense, whether or not he starts. He's a super competitor and leader. He's a big-play back with super balance and running sense, and is hard to tackle. He does it all."

1991: Strother was a 5-game starter (Penn State, Notre Dame, California, Washington, and Arizona) at tailback as a 1991 sophomore and ended up with a team-best 614 rushing yards and 7 TDs on 129 carries (4.8 average). As the starter at California--near his Oakland home--he had a career-high 153 yards and 2 TDs on 17 carries, including a 92-yard TD run (the fourth longest run in USC history and just 2 yards short of the school record). That 92-yard jaunt, the longest run in the Pac-10 in 1991, won him USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award. He notched the first 100-yard game of his career when he ran for a game-high 122 yards with a TD on 22 carries at Washington State, all in the second half while filling in for an injured Mazio Royster. Deon also threw a tricky 28-yard TD pass in that game to Larry Wallace. Going into the Washington State game, Strother had just 151 rushing yards in 1991 after collecting only 111 yards in 1990. He also started the Penn State game (his first career start) when Royster was sidelined with a knee injury and Strother ran for 67 yards and a TD on 20 attempts. Deon also led Troy in rushing versus Stanford, getting 45 yards and 2 fourth-quarter TDs on 11 carries, and--while starting--both at Notre Dame, with 83 yards (including a 29-yard TD) on 18 carries, and versus Washington, with 40 yards on 14 attempts. He appeared in all 11 of USC's games, serving as the No. 2 tailback when not starting. For all this, he was named a Football News Almost All-American.

1990: As a first-year freshman, Strother saw his first action of 1990 at Arizona State (game 8) and was Royster's backup at tailback after that. Deon played in 3 games, at Arizona State (49 yards on 7 second-half carries, including a 14-yard run on his first carry as a Trojan), at Oregon State (59 yards on 12 carries, including a 1-yard TD), and in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State (3 yards on 1 carry, plus 2 yards on 1 reception). Overall, he had 111 yards on 20 carries (5.6 average) and 1 TD, plus 1 catch for 2 yards (2.0 average).

HIGH SCHOOL: Strother was named a 1989 Tom Lemming All-American after rushing for 1,345 yards and 19 TDs on 195 carries (6.7 average) in 1989 at Skyline High in Oakland (Calif.). The 1989 San Francisco Examiner Bay Area Player of the Year, he also had 12 catches for 274 yards (22.8 average) and 3 TDs. He scored 5 touchdowns in a game as a senior. Additional senior year honors included Blue Chip All-American third team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Max Emfinger All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Blue Chip All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, California Football All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State (Large Schools) first team, All-Northern California, All-Bay Area first team, East Bay Player of the Year, and Oakland Athletic League Player of the Year. A 3-year starter at tailback and linebacker, Strother had 110 tackles, 8 sacks and a blocked punt on defense in 1989.

As a junior in 1988, he rushed for 1,222 yards and 16 TDs on 160 carries (7.6 average), and caught 11 passes for 162 yards (14.7 average) and 4 scores. He also notched 9 sacks on defense. In 1 game as a junior, Strother scored 3 TDs and posted 16 tackles (including 5 sacks).

A 3-time All-City performer, he rushed for 759 yards and 8 TDs (including 211 yards and 3 TDs in 1 game) and collected 56 tackles as a sophomore in 1987.

Strother also lettered 3 years in basketball and 1 year in track. An excellent student, Deon was named the 1989 Oakland Tribune Scholar Athlete of the Year and National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Northern California Scholar Athlete. He was the student body vice president at Skyline and was a member of the California Scholastic Federation.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.5. He's majoring in industrial engineering systems management at USC. He was born in Saginaw, Mich.

DEON STROTHER ON: Passing: "I got more pleasure out of throwing that touchdown pass (at Washington State in 1991) than any I've scored on the ground in my career. I have always wished for a chance to throw the football. I've always been fascinated by watching quarterbacks. I don't know how they are able to run around, avoid tackles, find the receiver and then hit the guy right on the chest with the ball. For the last couple of years, I used to work on my passing on my own. I would ask the quarterbacks how to hold the ball right. And I would practice my technique whenever I would thrown the ball back to the team manager after I'd run a play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Wayne Nunnely: "Deon does all the little things well, all the things that we have coached him to do. He always gives 100 percent effort. And he always has a positive, supportive attitude."

Former USC tailback Mazio Royster: "Another star was born (with Strother's performance in the 1991 Washington State game). Deon came into his own in that game."

TITUS TUIASOSOPO

Offensive Guard
6-1, 290
Senior

1992: An experienced senior, Tuiasosopo is the No. 3 left offensive guard (behind starter Robert Loya and backup Clay Hattabaugh). He missed 1992 spring practice while recovering from 1991 post-season knee surgery, but he should be okay in the fall.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Titus was much improved in 1991, but the key for him in 1992 is if he fully recovers from the knee surgery. He's a strong, tough, quick player who provides excellent leadership."

1991: As a junior, Tuiasosopo started the 1991 season opener against Memphis State at strong offensive guard for an injured Derrick Deese. When Deese returned for the next game (Penn State), Titus served as the backup there and at center behind Craig Gibson. He appeared in 6 games (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State, Oregon, Stanford, and California) in 1991 before suffering a torn right knee ligament at California which sidelined him the rest of the year (he had surgery after the season). In 1991 spring practice, he was switched from center to strong guard.

1990: Tuiasosopo spent his 1990 sophomore season as the often-used backup center, first behind David Apolskis and then Gibson. At Arizona State, Titus also saw a bit of action at quick offensive guard behind Deese. Following 1990 spring practice, Tuiasosopo had surgery to repair a dislocating right shoulder.

1989: The backup to Brad Leggett at center as just a redshirt freshman in 1989, Tuiasosopo benefitted from a position switch. In the spring of 1989, he was moved from nose guard to center and adjusted to the switch quite well. Titus saw limited action in 1989.

1988: Tuiasosopo redshirted in 1988, his first year at USC, while recovering from pre-season arthroscopic surgery to repair a slight fracture in his right knee.

HIGH SCHOOL: One of the most versatile prep players in Southern California in 1987, Tuiasosopo played defensive tackle, linebacker, offensive guard, fullback, and tight end for perennially tough Banning High in Wilmington (Calif.). Defensively, Titus made 94 tackles, 7 sacks, 1 interception and 2 fumble recoveries in 1987. On offense, he caught 31 passes for 575 yards (18.5 average), ran for 101 yards on 16 carries (6.3 average) and scored 4 touchdowns. Tuiasosopo even punted for Banning on occasion, averaging 42 yards per punt. Titus' 1987 honors included All-L.A. City first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Max Emfinger All-American third team, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, L.A. Times and Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team and the L.A. Herald-Examiner's pre-season Super 11 second team.

As a junior in 1986, primarily as a tight end, Titus caught 18 passes, scored 5 TDs and made 30 tackles. Banning's 1986 squad was 11-1 and ranked No. 1 in the nation before losing in the L.A. City finals to Carson. He was named All-L.A. City second team and All-Pacific League first team as a junior in 1986.

Playing as a sophomore for Banning's 1985 L.A. City champs, Tuiasosopo started 2 games (he made 29 tackles) and earned Rookie of the Year honors on his team. He had a personal best of 57-10 in the shot put and played baseball and basketball at Banning. A fine student, Titus carried a 3.3 grade point average (out of 4.0) in high school.

PERSONAL: His brother, Navy, played offensive line at Utah State and later with the Los Angeles Rams. His cousin, Manu, was a 3-time All-Conference defensive lineman at UCLA (1976-78) and went on to an NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers. Titus was born in Taputimu, American Samoa (his family moved back there in 1989) and he returns to his homeland each year to participate in the South Pacific Games. In his free time, Tuiasosopo likes to sing and play the piano (he has played in various bands). His sports hero is Reggie White. In May of 1990, he was married and his wife's name is Cheannie. He's a public administration major at USC.

JASON UHL

Defensive Guard
6-3, 265
Junior

1992: Although he's listed as the No. 3 defensive guard (behind starter Shannon Jones and backup Terry McDaniels), the junior Uhl should get some quality playing time in 1992. He's talented enough to start.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Jason is a much improved player now that he's bigger and stronger. He'll push for lots of playing time. He's one of our top pass rushers. He has super quickness and is a tough competitor."

1991: Uhl started 2 games (California and Washington) at nose guard for an injured Mike Hinz. The rest of the season, he was the often-used (especially in pass-rushing situations) backup there, at defensive guard (behind McDaniels and then Matt Willig), and on special teams. Overall in 1991 as a sophomore while appearing in all 11 of USC's games, he made 9 tackles (including 1 for a 2-yard loss). He had 3 stops each against Arizona State, California and Washington. But the highlight of his season was in the Oregon game, when he snagged one-handed a point-blank pass by Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil (Jason's former high school teammate) and ran the fourth-quarter interception 30 yards for a TD. Uhl also returned 2 short kickoffs (against Stanford and UCLA) 21 yards.

1990: As just a redshirt freshman, Uhl was the backup defensive guard behind Don Gibson and saw limited action in 1990. He appeared in 6 games (Syracuse, Ohio State, California, Oregon State, UCLA, Notre Dame), mostly in pass rushing situations. Jason had 5 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He missed part of 1990 spring drills with a hyperextended left elbow.

1989: Uhl redshirted in 1989, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Uhl was a standout defensive lineman as a senior in 1988 at Mater Dei High in Sana Ana (Calif.), despite playing most of the season with an injured shoulder. He had 50 tackles, 12 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, 4 pass deflections and 2 fumble recoveries in 1988. He made All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Super Prep All-Far West, L.A. Herald-Examiner All-Southern California, Top 25 and pre-season Super 11 honorable mention, L.A. Times All-Orange County first team, All-Big A Empire first team, Register All-Orange County, All-Angelus League first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100.

A 3-year starter, Uhl was an All-Angelus League second team pick as a junior in 1987.

A fine shot putter for Mater Dei's track team, Jason won the Angelus League shot title twice and place fourth in the CIF 3-A shot put as a junior. An outstanding student, Uhl was a B+ student in high school and was named to California Football's Scholar team.

PERSONAL: He has run the 40 in 4.8 and can bench press 365 pounds. His sports hero is Kevin Greene. Jason is a creative writing major at USC.

KYLE WACHHOLTZ

Quarterback
Freshman

1992: Wachholtz, a rifle-armed redshirt freshman in the mold of a prototype quarterback, is No. 3 at the position (along with Corby Smith) behind Rob Johnson and Reggie Perry. His future prospects look very encouraging.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Kyle is an excellent athlete with a very strong arm and a quick release. He really improved throughout this past spring's practice. With another season under his belt, he could challenge for the starting job."

1991: Wachholtz redshirted as a quarterback in 1991, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wachholtz completed 116-of-198 (58.6%) passes for 1,868 yards and 20 TDs as a senior at Norco High in Corona (Calif.) and was named 1990 Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Far West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-CIF Division V first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-County and Mountain View League Offensive MVP. He led Norco to a 12-2 record, the Mountain View League championship and an appearance in the CIF Division V championship game.

As a junior in 1989, Kyle completed 93-of-203 (45.8%) passes for 1,418 yards and 11 TDs and led Norco to a 12-1 record and the CIF Division V semifinals. He was 33-of-68 (48.5%) passing for 581 yards and 5 TDs as a 1988 sophomore. He also lettered 2 years in baseball (he made the All-Mountain View League team as a senior) and basketball (he was named All-County as a senior) at Norco.

LARRY WALLACE

Flanker
6-1, 180
Senior

1992: The speedy, shifty Wallace will likely serve as a backup at flanker (along with Travis Hannah) behind starter Curtis Conway. Larry, a senior, is good enough to start. He might also return punts.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "Larry really came on the last half of 1991. He has great speed, moves and athletic ability. He's a big-play receiver. He'll be on the field often, pushing for playing time."

1991: Wallace started USC's first 3 games of 1991 (Memphis State, Penn State, Arizona State) at flanker, then spent the rest of his junior year as the often-used backup there to Conway. Overall while appearing in all 11 games, Larry caught 5 passes for 161 yards (a team-high 32.2 average) with 2 TDs (a 28-yarder at Washington State from tailback Deon Strother and a 22-yarder at California from quarterback Rob Johnson). He had 2 catches for 64 yards against UCLA.

1990: Wallace started 7 mid-season games (Penn State, Washington, Ohio State, Washington State, Stanford, Arizona, Oregon State) at split end in 1990 as a sophomore and was the often-used backup in the other contests (behind Joel Scott versus Syracuse and behind Johnnie Morton against Arizona State, California, UCLA, Notre Dame and in the John Hancock Bowl against Michigan State). He had 20 catches (fourth on the team) for 274 yards (13.7 average). He also returned 2 punts for 5 yards (2.5 average). Larry had 5 catches for 75 yards against Syracuse and 3 each against Stanford (for 49 yards) and Washington State (for 22 yards). At Stanford, he made a near-unbelievable 27-yard catch along the sideline by outjumping the Cardinal defender and then stretching out over him. He caught a pass in 10 of USC's 13 games.

1989: Wallace made an impact in several areas in 1989 as a redshirt freshman. As the backup flanker behind Gary Wellman, Larry caught 8 passes for 148 yards (18.5 average), but 3 of those catches were for TDs. He had 2 TDs (5 and 29 yards) against Utah State (the first score was his first-ever catch as a Trojan) and a 12-yard TD to open the game's scoring at Notre Dame. His long catch of the year was a 37-yarder versus Utah State. Wallace was also USC's top punt returner (he assumed the job in the fifth game of the year, Washington), with 26 runbacks for 183 yards (7.0 average). He ranked fifth in the Pac-10 in punt returns at 7.0. His longest return of the year was 29 yards at Arizona to set up a field goal. And he returned 3 kickoffs for 48 yards (16.0 average). Larry also gained 2 yards on a reverse against Ohio State. The Sporting News named him on its Redshirt Freshman Honor Roll.

1988: Wallace redshirted in 1988, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: A multi-purpose player as a running back and defensive back as a senior at Lincoln High in Stockton (Calif.), Wallace was named San Joaquin Athletic Association Back of the Year in 1987. He set school records for all-purpose yards (2,425) and rushing yards (1,302 on 181 carries, a 7.1 average) while scoring 16 touchdowns during his senior campaign. His other honors in 1987 included Stockton Player of the Year, Stockton Record co-Player of the Year and Stockton Hall of Fame Back of the Year. He also caught 12 passes for 195 yards and had 40 tackles, 6 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 TDs defensively in 1987. In 1 game, he had 159 rushing and 43 receiving yards, returned a punt 84 yards for a TD and intercepted a pass to preserve a 1-point victory. In another, he had 177 yards on 17 carries and scored 4 times, including a 61-yard run with a recovered fumble. He averaged 26 yards per kickoff return and 21 yards on punt returns in 1987 while leading the Trojans to an 8-4 record and the second round of the Sac-Joaquin Section playoffs.

As a junior in 1986, Wallace played wide receiver and caught 8 passes for 130 yards and gained 65 yards on reverses. He also played basketball at Lincoln during his prep career.

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.39. He lists his hobbies as playing basketball and sleeping. Michael Jordan and Eric Dickerson are his sports idols. Larry is a public administration major at USC.

DAVID WEBB

D.Tackle-Out. Linebacker
Senior

1992: One of the leaders of USC's defense, Webb returns for his second year in the starting lineup. Although the senior All-Pac-10 candidate plays on the defensive line, his position is more like that of an outside linebacker, where he takes advantage of his speed and quickness.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "David made a lot of big plays in 1991, to the point of being a dominating player. Now, we expect more from him. He'll lead the way for us defensively. He's an aggressive, intense, fast and quick big-play performer, a run-and-hit type who plays a rugged style."

1991: Webb came into his 1991 junior season as the backup at both outside linebacker spots, but was switched in pre-season drills to defensive tackle and started 8 games there (all but the Penn State, Arizona State and Washington State contests). He also started the Arizona State game at weakside outside linebacker for an injured Willie McGinest. Despite being undersized for a defensive tackle, David's speed and quickness made him extremely effective, as he made 50 tackles (fifth on the team in 1991) while appearing in all 11 games, including 5 for losses of 17 yards (2 were sacks). He also deflected 2 passes and forced a fumble (at Arizona). For all this, Webb was named All-Pac-10 second team and USC Co-Defensive Player of the Year (with Matt Gee). He had a team-high 11 stops against Arizona State and 8 at Notre Dame.

1990: Webb was the No. 3 weakside outside linebacker behind starter Craig Hartsuyker and backup McGinest as a sophomore in 1990, but he saw lots of playing time in extra linebacker situations and as a key player on special teams. Overall, he had 16 tackles, including 2 for losses. David made 6 stops at Washington. He recorded a tackle in 8 of USC's 13 games. He was moved to outside linebacker in the spring of 1990 from inside linebacker.

1989: Webb was a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker in 1989. He saw some action at that spot, but he made more of an impact on special teams. Webb had 13 tackles (including 4 versus Utah State) and forced a fumble (at Notre Dame on the opening kickoff, which set up a USC TD). He was switched in the spring of 1989 from outside linebacker to the inside.

1988: Webb redshirted in 1988 in his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Webb earned All-CIF Southern Conference first team honors as a linebacker in 1987 at Irvine (Calif.) High. He made 109 tackles (75 unassisted), 1 interception, 3 blocked kicks, 1 fumble recovery and 1 caused fumble that season (he also played middle guard). His other 1987 honors included L.A. Times and The Register All-Orange County first teams, The Sporting News Top 100 Recruits honorable mention, California Football All-State honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, L.A. Herald-Examiner Southern California Top 25, All-South Coast League first team and Irvine High MVP.

As a junior in 1986, Webb had 62 tackles, 4 sacks, 2 caused fumbles and 3 blocked kicks while playing middle guard. He was named All-South Coast League first team in 1986. Also a fine track athlete, David holds the Irvine record in the shot put.

PERSONAL: Webb can run the 40 in 4.6 and has bench pressed 350 pounds. His hobbies are surfing and motorcycle riding. His sports hero is Arnold Schwarzenegger. He is a public administration major at USC. His father, Charlie, played minor league baseball.

DAVID WEBB ON: Switching to defensive tackle: "I proved I could play against some of the bigger guys. I guess the coaches thought I did okay, so they asked me if I wanted to play defensive tackle. I figured I'd get a chance to start, so I said, 'Sure, let me have it.' When I finally got out there, I just played all out. I play as hard as I can every play...Playing on the line is a little easier than linebacker because I don't have to worry about the passing part of the game, just the guy in front of me. I don't have to worry about so many people, so it lets me concentrate on one job and get good at that."

Being an undersized defensive lineman: "You can be 280 pounds and bench press the world, but you've got to catch the guy to tackle him. With me, the coaches are giving up something to get something...I'm a very intense person. When I play against someone, they're just another person to me. I know how hard I work. Size does matter to some degree, but so does quickness and leverage and desire."

BRIAN WILLIAMS

Inside Linebacker
Sophomore

1992: An experienced sophomore with super speed, Williams will take over as the weakside inside linebacker for Gidion Murrell (who moved over to the strong side for Matt Gee). Brian has a very promising future.

LARRY SMITH SAYS: "With his speed, Brian gives our defense another dimension in the middle. He really opened our eyes last year with his fine play as just a true freshman. He has great instincts and quickness. He's an excellent blitzer and a big-play type of inside linebacker. He has added some weight from last year and that should help."

1991: Williams started more games (4) than any of the 5 first-year freshmen who saw action in 1991. As a weakside inside linebacker, he started against Penn State, Oregon, Washington State and Stanford, and served as Murrell's backup the rest of the year (he did not appear in the Memphis State opener). Brian made 34 tackles in 1991, including 3 for 14 yards in losses (with a sack), and had 2 pass deflections. He had a team-high 11 tackles at Oregon and 7 against UCLA. He also played on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL: Williams led Bishop Dunne High in Dallas (Tex.) to a perfect 12-0 record and the 1990 state 3-A championship as both a linebacker and running back. As a senior that year, he collected 143 tackles, 6 sacks, 17 forced fumbles, 6 fumble recoveries (4 for TDs) and 4 interceptions. His 1990 honors included Tom Lemming All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American second team, Super Prep All-Southwest, Tom Lemming All-Southwest, Dallas Times Herald Top 25, Houston Chronicle Nifty 50, Houston Post Top 100, All-District II and League Defensive Player of the Year. As a running back in the 1990 state semifinal game, he gained 144 yards rushing on just 7 carries and scored 2 TDs. In the state championship game, he rushed for 126 yards on 7 carries and had 2 touchdowns (1 rushing and another receiving).

As a 1989 junior, he posted 117 tackles, 5 interceptions and 4 fumble recoveries. He was named All-State, All-District and was League Defensive Player of the Year as the Falcons went 8-3-1 and finished the season as the state 3-A runnerup. As a 1988 sophomore, Brian was a member of Bishop Dunne's state championship 3-A team that posted an 8-3 record.

An excellent athlete, he also won district honors for his play in basketball (forward), baseball (first base) and track (hurdles, long jump and relays).

PERSONAL: He runs the 40 in 4.5.

1991 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 -- September 2, Los Angeles, California
Memphis State 24, USC 10
Att: 55,637

Memphis State.....	3	0	7	14	--	24
USC.....	0	10	0	0	--	10

A young USC team, ranked 15th by UPI and 16th by AP, was shocked in its 1991 season opener by unranked, 17-point-underdog Memphis State, 24-10, before 55,637 fans on a hot Labor Day in the Coliseum.

It was a bittersweet loss for USC coach Larry Smith, who was coaching against long-time friend Chuck Stobart. The pair coached together at Miami of Ohio, Michigan, Arizona and, in 1987 and 1988, Stobart was Smith's offensive coordinator at USC. Stobart's Tigers scored 21 unmatched second-half points for the victory.

USC dominated statistically--getting more total yards (284-276), plays (74-63), first downs (20-14) and possession time (32:33-27:27)--but it could never capitalize.

The Trojans trailed 3-0 before sophomore quarterback Reggie Perry, making his first USC start with only 3 career snaps under his belt, scored on a 20-yard run early in the second quarter. It was the longest scoring run by a Trojan signalcaller since Rodney Peete went 32 yards against Illinois in 1986. On the day, Perry ran for 60 yards on 15 carries (the most rushing yards by a USC quarterback since Shane Foley also had 60 at Arizona State in 1990) and he completed 13-of-23 passes for 155 yards.

Troy extended its lead to 10-3 at halftime after a 29-yard field goal by first-year freshman Cole Ford.

Trojan tailback Mazio Royster had 97 yards on 20 carries by halftime, but he sat out the rest of the game because of a slknee sprain.

USC could never get untracked in the second half, while the Tigers scored 3 TDs--one on a 40-yard pass, another on an 18-play, 97-yard drive, and the third coming 3 plays after recovering the ensuing kickoff when USC failed to field a short kick. Also, a 100-yard kickoff return by Curtis Conway was nullified by a USC holding penalty, 1 of 9 Trojan penalties in the game. And twice on the day, USC got inside the Tiger 20 but didn't score.

USC split end Johnnie Morton caught a then-career-best and game-high 5 passes for 62 yards, while safety Mike Salmon had a team-high 9 tackles and inside linebacker Matt Gee added 8 stops, including 2 for losses.

GAME 2 -- September 14, Los Angeles, California
USC 21, Penn State 10
Att: 64,758

Penn State.....	0	7	0	3	--	10
USC.....	7	7	0	7	--	21

Two weeks after its shocking opening loss to Memphis State, USC (ranked 24th by UPI) pulled a stunner of its own, upsatting Top 5-ranked (fourth by UPI and fifth by AP) and 7 1/2-point favorite Penn State, 21-10, before 64,758 Coliseum fans and a live national ABC-TV primetime audience.

The win broke USC's 3-game losing streak and Penn State's 11-game regular season win string (dating back to 1990's loss to Troy). It also marked the eighth straight time that USC has "bounced back" from an opening season loss with a win.

Although Penn State dominated the stats--getting more yards (370-275), plays (81-67) and first downs (21-17)--the constantly blitzing Trojan defense played a key role in stopping a Nittany Lion offense which had scored 115 points in its first 2 games. Penn State fumbled 7 times (losing 2), had 3 passes intercepted, and saw QB Tony Sacca (who was 18-of-40 passing for 236 yards) sacked 5 times. Cornerback Jason Oliver intercepted all 3 passes, the first time a Trojan did that in a game since Cleveland Colter snagged 3 against Stanford in 1987. Safety Mike Salmon led USC in tackles for the second consecutive week, this time with a game-high 11 tackles, while safety Stephon Pace had 10, outside linebacker Kurt Barber 7, outside linebacker Willie McGinest 6, and inside linebacker Matt Gee 6.

Offensively, quarterback Reggie Perry threw for 1 TD (a 7-yarder in the first quarter to tight end Yonnie Jackson, the first career TDs for each) and ran for another score (a 2-yarder in the fourth quarter). Overall, he hit 10-of-20 passes for 123 yards and ran for 52 yards on 14 carries (including a 35-yard run, the longest by a Trojan QB since Vince Evans went 36 yards against UCLA in 1976). Tailback Deon Strother, in his first-ever start because regular Mazio Royster was out with a knee sprain, got USC's other TD on a 1-yard plunge in the second quarter. He ran for a game-high 67 yards on 20 carries. For the second week in a row, split end Johnnie Morton had a then-career-best 5 catches, this time for 67 yards.

GAME 3 -- September 21, Los Angeles, California
Arizona State 32, USC 25
Att: 59,623

Arizona State	8	17	7	0	--	32
USC	3	7	0	15	--	25

USC (ranked 22nd by AP and UPI)--despite a furious fourth-quarter rally--dropped a 32-25 decision to unranked Arizona State at home before 59,623 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience in the Pac-10 opener for both squads. The loss kept ASU as the only league team with a winning record over the Trojans (6-4) and gave the Sun Devils a 3-1 edge over Troy in the Coliseum. It also snapped USC coach Larry Smith's 7-game winning streak over ASU, including his last 5 while at Arizona. The game was followed by a Beach Boys concert.

The Sun Devil offense dominated USC, piling up 456 total yards, including 307 on the ground (the most rushing yards against the Trojans since Notre Dame had 351 in 1987). USC dug a big hole for itself in the early going, falling behind 25-10 at halftime as ASU, with 308 total yards, put together 3 80-yard TD drives. It was 32-10 early in the fourth quarter before USC made its move, as tailback Mazio Royster scored on runs of 2 (with 11:32 to play) and 9 (2:18) yards. USC got the ball back with 34 seconds left, but couldn't advance it. The Trojans actually had another fourth quarter scoring opportunity. On the first play following Royster's initial score which closed the gap to 32-18, they recovered an ASU fumble on the Sun Devil 15. But 3 plays later, USC fumbled the ball back to ASU 4 yards from the goal line.

USC's other scores came on a 22-yard first quarter field goal by placekicker Cole Ford and a 12-yard run late in the first half by flanker-quarterback Curtis Conway, who was inserted at quarterback on that series and drove the Trojans 73 yards while executing the option offense. Conway had 134 all-purpose yards in the game (41 rushing, 95 on kickoff returns, 1 on punt returns, and -3 on receiving).

Quarterback Reggie Perry was 13-of-28 passing for 136 yards, but had 2 interceptions. For the third week in a row, split end Johnnie Morton led USC in receiving with 4 for 46 yards. Royster, who missed the Penn State win with a sprained knee, had 78 yards and the 2 TDs on 16 carries and added 4 catches for 23 yards. Defensively, David Webb was moved from tackle to outside linebacker for an injured Willie McGinest (sprained ankle) and had a team-high 11 tackles, while inside linebackers Matt Gee and Gidion Murrell both had 8 stops (Gee also forced 2 fumbles).

GAME 4 -- September 28, Eugene, Oregon
USC 30, Oregon 14
Att: 45,948

USC	0	6	10	14	--	30
Oregon	3	3	0	8	--	14

USC, in its first road game of 1991, used 24 consecutive second-half points to run away from Oregon, 30-14, before a noisy, sold-out Autzen Stadium crowd of 45,948 and a national ESPN cable audience.

Troy's win snapped a 10-game home winning streak for the Ducks.

The game was tied 6-6 at halftime as kickers Cole Ford of USC and Oregon's Gregg McCallum traded field goals. USC, unranked in both polls for the first time since Nov. 11, 1987, managed just 127 total yards and 8 first downs in the first half, while Oregon had only 113 and 6.

But it was all USC after the intermission. Tailback Mazio Royster had 111 of his game-high 132 yards (and 21 of his 29 carries) then and scored TDs on runs on 5 and 4 yards. It was the seventh 100-yard game of his career. Royster had another TD nullified because of a penalty. Ford added his third field goal of the game. USC's other TD came on a 30-yard interception by defensive guard Jason Uhl, who snagged one-handed a point-blank pass by Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil, his former high school teammate.

USC's defense held the Ducks without a TD until 3:18 to play in the already-decided game. Oregon managed just 70 yards on the ground. Inside linebacker Brian Williams, a first-year freshman making his second start, had a team-high 11 tackles, inside linebacker Matt Gee added 10 and recovered a fumble which set up a TD, and outside linebacker Kurt Barber had 9 stops, including 2 sacks. Cornerback Calvin Holmes picked off a pass.

Quarterback Reggie Perry completed 6-of-12 passes for 64 yards and also ran for 40 yards on 9 carries. Flanker Curtis Conway played 4 series at quarterback. Tight end Yonnie Jackson caught a team-best 4 passes for 36 yards. USC's 74 passing yards was its fewest since it had 68 at Arizona State in 1985.

GAME 5 -- October 12, Pullman, Washington
USC 34, Washington State 27
Att: 23,997

USC	10	7	7	10	--	34
Washington State	14	7	0	6	--	27

Posting back-to-back wins for the first time in 1991, USC--behind a powerful running attack--came from behind to beat Washington State, 34-27, before 23,997 fans in Pullman and a Prime Network cable audience.

USC rolled up 301 yards on the ground (the most since it had 307 against Washington State in 1990) as tailbacks Deon Strother and Mazio Royster both broke the century rushing barrier (the first time a pair of Trojans were over 100 yards since that 1990 WSU game, when Royster with 203 and fullback Scott Lockwood with 102 did so). Royster, who had TD runs of 29 yards and 1 yard among his 23 carries, got all but 1 of his 114 yards in the first half before being sidelined with a neck sprain early in the third quarter. It was the eighth 100-yard game of his career (the second of 1991). Strother took over and collected a game-high and career-best 122 yards, with a 3-yard TD, on 22 carries. He also threw a 28-yard halfback option TD pass to flanker Larry Wallace.

USC's other scores came on Cole Ford field goals of 37 and 39 yards.

After leading 3-0, Troy fell behind by 11 twice in the first half, at 14-3 and then 21-10 3 minutes into the second quarter, before closing the gap to 21-17 at halftime. The Cougars had 283 of their 404 total yards (including 234 of their 326 passing yards) in the first half. But it was almost all USC in the second half, as it outscored WSU 17-6. Troy finished with 433 total yards on 83 plays (23 more plays than WSU) and held the ball for 35:57.

Quarterback Reggie Perry was just 7-of-21 passing for 104 yards and 1 interception, but ran for 53 yards on 13 carries. Three of his passes went to split end Johnnie Morton for 85 yards.

Inside linebacker Matt Gee led USC with 12 tackles, including 3 for a loss, and he recovered a fumble. Free safety Mike Salmon also recovered a fumble.

Most of WSU's TDs came on big plays--a 67-yard pass, a 52-yard flanker pass off a double reverse, and a 100-yard kickoff return, the longest against USC since 1949. The Cougars had 326 passing yards, including 274 by quarterback Drew Beldsoe, who was 19-of-30 for 1 TD, but had 2 picks (by Salmon and by cornerback Jason Oliver, which came with 17 seconds to go at the USC 4 after WSU had driven to the USC 34 from its own 11 with 48 seconds left).

GAME 6 -- October 19, Los Angeles, California
Stanford 24, USC 21
Att: 61,125

Stanford	0	10	7	7	--	24
USC	0	7	0	14	--	21

For the first time since 1975, USC lost to Stanford, this one a 24-21 defeat in front of a Coliseum Homecoming crowd of 61,265 as the Cardinal scored the game-winning TD with 1:11 to play and Troy just missed a game-tying field goal at the gun.

Placekicker Cole Ford's 45-yard field goal try as time ran out was just a foot wide, snapping USC's 15-game unbeaten streak and 11-game winning string over Stanford. The loss virtually eliminated USC's Rose Bowl hopes.

It appeared USC would get a come-from-behind win for the second straight week when tailback Deon Strother ran 9 yards for a TD with 3:37 to play to give the Trojans a 21-17 lead. But the Cardinal came right back, marching 65 yards in 10 plays, the last a 12-yard TD pass from quarterback Steve Stenstrom to wide receiver Chris Walsh (Stenstrom threw 3 TDs in the game, including a 71-yarder to Walsh, who caught 9 passes overall).

USC trailed 17-7 in the last quarter before mounting its comeback, closing the gap on a 17-yard TD run with 9:02 to go by Strother, who ran for a team-best 45 yards with those 2 scores on 11 carries.

USC couldn't generate much offense in the first half, getting only 3 first downs and 81 total yards. But the Trojans finished with 19 first downs and 308 total yards, mainly behind the passing of quarterback Reggie Perry. Perry, who was only 3-of-6 for 12 yards in the first half, had his best day as a Trojan, hitting 22-of-33 passes for 201 yards. Nine of Perry's passes for 77 yards were caught by split end Johnnie Morton (a career best for Morton). Perry also ran for a 3-yard TD in the second quarter, which came 4 plays after flanker-quarterback Curtis Conway's 96-yard scoring kickoff return was nullified by a clipping penalty (the second kickoff return for a score he had called back in 1991). Conway was credited with an 82-yard return, USC's longest since Anthony Davis went 102 yards against Notre Dame in 1974. Conway notched 137 all-purpose yards, while Stanford halfback Glyn Milburn had 216 all-purpose yards.

Inside linebacker Matt Gee led USC in tackles with 8, while inside linebacker Gidion Murrell and defensive tackle David Webb both added 7. Punter Ron Dale averaged 47.1 yards on 7 boots.

Notre Dame 24, USC 20
Att: 59,075

USC	0	0	7	13	--	20
Notre Dame	7	7	0	10	--	24

For the ninth consecutive year, USC lost to Notre Dame, this time a 24-20 heartbreaker to the No. 5-ranked Irish in South Bend before a capacity 59,075 fans and an NBC-TV national audience. It was the third straight year that USC lost to ND by 4 points. The game featured 927 yards of total offense.

As was its pattern in 1991, USC--down 14-0 at halftime and 21-7 early in the fourth quarter--threatened at the end. But a controversial call giving Notre Dame possession of a Trojan on-side kick with 1:45 to play sealed USC's fate. USC, which managed just 142 total yards in the first half and never advanced inside the ND 41-yard line, exploded for 320 second half yards (for a then-season-best 462 total yards in the game), mainly behind the passing of quareterback Reggie Perry. Perry, who played most of the second half with a torn tendon in the little finger of his right (throwing) hand, hit 20-of-35 passes for a career-high 222 yards (including 14-of-20 for 179 yards after halftime). He also ran for 51 yards on 11 carries.

Troy's second-half scores came on runs by tailbacks Deon Strother (29 yards, then the longest run of his career) and Mazio Royster (14 yards), and fullback Raoul Spears (4 yards with 1:50 to play to bring USC within 4 points). Strother gained 83 yards on 18 carries as the starter, while Royster had 65 yards on 11 rushes. Flanker Curtis Conway caught a career-high and game-topping 6 receptions for 69 yards.

USC wasted 2 scoring opportunities in the third quarter, twice getting inside the ND 10-yard line, only to come up short on fourth-and-2 at the 6 once and fumble the ball away at the 9 on the other.

The Trojan defense had trouble stopping the potent Irish offense, particularly in the first half when ND gained 248 of its 465 total yards (the most yards USC allowed all year to that point). Notre Dame ran for 299 yards overall, including 178 on 11 carries by fullback Jerome Bettis, who had TDs of 53 (then the longest run versus USC since 1988 when ND's Tony Rice ran 65 yards for a score) and 1 yard. Tailback Tony Brooks added 83 rushing yards and caught a 15-yard TD pass that was disputed because he fumbled going into the end zone. USC had more first downs (25-20, including 17-9 in the second half), plays (83-68) and possession time (31:10-28:50).

USC outside linebacker Kurt Barber had a career-best and team-high 14 tackles (including 1 sack which forced a fumble) and also deflected a pass. Inside linebacker Gidion Murrell and safety Stephon Pace had 9 stops, while defensive tackle David Webb and inside linebacker Matt Gee added 8 tackles (Gee also recovered a fumble). USC started 14 freshmen and sophomores, but only 4 seniors.

GAME 8 -- November 2, Berkeley, California
California 52, USC 30
Att: 70,000

USC	7	0	7	16	--	30
California	22	13	14	3	--	52

No. 10 California scored more points against USC than any team in history in recording a 52-30 shellacking of the Trojans before 70,000 fans in Berkeley and a regional ABC-TV audience. The defeat ran USC's 1991 losing streak to 3. The 52 total points eclipsed the USC opponent record of 51, set in Notre Dame's 1966 win (51-0). The 22-point victory was Cal's largest margin over USC since the 1921 game (38-7). The Golden Bears were up 22-7 after the first quarter (the most points scored in a quarter against USC since UCLA was up 24-14 after the first quarter in 1970) and 35-7 at halftime (the most points in a half against Troy since UCLA led 38-14 at halftime in that 1970 contest).

It was a record-setting day for Cal tailback Russell White, the nephew of USC's 1979 Heisman winner, Charles White. Russell ran for a career-high 229 yards, the most by any runner ever against the Trojans, with 3 TDs (including a 72-yarder) on 23 carries. He added 99 yards on 2 kickoff returns, including a 66-yarder to open the game. Cal rolled up 601 yards of total offense (the most against USC since Notre Dame set a USC opponent mark with 623 set in 1946), including 396 on the ground (the most allowed by USC since Texas A&M had 486 yards in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl). Golden Bear quarterback Mike Pawlawski threw for 3 TDs (all to wide receiver Sean Dawkins) and 212 yards on 13-of-25 passing.

USC's offense was productive, too, getting a season-best total yardage output for the second consecutive week (this time for 465 yards). Deon Strother, starting at tailback for the third time in 1991, got his second 100-yard effort, with a career-best 153 yards and 2 scores on 17 rushes. His 92-yard TD run early in the first quarter was the fourth longest run in USC history (2 yards short of the school record). Troy threw for a season-high 244 yards, including 164 yards on 13-of-26 passing by quarterback Reggie Perry and another 80 yards on 6-of-9 passing by first-year freshman Rob Johnson, who played nearly all of the fourth quarter while seeing his first action of 1991. Johnson, who led USC on 2 scoring drives, threw a 22-yard TD to flanker Larry Wallace. Split end Johnnie Morton caught 8 passes for a career-high 135 yards.

Defensively, 3 Trojans had a game-high 9 tackles: outside linebacker Lamont Hollinquest (a career best), cornerback Jason Oliver (also a career best) and free safety Mike Salmon. Hollinquest also recovered a fumble.

GAME 9 -- November 9, Los Angeles, California
Washington 14, USC 3
Att: 59,320

Washington	7	7	0	0	--	14
USC	0	0	3	0	--	3

A 14-3 loss to No. 2 Washington in front of 59,320 Coliseum fans and a split national ABC-TV audience guaranteed USC only its second losing season in the past 30 years (the other was in 1983). It also snapped the Trojans' streak of going to a post-season bowl every year they were eligible since 1972.

It was Washington's first win in the Coliseum since 1980 (after 4 straight losses there) and was only the Huskies' third Los Angeles victory over USC since 1964 (a span of 14 games). It was the 11th consecutive win for Washington and the fourth straight loss for USC (Troy's longest losing streak since a similar 4-game skid in 1986-87).

USC held Washington's offense, which was ranked fourth nationally in total offense (487.6) and scoring offense (41.6), to its fewest points in 18 games and its fewest total yards (356) in 12 games. The Trojans shut out the Huskies in the second half.

But USC couldn't do much against Washington's defense, which led the nation in total defense (223.8), rushing defense (60.1) and pass efficiency defense (78.2) and was second in scoring defense (8.9). USC had 5 drives penetrate UW's 35-yard line, but came away with only a 23-yard third quarter field goal by placekicker J.J. Dudum. Dudum was subbing for regular kicker Cole Ford, who was out with a hip injury. On the other 4 drives, USC missed a field goal, had a pass intercepted in the end zone, and failed to convert on a pair of fourth-down passes.

The game was fairly even statistically, with Washington getting slightly more total yards (356-305), first downs (18-17), plays (73-72) and possession time (31:57-28:03). UW got 158 of its 237 rushing yards from tailback Beno Bryant, who scored twice (55 and 7 yards) on 26 carries. The 7-yard score was set up by a successful Husky fake punt.

USC quarterback Reggie Perry was 14-of-29 passing for 196 yards, while Rob Johnson relieved him in the third quarter and was 3-of-7 for 31 yards and led Troy to its field goal. Split end Johnnie Morton had a game-high 8 catches for 83 yards and tailback Deon Strother led USC in rushing with 40 yards on 14 carries. Inside linebacker Matt Gee had a game-high 11 tackles, while safety Stephon Pace and cornerback Jason Oliver each had an interception. USC started just 4 seniors.

GAME 10 -- November 16, Tucson, Arizona
Arizona 31, USC 14
Att: 41,053

USC	0	7	7	0	--	14
Arizona	7	10	7	7	--	31

USC tied the school record for longest losing streak (set first in 1957 and again in 1959-60) as it dropped its fifth straight game, this one a 31-14 loss to Arizona in Tucson before 41,053 fans and a Prime Network audience.

The Trojans, who had averaged only 1.8 turnovers a game, lost the ball 5 times (3 fumbles, 2 interceptions). Two of those turnovers led to Wildcat touchdowns, including a 67-yard scoring interception return late in the first half. Troy also lost out on several scoring opportunities, including 2 missed field goals, a dropped pass at the goal line and a fumble which Arizona recovered in its end zone.

USC, which trailed 17-7 at halftime, closed the gap to 17-14 early in the third quarter. But Arizona then went on a 17-play, 73-yard scoring drive and regained control of the game. Although USC had more total yards (294-288) and first downs (18-16), Arizona held the ball 11 minutes more (35:33-24:27).

Both of USC's TDs were scored by tailback Estrus Crayton (an 8-yard catch and a 9-yard run). Crayton, who entered the game with only 94 yards on 21 carries in 1991, came off the bench in the second quarter to rush for a USC-season best 185 yards on 27 carries (he also had a team-high 4 catches). It was the most yards by a Trojan runner since tailback Mazio Royster had 203 yards in 1990 versus Washington State. Crayton became the third Trojan to break the 100-yard rushing barrier in 1991 (Royster and tailback Deon Strother both did so twice).

Rob Johnson became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for USC in the post-World War II era (records before then are incomplete). He hit 10-of-20 passes for 114 yards and the TD, but had 2 interceptions and lost 2 fumbles while playing the entire game.

Quarterback Charles Levy had a hand in all 3 of Arizona's offensive TDs, rushing for a pair of 1-yarders and dishing a shovel pass for a 19-yarder.

Defensively for USC, inside linebacker Matt Gee had a game-high 13 stops, while outside linebacker Willie McGinest added 10 (with 2 for a loss) and had a pass deflection.

GAME 11 -- November 23, Los Angeles, California
UCLA 24, USC 21
Att: 84,623

UCLA.....	10	7	7	0	--	24
USC.....	0	7	7	7	--	21

USC's disappointing 1991 season came to an end with a 24-21 loss to No. 25 UCLA before 84,623 Coliseum fans and a live Prime Ticket audience, giving the Bruins their first win over Troy since 1986 and establishing a school-record losing streak of 6 for the Trojans.

USC's 3-8 final record was its worst since 1957 (when the Trojans were 1-9).

As was its custom in 1991, USC trailed in the early going, falling behind 17-0 late in the second half after a 41-yard field goal by placekicker Louis Perez, a 72-yard run by tailback Kevin Williams (the longest run in the series since USC's Eddie Saenz went 86 yards for a TD in 1943) and a controversial recovery of fullback Maury Toy's fumble in the end zone by tight end Brian Allen on third-and-goal at the 1 (USC argued that the ball had been whistled dead before going into the end zone). That final score was aided by a successful Bruin fake punt for a first down.

But, with less than a minute to play in the half, USC quarterback Reggie Perry lofted a 13-yard TD pass to flanker Curtis Conway, Conway's first scoring catch of his career and only Perry's second TD aerial of the season.

That momentum continued into the second half, as USC compiled 200 of its 335 total yards while limiting UCLA to just 123 of its 404 total yards (including minus 4 rushing). USC recovered a Bruin fumble on the kickoff to open the second half and, although placekicker J.J. Dudum (subbing for an injured Cole Ford) missed a 28-yard field goal (he also missed a 45-yarder in the first quarter after USC had intercepted a pass), the Trojans scored on their next possession as Perry leaped over for a 1-yard TD to make it 17-14 UCLA.

The Bruins came right back, with quarterback Tommy Maddox hitting Toy over the middle for a 17-yard score. But USC answered on the following possession with another scoring drive, culminating with a 6-yard TD pass from Perry to tight end Yonnie Jackson on the first play of the fourth quarter. The Trojans got the ball back 4 times in the final period, but couldn't score, although they did advance to the UCLA 37-yard line with 1:19 to play, only to see Perry fumble the ball away on a sack by inside linebacker Arnold Ale on a fourth-and-5 play.

Overall, Perry was 13-of-28 for 209 yards passing with 2 TDs and 1 interception, while Maddox was 22-of-32 for 236 yards with 1 TD and 1 pick. Williams had a game-high 131 yards rushing on 21 carries, while Trojan tailback Estrus Crayton--in his first start of the year (he became the first junior college transfer to start at tailback for USC since Lou Harris in 1971)--had his second straight 100-yard outing, this time getting 126 yards on 21 attempts (it was the most yards by a runner against UCLA in 1991).

Two Trojans--inside linebacker Gidion Murrell and safety Stephon Pace--led all tacklers with 9 stops each.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (September 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938---USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939-- USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 2 seconds to go.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988-USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), and the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun).

"THE COMEBACK"
1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added coach John McKay right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans (and Notre Dame) have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.647) among the 46 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Georgia Tech's .680 and Oklahoma's .650). USC is just 2 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories with 22. Troy's 34 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (44) and are tied with Texas. USC is the only school ever to have won 9 consecutive bowl games (1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival).

USC's overall post-season record is 22-12. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 27 Rose Bowls and has a 19-8 mark in that classic. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 6 of its last 8 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 7 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl and John Hancock Bowl.

ROSE BOWL

USC BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1923 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

USC	0	7	7	0	-- 14
Penn State	3	0	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Campbell, Baker. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Penn State--Field Goal, Palm.

Attendance: 43,000 Date: Jan. 1

1924 Christmas Festival: USC 20, Missouri 7

Played on Christmas Day in the Coliseum, USC posted one of its biggest wins in its early history, 20-7 over Missouri. The Trojans stopped the Tigers early, then dominated the latter part of the contest, with Hayden Pythian, Wallace Newman and Henry Lefebvre starring.

Missouri	0	0	0	7	-- 7
USC	0	0	20	0	-- 20

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Lefebvre, Badgro, Pythian. PAT, Hawkins (2).
Missouri--Touchdown, Walsh. PAT, Unknown.

Attendance: 47,000 Date: Dec. 25

1930 Rose Bowl: USC 47, Pittsburgh 14

Quarterbacks Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield combined to pass for 279 yards and four touchdowns to lead Coach Howard Jones' first USC Rose Bowl team past Pittsburgh, 47-14. Saunders' first three passes went for touchdowns, two to Trojan end Harry Edelson. USC built a 26-0 halftime lead in coasting to the triumph.

USC	13	13	14	7	-- 47
Pittsburgh	0	0	7	7	-- 14

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Edelson (2), Duffield (2), Pinckert, Saunders, Wilcox. PAT, Shaver (2), Baker (2), Duffield.
Pittsburgh--Touchdowns, Walinchus, Collins. PAT, Parkinson (2).

Attendance: 72,000 Date: Jan. 1

1932 Rose Bowl: USC 21, Tulane 12

Erny Pinckert ran for touchdowns of 25 and 30 yards to lead USC's Thundering Herd to a 21-0 halftime lead, and the Trojans held off Bernie Bierman's Tulane team in the second half for a 21-12 victory. Six USC players on that team were named All-American during their college careers.

USC	0	7	14	0	-- 21
Tulane	0	0	6	6	-- 12

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Sparling, Pinckert (2). PAT, Baker (3).
Tulane--Touchdowns, Haynes, Glover.

Attendance: 75,562 Date: Jan. 1

1933 Rose Bowl: USC 35, Pittsburgh 0

Quarterback Cotton Warburton scored two touchdowns as USC wore down a lighter Pittsburgh team for a 35-0 win. Warburton, a 145-pounder who went on to become one of the Trojans' greatest backs, broke the game open in the second half.

USC	7	0	7	21	-- 35

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Palmer, Griffith, Warburton (2), Barber. PAT, Smith (4), Lady.

Attendance: 78,874 Date: Jan. 2

1939 Rose Bowl: USC 7, Duke 3

A fourth-string quarterback, Doyle Nave, who had played only 281/2 minutes all year, came off the bench to fire four straight passes to second team end Al Krueger, the last a 19-yard touchdown aerial, in the last two minutes to edge Duke, 7-3. Those were the only points scored on previously undefeated Duke all season.

Duke	0	0	0	3	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Krueger. PAT, Gaspar.
Duke--Field Goal, Ruffa.

Attendance: 89,452 Date: Jan. 2

1940 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Tennessee 0

USC overpowered Tennessee, which hadn't been scored upon in 15 consecutive games, 14-0, to hand the Volunteers their first loss in 24 games and to give Trojan coach Howard Jones, who died in the spring of 1941, a perfect 5-0 record in the Rose Bowl. USC's final touchdown was scored on a pass from Amby Schindler to Al Krueger, who had caught the winning TD pass in 1939.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Schindler, Krueger. PAT, Jones, Gaspar.

Attendance: 92,200 Date: Jan. 1

1944 Rose Bowl: USC 29, Washington 0

In the only Rose Bowl game which was not intersectional (because of wartime travel restrictions), USC raced past Washington, 29-0. Quarterback Jim Hardy led the Trojans, throwing three touchdown passes. Washington entered the game as a strong favorite.

USC	0	7	13	9	-- 29

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, G. Callanan (2). G. Gray (2). PAT, Jamison (3). Safety, Planck blocked Austin's punt which was recovered in end zone by Washington.

Attendance: 68,000 Date: Jan. 1

1945 Rose Bowl: USC 25, Tennessee 0

Quarterback Jim Hardy passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third as USC defeated Tennessee, 25-0. Hardy thus in two games threw for five touchdowns and scored a sixth. Tennessee fielded a predominantly freshman team.

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, J. Callanan, Salata, J. Hardy, MacLachlan. PAT, West.

Attendance: 91,000 Date: Jan. 1

1946 Rose Bowl: Alabama 34, USC 14

Harry Gilmer, known more as a passer, ran for 113 yards while Alabama's defense choked off USC to give the Crimson Tide a 34-14 victory. Alabama allowed USC just six yards of rushing and 35 passing. It was USC's first loss in the Rose Bowl following eight victories.

Alabama	7	13	7	7	-- 34
USC	0	0	0	14	-- 14

Scoring: Alabama--Touchdowns, Self (2), Gilmer, Tew, Hodges. PAT, Morrow (4).
USC--Touchdowns, Adelman, Clark. PAT, Lillywhite (2).

Attendance: 93,000 Date: Jan. 1

1948 Rose Bowl: Michigan 49, USC 0

Michigan, under Coach Fritz Crisler gunning for the national championship, defeated USC, 49-0, to duplicate its 1902 triumph over Stanford. Halfback Robert Chappuis ran for 91 yards, passed for 188, and made six key plays which set up or scored five touchdowns.

Michigan	7	14	7	21	-- 49

Scoring: Michigan--Touchdowns, Weisenburger (3), C. Elliott, Yerges, Derricotte, Rifenburg. PAT, Brieske (7).

Attendance: 93,000 Date: Jan. 1

1953 Rose Bowl: USC 7, Wisconsin 0

Substitute quarterback Rudy Bukich threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Al "Hoagy" Carmichael in the third quarter which held up for a 7-0 USC triumph over Wisconsin to give the Pacific Coast its first victory over the Big Ten since the two conferences began their agreement in 1947. Jess Hill, the Trojan coach who played on the 1929 USC team, became the first man to have played on and coached winning Rose Bowl teams.

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Carmichael. PAT, Tsagalakis.

Attendance: 101,500 Date: Jan. 1

1955 Rose Bowl: Ohio State 20, USC 7

Woody Hayes made his first trek to the Rose Bowl as a coach and his national champion Ohio State team defeated USC, 20-7, in the mud and rain. Dave Leggett quarterbacked the Buckeyes to three touchdowns and USC's Aramis Dandoy returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown. UCLA was PCC champion, but was barred from returning by the conference's "no-repeat" rule.

Ohio State	0	14	0	6	-- 20

1963 Rose Bowl: USC 42, Wisconsin 37

John McKay made his debut in the Rose Bowl as USC coach and saw his undefeated national champion Trojans outscore Wisconsin, 42-37. USC, with Pete Beathard throwing four touchdown passes, ran up a 42-14 lead. Then Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen got hot, bringing the Badgers to within five points when time ran out. VanderKelen completed 33 of 48 passes for 401 yards, and 11 Rose Bowl records were broken.

USC	7	14	14	7	-- 42

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Bedsole (2), Butcher, Wilson, Heller, F. Hill. PAT, Lupo (6).

Safety, USC bad center snap downed in end zone by USC.

Attendance: 98,698 Date: Jan. 1

1967 Rose Bowl: Purdue 14, USC 13

A two-point conversion attempt by USC with less than three minutes remaining was foiled and Purdue emerged a 14-13 victor. After Troy Winslow flipped a 19-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman, Boilermaker back George Catavolos intercepted the conversion pass. Perry Williams scored both Purdue touchdowns on short bursts.

Purdue	0	7	7	0	-- 14

Scoring: Purdue--Touchdowns, P. Williams (2). PAT, Griese (2).
USC--Touchdowns, McCall, Sherman. PAT, Rossovich.

Attendance: 100,807 Date: Jan. 2

1968 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Indiana 3

O.J. Simpson ran for 128 yards and scored both USC touchdowns on short blasts as the Trojans defeated Indiana, 14-3, to wrap up the national football title. USC started the game without five regulars and lost two more during the game, but had enough depth to prevail.

USC	7	0	7	0	-- 14
Indiana	0	3	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Simpson (2). PAT, Aldridge (2)
Indiana--Field Goal, Kornowa.

Attendance: 102,946 Date: Jan. 1

1969 Rose Bowl: Ohio State 27, USC 16

Rex Kern quarterbacked national champion Ohio State to a 27-16 defeat of USC, overcoming a 10-0 deficit and heroics by Trojan O.J. Simpson. Simpson, the Heisman Trophy winner, rushed for 171 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown scamper. But five USC turnovers and Ohio State's power proved too much.

Ohio State	0	10	3	14	-- 27
USC	0	10	0	6	-- 16

Scoring: Ohio State--Touchdowns, Otis, Hayden, Gillian. Field Goals, Roman (2). PAT, Roman (2).

Attendance: 102,063 Date: Jan. 1

1970 Rose Bowl: USC 10, Michigan 3

A record fourth straight appearance by USC was culminated in a 10-3 victory over Michigan, whose coach Bo Schembechler suffered a heart attack and missed the game. The Trojans' "Wild Bunch" on defense held Michigan to a field goal while a 33-yard pass from Jimmy Jones to Bobby Chandler was the margin of victory.

USC	3	0	7	0	-- 10
Michigan	0	3	0	0	-- 3

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Chandler. PAT, Ayala. Field Goal, Ayala.
Michigan--Field Goal, Gillian.

Attendance: 103,878 Date: Jan. 1

1973 Rose Bowl: USC 42, Ohio State 17

Fullback Sam Cunningham, known primarily for his superb blocking, dived for four touchdowns, a modern era Rose Bowl record, as USC defeated Ohio State, 42-17, to win the national title. USC broke away after a 7-7 halftime tie as Anthony Davis ran for 157 yards and Mike Rae threw for 229.

USC	7	0	21	14	-- 42
Ohio State	0	7	3	7	-- 17

Attendance: 106,869 Date: Jan. 1

1974 Rose Bowl: Ohio State 42, USC 21

The 1974 game was a reverse of the 1973 contest as Ohio State, held to a 14-14 tie at halftime, exploded in the second half for a 42-21 win over USC. Freshman fullback Pete Johnson scored three touchdowns and Archie Griffin ran for 149 yards. But the Player of the Game was OSU quarterback Cornelius Greene, who completed six of eight passes for 129 yards and scrambled effectively.

Ohio State	7	7	13	15	-- 42
USC	3	11	7	0	-- 21

Attendance: 106,721 Date: Jan. 1

1975 Liberty Bowl: USC 20, Texas A&M 0

In coach John McKay's final game at USC, his Trojans shook off a four-game losing streak and surprised favored Texas A&M in Memphis, 20-0. USC's defense came up with many big plays, while the offense was able to move against the nationally-ranked Aggie defense. Vince Evans threw a 65-yard bomb to Randy Simmrin to set up one touchdown and Liberty Bowl MVP Ricky Bell ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another TD.

USC	3	17	0	0	-- 20

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Tatupu, Bell. PAT, Walker (2). Field Goal, Walker.

Attendance: 52,129 Date: Dec. 22

1977 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Michigan 6

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

1979 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

1982 Fiesta Bowl: Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

Penn State	7	10	9	0	-- 26

1985 Rose Bowl: USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

Ohio State	3	3	3	8	-- 17

Scoring: Ohio State--Touchdown, Carter. PAT, Tomczak (2-pointer). Field Goals, Spangler (3).
USC--Touchdowns, Cormier, Ware. PAT, Jordan (2). Field Goals, Jordan (2).

1985 Aloha Bowl: Alabama 24, USC 3

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

USC	0	3	0	0	-- 3
Alabama	3	0	7	14	-- 24

Scoring: USC--Field Goal, Shafer.
Alabama--Touchdowns, Turner, Whitehurst, Bell. PAT, Tiffin (3). Field Goal, Tiffin.

Attendance: 35,183 Date: Dec. 28

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl: Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

Auburn	0	14	0	2	-- 16
USC	7	0	0	0	-- 7

Scoring: Auburn--Touchdowns, Reeves, Fullwood. PAT, Knapp (2). Safety, Peete called for intentionally grounding in end zone.
USC--Touchdown, Cotton. PAT, Shafer.

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

USC	3	0	7	7	-- 17
Michigan State	7	7	0	6	-- 20

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Henry (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2). Field Goal, Rodriguez. Michigan State Touchdowns, White (2). PAT, Langeloh (2). Field Goals, Langeloh (2).

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

Michigan	3	0	6	13	-- 22
USC	0	14	0	0	-- 14

Scoring: Michigan--Touchdowns, Calloway, Hoard (2). PAT, Gillette. Field Goal, Gillette.
USC--Touchdowns, Peete (2). PAT, Rodriguez (2).

Attendance: 101,688 Date: Jan. 2

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

USC	0	10	0	7	-- 17
Michigan	0	3	7	0	-- 10

Scoring: USC--Touchdowns, Marinovich, Ervins. PAT, Rodriguez (2). Field Goal, Rodriguez.
Michigan--Touchdown, Jefferson. PAT, Carlson. Field Goal, Carlson.

Attendance: 103,450 Date: Jan. 1

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

USC	7	0	3	6	-- 16

Scoring: USC--Touchdown, Wellman. PAT, Rodriguez. Field Goals, Rodriguez (3).
Michigan State--Touchdowns, Hickson, Hawkins. PAT, Langeloh (2). Field Goal, Langeloh.

1992 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the following formula shall be applied:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A teaM.

The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the Kickoff Classic and Pigskin Classic shall not be counted.

If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if any team is ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl, it shall be eliminated from further consideration. If one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. A team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If the remaining two played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

COLLEGE BOWL ALLIANCE

Here's a look at college football's new bowl alliance, which becomes effective in the 1992 season.

Bowls in Coalition I include the Cotton, Orange, Sugar and Fiesta. Coalition II has the Gator, Blockbuster and John Hancock bowls. The Southwest Conference champion gets an automatic bid to the Cotton, the Big Eight champ to the Orange, and the Southeastern to the Sugar.

The Cotton, Orange and Sugar will pick, in order of the rank of their host teams, from a pool of 5 teams: Notre Dame, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, and 2 at-large teams from the Southwest, Big Eight, Atlantic Coast, Big East and Pacific-10.

If the top 2 ranked teams come from among Notre Dame and the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions, they will play in the Fiesta Bowl. Otherwise, the Atlantic Coast and Big East champions are guaranteed bids in the Cotton, Sugar or Orange bowls. The Fiesta will choose from the remaining at-large pool teams.

The 3 teams not selected from the Coalition I at-large pool will belong to the Coalition II bowls.

A team may decline a bowl's invitation if it would result in a rematch of a regular-season game, if it can make significantly more money in another bowl, or if it would be playing in that bowl a third consecutive year.

In most years, bowl selection date will be after the Southeastern Conference playoff game the first Saturday in December.

PACIFIC-10/FREEDOM BOWL TIE-IN

Beginning in 1992, the Pacific-10's third place team will go to the Freedom Bowl to play an at-large team. If there is a tie for third place in the Pac-10, the Freedom Bowl can choose its Pac-10 representative.

There have been 26 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (18 times during the regular season, 8 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 16 times, the No. 2 team has won 8 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 2-2 in such matchups, winning both times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC IN THE POLLS

USC FOOTBALL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Here is a list of USC's college football championships as selected by every recognized authority. USC is recognized for having won eight national championships (1928-31-32-62-67-72-74-78). The Trojans were not picked by enough selectors in 1929-33-39-76 to claim a legitimate national crown.

YEAR	RECORD	COACH	SELECTOR+
*1928	9-0-1	Howard Jones	Dick (Rissman)
1929	10-2	Howard Jones	Thes
*1931	10-1	Howard Jones	Dick (Rockne), Dunk, Ann, Helms, Thes
*1932	10-0	Howard Jones	Ann, Dunk, Thes, Helms, Wms, Davis

#The 1972 USC team was the first team to ever receive a unanimous first-place vote by both AP and UPI.
+Selectors:

Ann--Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41). A rating system published in the highly-regarded fan magazine by William F. Boand.

AP--Associated Press (1936-current). Poll of sportswriters and broadcasters which began in 1936. The award actually originated in 1924 with the awarding of the Rissman Trophy to the top-rated team in the Dickinson System. It was retired in 1930, then the Knute Rockne Trophy was awarded beginning in 1931 (again to the winner of the Dickinson System through 1935, then to the winner of the AP poll). That was retired in 1940, then the Dr. Henry L. Williams Trophy was awarded beginning in 1941. That was retired in 1947, then the Father O'Donnell Trophy was awarded beginning in 1948. That was retired in 1956 and beginning in 1957, the award has been known as the AP Trophy.

Davis--Park H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935). Chosen by Davis, a former player at Princeton and former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette. First published in the 1934 Spalding's Football Guide.

Dick--Dickinson System (1924-40). Based on point formula devised by Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson.

Dunk--Dunkel System (1929-current). A power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel.

FWA--Football Writers Association of America (1954-current). Chosen by five-man committee representing membership. Award called the Grantland Rice Trophy.

Helms--First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982). Originally called Helms Athletic Foundation, then changed to Citizen Savings Athletic Foundation before current name was adopted in 1981.

HF--National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-current). Chosen by a committee representing membership. Award called the Gen. Douglas MacArthur Trophy.

Lit--Litkenhous System (1934-1972). A rating method developed by Fred and Edward Litkenhous.

Thes--The Football Thesaurus (1927-58). A system devised by D. Houlgate.

UPI--United Press International (1950-current). Originally a poll of college coaches, in 1991 voters comprised of college football enthusiasts.

USA--USA Today/Cable News Network (1982-current). From 1982 to 1990, voted on by a panel of Gannett Co. sportswriters. Starting in 1991, voted on by 59 college coaches.

Wms--Williamson System (1932-1963). A power rating system chosen by Paul Williamson, a geologist and member of the Sugar Bowl committee.

USC IN TOP 20 RANKINGS

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 700 times. USC has been ranked in the poll's Top 20 463 times (66.1% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams:

1.	Notre Dame	534	6.	Alabama	462
2.	Michigan	505	7.	Texas	436
3.	Oklahoma	488	8.	Nebraska	428
4.	Ohio State	477	9.	Penn State	365
5.	USC	463	10.	UCLA	361

In those 700 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 47 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Notre Dame	94	6.	Nebraska	38
2.	Oklahoma	71	7.	Alabama	30
3.	Ohio State	62	8.	Michigan St.	29
4.	USC	47	9.	Michigan	28
5.	Texas	40	10.	Army	27

USC has the second longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with 17 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Only Notre Dame has a longer streak, with 19 from Nov. 1, 1988 to Nov. 21, 1989. Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	Notre Dame	19	6.	LSU	13
2.	USC	17	7.	Notre Dame	12
3.	Army	15		Texas	12
	Nebraska	15		Ohio State	12
5.	Nebraska	14		Florida State	12

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--UPI, AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association and the Walter Camp Foundation.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 24 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tail backs.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when thousand-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing--1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all- purpose running.

HEISMAN SALUTE

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

USC's other Top 10 vote-getters include HB-S Jim Sears in 1952 (seventh), HB Jon Arnett in 1956 (10th), TBRicky Bell in 1975 (third), TB Charles White in 1978 (fourth), and QB Paul McDonald in 1979 (sixth).

OUTLAND SALUTE

RON YARY--1967

Ron Yary is the only USC player to win the Outland Trophy, which goes to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and is selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Yary was a two-time All-American offensive tackle for the Trojans and was a unanimous All-American pick in 1967 when he won the Outland. That season he led the way for O.J. Simpson. The first player picked in the 1968 draft, he was a perennial All-Pro tackle with the Minnesota Vikings and also played for the Los Angeles Rams.

LOMBARDI SALUTE

BRAD BUDDE--1979

In 1979, offensive guard Brad Budde became USC's first recipient of the coveted Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top college lineman who also "best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi."

Budde was a unanimous All-American as a senior and was also runnerup in the Outland Trophy voting. A four-year starter at Troy, he was the first freshman to start a USC season opener since World War II.

The son of ex-Kansas City Chiefs' All-Pro Ed Budde, Brad followed his father there as the Chiefs' first- round draft pick in 1980.

LOMBARDI WINNERS

1971--Walt Patulski, Notre Dame, DE
1972--Rich Glover, Nebraska, MG

1991--Steve Emtman, Washington, DT

Note: USC has had 3 finalists for the Lombardi Award--NG George Achica in 1982, OLB Jack Del Rio in 1984 and DT Tim Ryan in 1989.

THORPE SALUTE

MARK CARRIER--1989

As just a junior in 1989, free safety Mark Carrier became USC's first-ever winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's best defensive back.

A 2-time first team All-American, Carrier had 7 interceptions in 1989 (tied for 10th in the nation), plus 107 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries and 10 pass deflections.

A 3-year starter with 13 career thefts, Carrier was a Thorpe semifinalist in 1988.

THORPE WINNERS

ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS

Here is a list of Trojans named to the All-Conference first team since 1928 (from 1928 to 1951, All-Conference and All-Coast selections are included). USC joined the Pacific Coast Conference in 1922, which was reformed into the Athletic Association of Western Universities in 1959, then renamed the Pacific-8 Conference in 1968. From 1978 on, it has been the Pacific-10 Conference.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 47 Trojan players selected (including Tony Boselli in 1992), as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1992 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team.

Here is a list of USC's Playboy pre-season All-Americans:

1960--Marlin McKeever, E

— ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letter winners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen.

There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long- standing policy.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" -- has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 175 times over the years, including 115 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 113-56-6 (the mark is 71-41-3 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. All 13 of USC's 1990 games were on some form of live television.

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. TV sets that are tuned to a game. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC is 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Whittier and Pomona games

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games. The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldiers Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 41,071,798 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

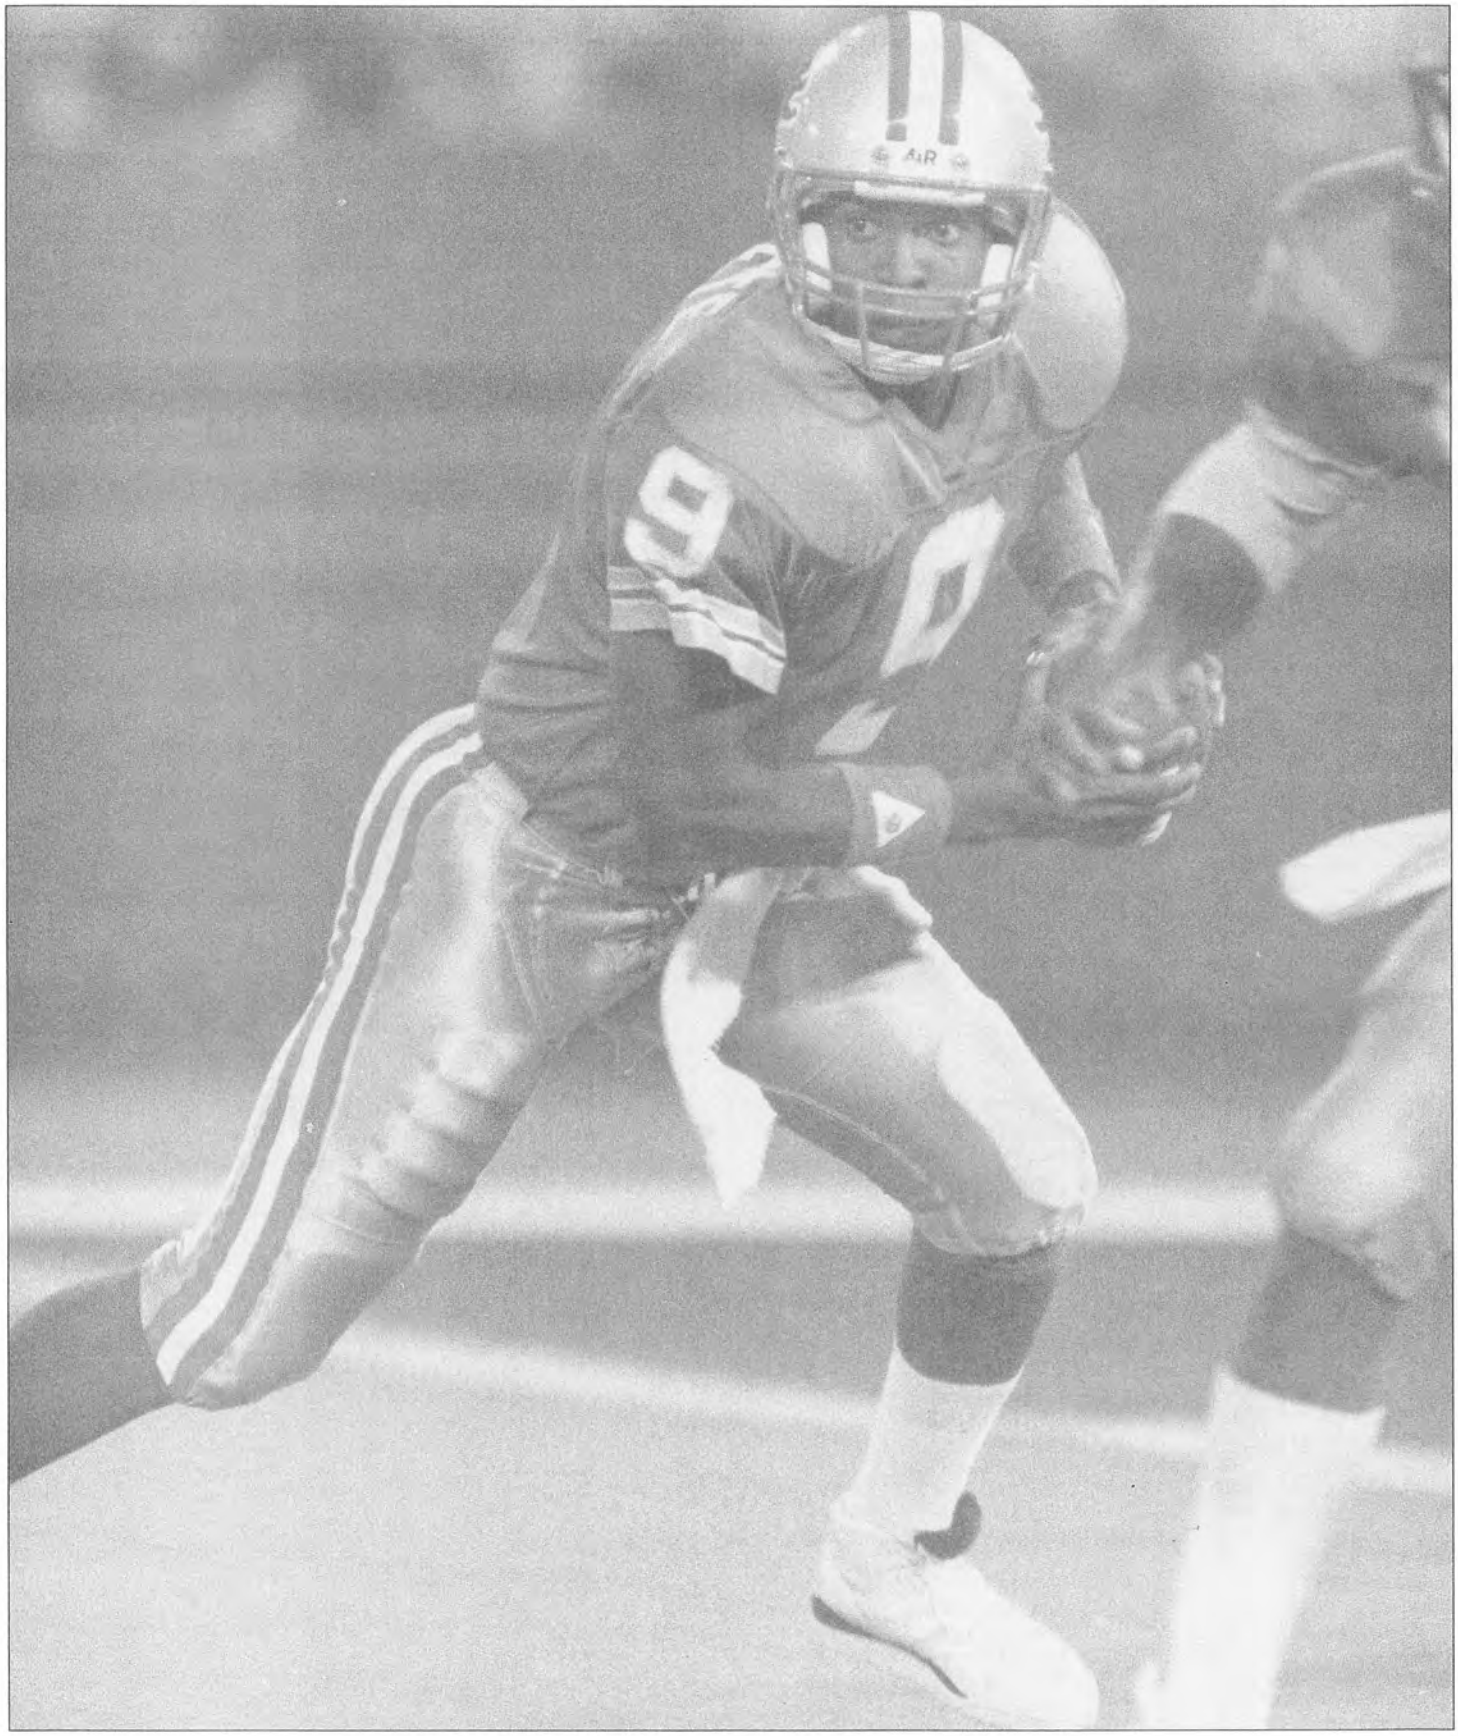
*Coliseum record for a football game.

The Coliseum seating capacity was reduced to its present 92,516 in 1964 (although temporary seats were added for the 1965 UCLA and 1988 Notre Dame games, hence the larger crowds). The largest crowd for a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame game since 1964 was 86,124 for Oklahoma in 1988.

NFL TROJANS



DETROIT LIONS QUARTERBACK RODNEY PEETE

— USC: NO. 1 IN THE PROS —

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC annually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this past summer, there were 55 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 7 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 22 of the NFL's 28 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (13), linebackers (11), or defensive backs (9). There also were 5 Trojan quarterbacks.

In 1991, there were 37 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, once again the most from any university. Miami (Fla.) was next with 33.

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16).

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

–TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1992 (which followed the 1935-1991 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

Round	Player	Pos.	Team	Overall Draft Selection
1937--1
10	Gil Kuhn	T	Brooklyn Dodgers

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

BIG TEN COMPETITION--USC has won 20 of its last 25 games (and 27 of its last 33) against Big Ten opponents.

EARLY BIRDS--The earliest that USC's season began in the modern era was Aug. 31, 1990 and the earliest it ended was Nov. 13, 1909. USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901.

GOOD BYES--USC is 66-36-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 27-7-1 following byes (4 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA).

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS--Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne--All-American").

HOMECOMING--USC has a 43-21-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IN FLORIDA--USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

NICKNAMES--Some of the more famous nicknames in Trojan gridiron lore: A.D. (Anthony Davis), Aircraft (Mark Carrier), Antelope Al (Al Krueger), B-Boys (Pete Beathard, Hal Bedsole, Willie Brown, Ben Wilson), Bambi (Mike Hull), Batman (Richard Wood, Gidion Murrell) Bear (Byron Darby), Blackjack (Harry Smith), The Bookend All-Americans (Duane Bickett and Jack Del Rio, both outside linebackers), Bug (Kevin Williams, who was 5-9 and 165 pounds), Bullet (Roy Baker), Butch (Walt Underwood, Kendell Nungesser), Butter (Ted Gorrell), Cadillac (Cleveland Colter), Cardiac Kids (1968 and 1969 teams), Cotton (Irvine Warburton), Cotton Clubs (tackles for a loss by Marcus Cotton), Decleaters (knockdown blocks by Dave Cadigan), The Duck (Mike Garrett), End Around (Ray Sparling), Field Marshall (Marshall Duffield), Gloomy Gus (Coach Elmer Henderson), Gramps (Randy Tanner), Hobo (Howard Kincaid), Inky (Haskell Wotkyns), Iron Mike (Mike Garrett), Jackhammers (tackles for a loss by Jack Del Rio), Jaguar Jon (Jon Arnett), J.J. (John Jackson), Juice (O.J. Simpson), Mad Dog (Tim Lavin), Mystic (Jim Powers), The Noblest Trojan of Them All (Morley Drury), Pinball Wizard (Ricky Ervins), Prince Hal (Hal Bedsole), Racehorse (Russ Saunders), Red (Morris Badgro), Rolls (Mazio Royster), Sam Bam (Sam Cunningham), Slinky (Marvin Pollard), Speedy (Alcee Hart), Squeeze (John Kamana), Sugarbear (Charles Hinton), Sweet (Jim Musick), Sweet Peete (Rodney Peete), Tay (Raymond Brown), Tee (Artimus Parker), Tex (Michael Williams), The Thundering Herd (Coach Howard Jones' teams), Tree (Charles Young, who was 6-4 and 228 pounds), Turd (Pete Adams' dog, the unofficial mascot of the 1972 team), Turk (Derrell Marshall), The Wild Bunch (the 1969 defensive line of Al Cowlings, Jimmy Gunn, Willard Scott, Tody Smith and Charlie Weaver).

NIGHT TIME--USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1--The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

OFFENSIVE LINE--There have been 24 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 17 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND--USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS--USC's record in all season openers is 72-20-7 (.763), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 52-15-7 (.750), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-5 (.800).

In conference openers, USC is 55-10-5 (.821) and Troy has won 17 of its last 21 (and 30 of its last 35). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 32-6-3 (.817). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 23-4-2 (.828) and they've won 18 of their last 20.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 10, 1988 against Stanford.

USC's record for home openers is 70-19-9 (.763).

PAC-10 WINS--In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS--Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

RAIN OUT--The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SEASON ENDERS--USC is 53-36-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT--USC's last home sellout was the 1990 Notre Dame game.

SNOW--The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS--USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25 game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION--USC has won 6 of its last 7 games (and 14 of its last 16) against Southwest Conference foes.

1,000-YARD RUNNERS--USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 20-19. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was tailback Mazio Royster in 1990, with 1,168 yards.

TOUGH STARTS--USC's last 5 head coaches--Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson, Ted Tollner and Larry Smith--all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE--USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT--USC's record is 4-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS--In 99 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 27 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM

USC has played football in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than two years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000. The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball (the Raiders currently play there). The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

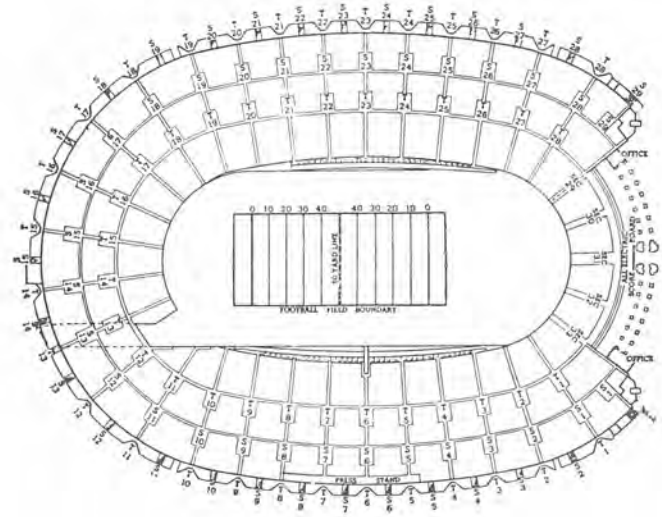
The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 92,516 seats. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line including both the north and south sides. The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.



—TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT—

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Tom Nolan, a USC alumnus, is the current rider of Traveler. He and Rick Oas shared riding duties in 1991 (Oas, also a USC graduate, began riding Traveler in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's longtime rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum track.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker now 29 years old, took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Twenty-three-year-old Traveler III, a 1,000-pound, 151/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 12-year-old Arabian brother who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Adds former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games, but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 31 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including the last 6 years in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, at halftime of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, a costumed Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented white horse. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years and then George III for 5 years.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin, an 85-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is perhaps USC's most loyal football fan. He might even be the most rabid college football fan ever.

Going into the 1992 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 714 consecutive Trojan games, home and away. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and auto more than 600,000 miles (and spent upwards of $75,000 doing so).

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 464-189-36 record.

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including once in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours later after USC dumped Washington, 40-28.

In the summer of 1988, Giles was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest. He was flown to New York City for the festivities.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 83, of Hawthorne, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1947. That's 496 in a row. Another brother, Max, 81, of Palm Springs, had a 300-plus string interrupted several seasons ago when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC intials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 22 times while in UCLA's hold.

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The shillelagh awarded for year-long possession and display to the victor of the Trojan-Irish game was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was originally devised as the trophy by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it.

The foot-long shillelagh has emerald-studded shamrocks with the year and game score representing Notre Dame victories, while ruby-adorned Trojan heads stand for USC wins. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle."

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

—TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band--known as "The Spirit of Troy" --is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in five movies (including "Hello Dolly") plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, and John Wayne.

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner is also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Girls and Yell Leaders.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942).

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

— USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 74 men's and 13 women's, than any other university in the nation;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (264) than those from any other school in the nation;

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904 (but not including the 1992 Barcelona Games), some 250 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 81 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every Olympics since 1912), 52 silver and 39 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received more NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships--41--than any other school. In addition, USC has had 20 first team Academic All-Americans.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 20 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 616-244-51 (a .704 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 308-117-28 (.711). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 3 other occasions.

USC has the nation's fourth best bowl winning percentage among the 46 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.647) and its 27 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 22-12, including 19-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 115 times, with 37 of those consensus selections and 20 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74) and John Robinson (1976-82) captured 1 title (1978). Current head coach Larry Smith has guided the Trojans into a bowl in 4 of his 5 seasons.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful careers in the NFL, including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,747-821-14 (.679) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 34 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 31 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp and Mark McGwire. In all, more than 60 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college opponents, making him the winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1988 and 1990 squads came within 1 victory of making it to the College World Series (his 1989 and 1991 teams were NCAA regional participants, too).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,176-811 (.592), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and recent sensation Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and has led Troy into the NCAA playoffs the past 2 years. He was the 1992 national Coach of the Year while guiding the Top 10 Trojans to a 24-6 mark.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours over the last 12 years.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four, then followed that up with a regional final appearance in 1982. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. In 1985, the Trojans made another regional appearance before advancing to the NCAA title game in 1986. The next 2 years, USC made it to the regionals.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball.

Marianne Stanley, the architect of many championship seasons at Old Dominion, took over as head coach in the 1989-90 season. Her team made the NCAA tourney the past 2 years, including advancing to the regional finals last season..

CREW--The crew program has been going strong since its inception in 1947, and program originator Bob Hillen is still involved as the director of rowing. David Nesbit is the team's first full-time coach.

Conn Findlay, one of America's great oarsmen, rowed at USC. Findlay participated in 3 Olympics, winning 2 gold medals and 1 bronze.

Both the men's and women's crews have varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 33 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under current coach Randy Lein, USC has continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

WOMEN'S GOLF--Head coach Cathy Bright has quickly turned the women's golf team at USC into one of college's finest, as witnessed by third, fourth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships 3 of the past 7 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989.

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti and Denise Strebig.

SAILING--Mike Segerblom, John Shadden and Russ Silvestri are recent additions in the long line of All-Americans produced by the USC sailing team, perhaps the most successful program on the West Coast. In fact, Troy has produced more All-Americans than any other West Coast school and has sent participants to the America's Cup, as well as the Olympcs and other prestigious world events. USC's program, first recognized as a varsity sport in 1965, is co-ed. Segerblom serves as the coach.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 60 times, winning 18 gold, 10 silver and 10 bronze medals (not including the 1992 Games). Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 97 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including 1992 NCAA platform diving champion Brian Earley) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 433 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 12 of the last 16 years, and have produced 107 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Darrell Fick was named the head women's coach in the summer of 1988.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker and Debbie Rudd.

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 13 team champions, 12 singles champions, and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school). Three of the last 7 NCAA doubles champs have been Trojans.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 376-71 (.841) mark in 13 years. His 1991 team won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 107 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team.

The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships, all in the last 16 years. In fact, USC has advanced to the NCAA title match 8 times in that span.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won the NCAA singles title, along with 1 doubles champ and 57 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989.

MEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 71-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 30 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 357-98-4 (.782).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1916-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team.

Fifty-seven USC tracksters have won 83 places on the U.S. Olympic teams over the years (not including the 1992 Games). Trojans have won 23 individual Olympic titles and have shared in 7 relay victories. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren and sprinter Charles Paddock.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 99 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1992 NCAA champions Quincy Watts in the 400 meters and Mark Crear in the 110-meter high hurdles).

The Trojans have also had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson. And after a 13-year layoff, USC again fielded a cross country team in 1985.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY-- The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 4 times, including third in 1987. The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her in 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson took over as coach in 1992.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. And Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there in the 16 years since scholarships were first awarded in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles in that time (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Nineteen Trojans have played on the U.S. National team (not including the 1992 Games) and 23 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Dvorak, Powers, Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Bryan Ivie and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) are all key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history. Under Erbe, the Women of Troy have also won a trio of conference championships.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 2 of her first 3 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 27 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 686-415-7 (.622) record, winning 10 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Twelve of his last 15 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987 squad which placed second in the NCAA tourney (losing in overtime).

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics (not including the 1992 Games) and there have been 67 All-Americans. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Greg Fults, Zach Stimson and Craig Furniss.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 66--far more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 13 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77). Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.

TROJANS NO. 1 IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only lead the nation in the number of national team championships (74 by the men and 13 by the women), but in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (41, including 18 football players).

Also, USC has had 20 first team Academic All-Americans (including 19 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for fifth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award (the second most from any school), 8 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 3 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Rhodes Scholar (quarterback Pat Haden), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell) and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter six-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1989). John Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990.

USC ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE McGEE

Mike McGee, 53, came to USC in July of 1984 to become the athletic director of one of the nation's most successful college athletic program.

McGee has already earned high marks guiding USC's athletes, coaches and administrators. Under his leadership, Troy's 20 men's and women's teams have enjoyed outstanding success. In fact, the Trojan men's program has been named by USA Today as the best among the nation's private institutions the past 4 years and as the top Pac-10 men's program 2 of the past 3 years.

Among the highlights:

--In his first year at Troy (1984-85), the football team won the Pac-10 title and the Rose Bowl for the first time since 1979, and the men's basketball squad captured its first league trophy since 1961 (that rare double last happened in 1939-40). Six USC teams finished in the Top 10 at their NCAA championships, with women's tennis winning an NCAA crown.

--In 1985-86, an unprecedented 11 Trojan teams placed in the Top 10 at the NCAAs and 6 USC squads won league titles (USC's best since 1976-77).

--Eight more USC teams finished in the Top 10 at the NCAAs in 1986-87.

--In 1987-88, 6 USC teams placed fourth or better in the NCAAs, including the national champion men's volleyball squad (USC's first men's NCAA title since 1980). In all, 15 Trojan teams advanced to post-season play then.

--In 1988-89, 13 USC teams were in post-season play, with 9 placing in the Top 10 in either the NCAAs or the final rankings.

--In 1989-90, a dozen Trojan teams competed in the post-season, with 10 ending up in the Top 10 in either the NCAAs or the final rankings (including the NCAA champion men's volleyballers and the Rose Bowl champion footballers). USA Today ranked USC's men as the second most successful program in the nation--and tops in the Pac-10--in 1989-90 (the Women of Troy were 14th).

--In 1990-91, another dozen USC squads were in post-season play, with 7 finishing in the Top 10 in either the NCAAs or the final rankings (including the NCAA champion men's tennis team). The 1990-91 USA Today ranking had the Trojan men tied for fifth in the U.S. and again best in the Pac-10.

--And last season, 10 USC teams were in post-season play, with 6 finishing in the Top 10 in either the NCAAs or the final rankings. USA Today had the 1991-92 Trojan men seventh nationally and the women were 18th.

Mike has instituted a number of programs to serve USC athletes, coaches and administrators more effectively. These include:

--guiding major increases in fundraising (including raising more than $40 million in the past 6 years and seeing endowment income rise more than 470% the past 8 years), ticket sales and television revenues toward balancing a $18 million budget;

--establishing a drug testing and education program; strengthening academic programming, with a goal of graduating every USC athlete;

--reorganizing the department to increase efficiency;

--adding marketing and recruiting departments;

--developing a community relations program (including spring, summer and fall sports camps and clinics for local youths, funded by a $1 million grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles);

--and renovating and expanding facilities (including the new Academic Resource Center).

He is a participant on numerous national athletic-related committees and boards, and is involved with drug education and awareness organizations. He is one of 11 Division IA members on the prestigious NCAA Council, the NCAA's highest governing body. He is a member of the Special NCAA Committee to Review Financial Conditions in Intercollegiate Athletics and the Pac-10 Compliance Committee. McGee's efforts were instrumental in founding the Sports Management Institute, a joint venture of the business schools and athletic departments from USC, Notre Dame and North Carolina to train future college and pro sports administrators.

McGee has had a number of his staff promoted to leadership positions at other institutions and sports organizations, including Barbara Hedges (Washington's athletic director), Bill Shumard (Cal State Fullerton's athletic director), Mike Reinfeldt (chief administrative officer of the Green Bay Packers), and Bill Hardekopf (president of the Birmingham Barons Double AA baseball team).

McGee came to USC after 4 years (1980-84) at the University of Cincinnati, where he re-established respectability in the Bearcat athletic program. Cincinnati's 1983 football team defeated defending national champion Penn State.

Mike had a noteworthy record of accomplishments as an athlete, coach and administrator prior to going to Cincinnati. After graduating from Elizabeth City (N.C.) High School, he became a first team All-American tackle at Duke. As a senior in 1959, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's top college lineman. In 1990, he was elected into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. He received his bachelor's degree in business in 1960 and was inducted into the Duke Hall of Fame in 1983. In 1991, he was elected into the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame.

Drafted in the second round by the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals, McGee was third in the 1960 Rookie of the Year voting. A serious neck injury ended his playing career in 1962.

McGee entered the coaching ranks in 1963 as an assistant at his alma mater. After 3 seasons (1963-65) at Duke, he served stints at Wisconsin (1966) and Minnesota (1967-69) before becoming the head coach at East Carolina in 1970.

A year later, he returned to Duke as the head coach, where he compiled a 37-47-4 record in 8 seasons (1971-78). His teams split games with both Washington and Stanford (including a victory over Stanford's 1972 Rose Bowl champion), but lost a 1975 game to USC, 35-7.

Mike then began his administrative career in North Carolina's athletic department, where he had earned his master's degree in 1965. Mike was a special assistant to athletic director Bill Cobey in 1979-80 while pursuing a doctorate degree in adult and higher education/business administration (which he received in 1982). He was also a commentator for ABC college football telecasts in 1979.

Born on Dec. 1, 1938 in Washington, D.C., McGee and his wife, Ginger, have 4 children: Kathy, 28, a USC graduate (married to another Trojan grad); Michael, Jr., 27, now an Air Force pilot after graduating in 1987 from the Air Force Academy; Matthew, 23, also an Air Force pilot and a 1990 grad from the Air Force Academy; and Jerry, 22, a USC graduate.

Beth Woodin serves as McGee's administrative assistant.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The University of Southern California, an educational enterprise of uncommon diversity and distinction, was founded in 1880. It celebrated the inauguration of its 10th president, Steven B. Sample, in the fall of 1991.

Because USC is an independent institution supported by private donors, it continues to offer many worthwhile opportunities for creative and significant philanthropy in the vital field of higher learning.

Some facts of significance about the University include the following:

--USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 58 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, do 66 percent of all federally sponsored research.

--Enrollment stands at 28,374, including 15,620 undergraduates and 12,754 graduate and professional students.

--USC has 37 faculty members who are members of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, and the National Academy of Public Administration. Membership in these prestigious academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on a faculty member's distinguished and continuing achievements.

--In the professions, USC has long been a leader. The University is the home of 18 professional schools, the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School, which train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to architecture, theater, education and business. Graduates of USC professional schools are serving society's needs in both the United States and many foreign countries.

--USC's Schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work, Public Administration and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.

--In basic research, USC is also nationally and internationally prominent. Today, USC stands 18th among all colleges and universities nationally in total federal funding of research and ninth among private institutions.

--USC maintains one of 24 comprehensive cancer centers in the U.S. The University's $40 million Kenneth Norris Jr. Cancer Hospital and Research Institute opened in 1983.

--Among USC's distinguished alumni are musicians Herb Alpert, Lionel Hampton and Patrice Rushen; astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; columnist Art Buchwald; sportscaster Frank Gifford; architects Frank Gehry, Jon Jerde and Carey K. Jenkins; rapper "Young M.C." (Marvin Young) and opera star Marilyn Horne; directors George Lucas, John Singleton, Ron Howard and Paul Mazursky; Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf; California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on March 31, 1991, began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as a senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Virginia. At Purdue, Dr. Sample's research was concentrated in the area of elctrohydrodynamics.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs for the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering. In addition to his administrative duties at Nebraska, Sample continued his teaching and research, teaching an upper-division course in electromagnetic theory each fall.

His paper on electronic motor-starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue. His patents in the field of digital appliance controls have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions. In 1980, he was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Department of Electrical Engineering at the University of Illinois.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, a post he held until accepting the USC presidency. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research. He regularly taught an upper-division course in either electromagnetic theory or linear-system theory each fall semester, and for two years he co-taught an undergraduate honors course in the department of English on science, literature and society.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 58 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

Sample is currently a director of Moog Inc. in East Aurora, N.Y., First Interstate Bancorp in Los Angeles and the Presley Companies in Newport Beach, Calif., and a trustee of the Regenstrief Medical Foundation in Indianapolis. He is a member of the boards of directors of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council and the Galaxy Institute for Education. He has also served on the boards of numerous artistic and public-benefit corporations, including the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra and the Research Foundation of the State University of New York. He was elected to membership in the Council on Foreign Relations in 1978.

In addition to his doctorate, Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively. He received an honorary D.Hu.L. degree from Canisius College in Buffalo in 1989, and an honorary LL.D. degree from the University of Sheffield in England in 1991.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

— PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With another 9 NCAA team championships claimed in 1991-92, plus a national football crown, plus 44 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 201 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference, and 36 women's crowns, more than any league. Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 17 of the last 22 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics.

The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--13 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 26 baseball titles; 18 of the last 33, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 16 of the last 29 in swimming; 30 of the last 33 in tennis; 19 of the last 33 in water polo; and 17 of the last 23 in volleyball.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 11 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 7 occasions. Included in this are 10 of 11 tennis crowns, and 8 of 11softball championships. Plus the 190 NCAA individual titles leads all leagues by a comfortable margin.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 77 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950 with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed athletic competition at the university level. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962 with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's sports.

Edward N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He has been succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

USC FOOTBALL TICKET INFORMATION

Season and individual game tickets are available from the USC Ticket Office for all 5 1992 Trojan home contests. Reserved tickets cost $18 per game, with the Notre Dame game priced at $27 (a season ticket package is $99). There is also a Family Plan season ticket package (seating in end zone, no Notre Dame tickets) available for $50. General admission tickets are $8 for adults and $4 for children 12 and under (there are no general admission seats for the Notre Dame game). Group rates (25 or more) are also available by calling (213) 740-4170.

The USC Ticket Office also has tickets on sale for 5 of Troy's road games. There will be no public sale by the USC Ticket Office for tickets to the Washington game.

For tickets and information, contact the USC Ticket Office at File No. 2235, Los Angeles, Calif. 90074-2235, (213) 740-GO SC (4672). The office is located in Student Union 100 and is open between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

USC home game tickets are also on sale at the Los Angeles Sports Arena box office, as well as at all Ticketmaster agencies. On the day of home games, tickets are on sale at the Coliseum, starting 3 hours prior to kickoff.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian, assistants Gary Pine and Linda Dodge, and publications director Steven Vanderpool) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach Larry Smith. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season. The Pac-10 Office also has a daily audio hotline featuring interviews with league coaches and players (call 510-932-1043).

LARRY SMITH MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Smith hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only those members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to seven days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning two hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press tickets (press box seat during game, field access during last five minutes of game), TV ribbons and photo ribbons (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The lower level has seats for the written press, while the upper level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in seats 244 to 251 in the back row of the lower level during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through the door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary hot meal is served in the kitchen (lower level, east end). Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Smith and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play is announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact Ms. Diep Krieger at General Telephone at 1-800-544-2005, Ext. 6603 (tell her that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone). To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for press box extension). Fax, telecopier and computer terminal service is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel on the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Smith will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050 or Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835 or Pat McClenahan of McClenahan-Kelly Productions at (818) 567-4220. Kirkpatrick and McClenahan also can be reached at Prime Ticket at (310) 286-3800.

Tradition.

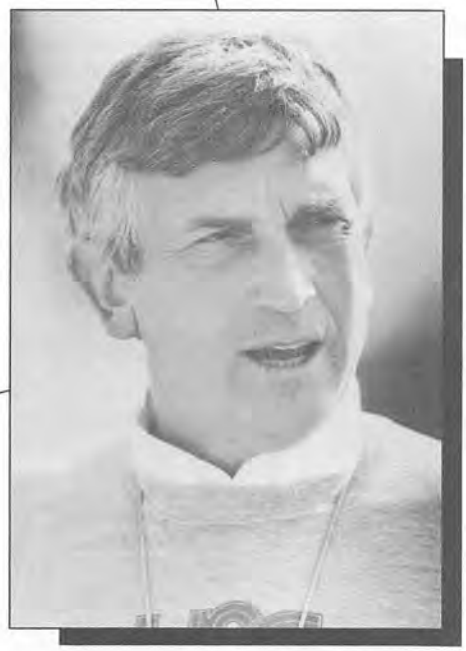
The excellence of USC football over the years has made the Trojan program one of the most respected in the nation.

The University of Southern California is the largest private university in Division I football. From Academic All-Americans (Top 5 in the nation)...and NCAA Today's Top Six scholar-athletes (the second most at any school)...to 115 first team football All-Americans...and the most active players on NFL rosters...and the most bowl appearances by any Pac-10 team (the second most in the country), it's easy to see why at USC "we're still the one!"

USC provides an excellent opportunity for any student-athlete willing to take on the challenge of competing at the highest level and obtaining a college degree at a university in a community on the front edge of today's society.

I hope you'll consider joining the Trojan Family.

Larry Smith
USC Head Football Coach



THE UNIVERSITY

Tommy Trojan

At USC, you'll be attending one of the nation's preeminent universities

The University of Southern California is a leader among this nation's educational institutions. Founded in 1881, USC is the oldest independent, private research university in the West. As evidence of its high academic reputation, it is one of only 58 members of the prestigious Association of American Universities.

The 150-acre campus is located just 3 miles south of downtown Los Angeles. It is adjacent to Exposition Park, home to the Coliseum and Sports Arena, as well as to museums devoted to science and industry, natural history, and Afro-American history. USC is conveniently served by Los Angeles' network of freeways that provide access to all of Southern California.

USC, with about 15,000 undergraduates, is known for its diverse, cultural student body. Students come from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries. Nearly 30% of USC students are American minorities. The ratio of men to women students is 4:3.

About 70% of USC's undergrads are housed on or near the campus, many in USC's 15 residence halls, 31 apartments, and 30 fraternities and sororities.

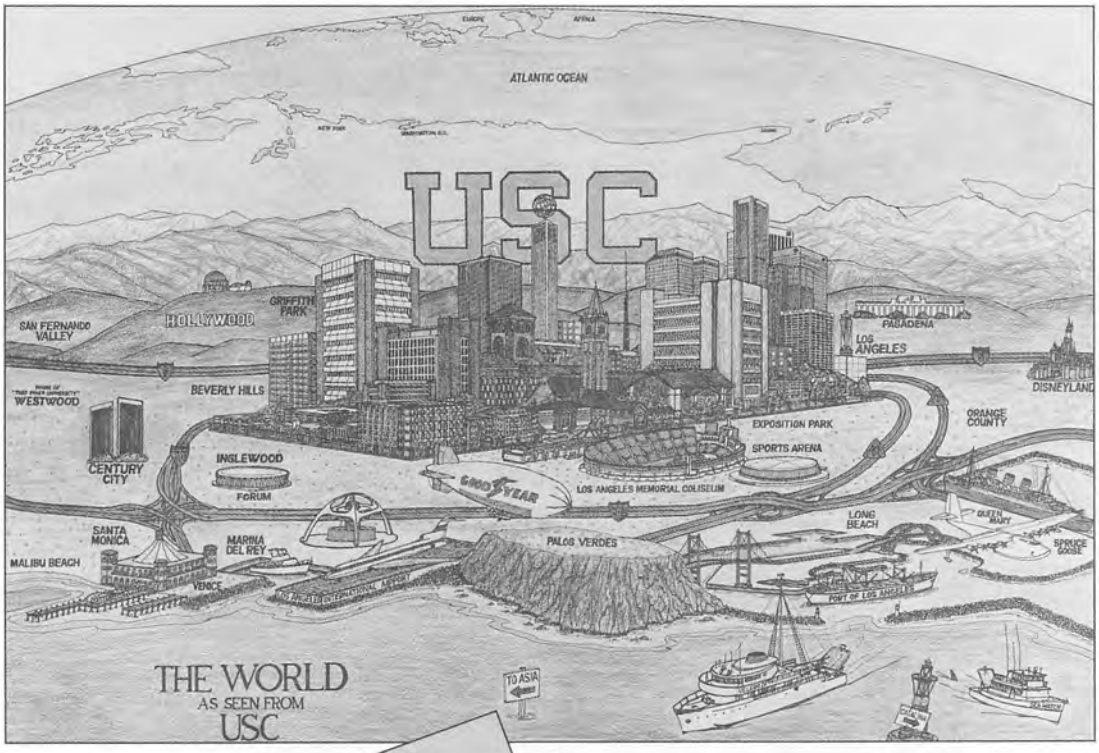
Weekly on campus, there are lectures, concerts, films, sporting events, cultural celebrations and group activities. USC's 400 student organizations offer a wide array of opportunities.

More than 200,000 USC degrees have been awarded, with 70% of Trojan alumni living in Southern California. Many work in business, industry, public service, health sciences, education and the arts.

Past and present USC students form what is known as the "Trojan Family," a much-valued network that serves as a source of lasting friendships, professional contacts and service to the community.

Among USC's famous alumni are astronauts Neil Armstrong (the first man on the moon) and Charles Bolden; General Norman Schwarzkopf; musicians Lionel Hampton, Young M.C. and Herb Alpert; film directors George Lucas, John Singleton and Ron Howard; actors Tom Selleck, the late John Wayne, and the late Michael Landon; and actress Marlo Thomas.

LOS ANGELES



At USC, you'll be in one of the world's great cities

USC is located in one of the great global centers for business, entertainment, the arts...and sports. Los Angeles is the second largest city in the country. A multicultural metropolis, Los Angeles is the heart of Southern California. There are endless recreational and entertainment possibilities, as beaches (72 miles of coastline), deserts, mountains and lakes are all within a short drive. L.A.'s sunny, warm climate—with low humidity and little rain—means year-round outdoor activities.

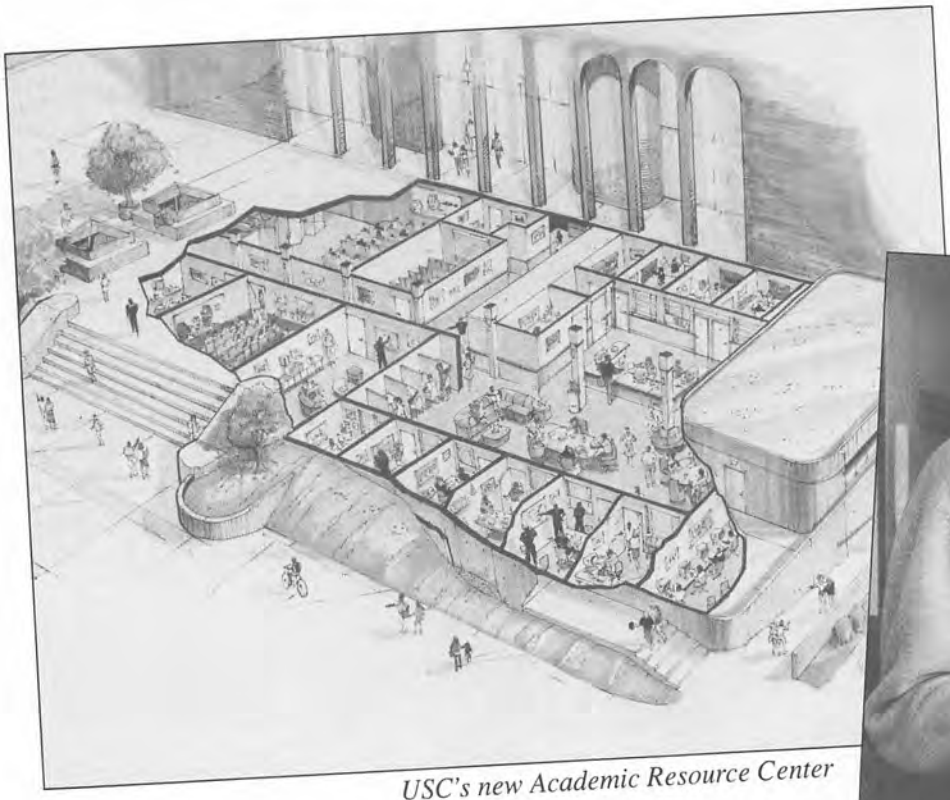
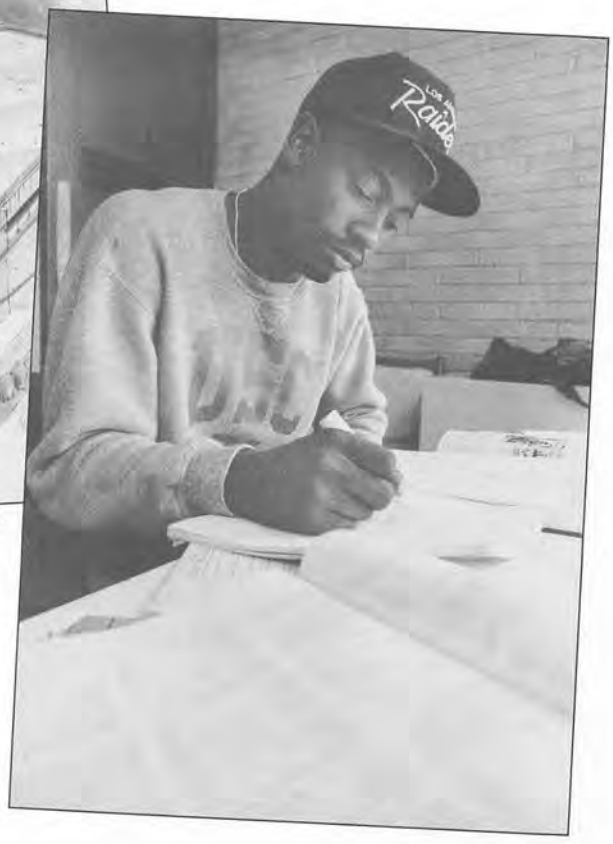
Among the area's numerous attractions are Disneyland, Hollywood, Knott's Berry Farm, Beverly Hills, Magic Mountain, and Universal Studios.

Los Angeles is the sports capital of America. Professionally, there are the NFL's Raiders and Rams, the NBA's Lakers and Clippers, MLB's Dodgers and Angels, and the NHL's Kings. There are also numerous other pro and amateur sporting events, such as the 1993 Super Bowl, the 1994 World Cup, the Los Angeles Marathon, the Long Beach Grand Prix car race, the Los Angeles Open golf tournament, and much more.

ACADEMICS



USC's new Academic Resource Center



At USC, you'll receive an outstanding education

USC offers the intimate learning environment of a small college. More than 70% of USC students say they enrolled because of the good academic reputation.

USC's flexible curriculum offers more than 150 majors in subjects ranging from business, law and medicine to public administration, anthropology and engineering. The average class size is just 26 students, guaranteeing quality attention from USC's world-renowned faculty.

USC has a storied tradition of producing student-athletes who star both on the field and in the classroom. USC leads the nation in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients. Also, USC has more Academic All-American football players than any Pac-10 school (and fifth most in the nation). Plus, Troy has turned out 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar-athlete award (second nationally) and 8 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes. Rhodes Scholar Pat Haden, who starred at quarterback for USC and in the NFL and who now is a successful lawyer, businessman and sports broadcaster, epitomizes the well-rounded Trojan student-athlete. Among USC's Academic All-Americans, some are now bankers (Paul McDonald), lawyers (Matt Koart), doctors and dentists (Chuck Arrobio, Fred Khasigian), insurance executives (Marlin McKeever), and corporate leaders (Disney's Dick Nunis), and some are still playing professionally (Duane Bickett, John Jackson).

Community Service

To assist Trojan student-athletes, the athletic department has an all-encompassing academic support system. Under the direction of assistant athletic director Fred Stroock, who is nationally-known as a leader in student-athlete academic services, USC provides advisors, tutors, learning specialists, career counselors, and others to assist Trojans on their road to graduation. The Academic Resource Center, a new 13,500-square foot, $3.3 million addition to the Heritage Hall athletic department, will open in August 1992. In it will be study rooms, a computer center and an audio-visual room.

For those student-athletes who need extra time to graduate, USC offers unique post-eligibility scholarships through its Degree Achievement Program.

Graduation rates for USC's student-athletes are on a steady upward swing. For example, while 60% of the 1985 freshman class of football players graduated within 6 years, more than 70% of the 1986 class has already graduated (and several more from that class will graduate soon).

An enriching part of the educational experience is USC's community service commitment. All Trojan student-athletes are required to spend 10 hours a year in community service work. For example, some give speeches to local schools, put on sports clinics and visit hospitals. Following the civil crisis in Los Angeles last spring, many football players got involved in the efforts to repair and restore the surrounding community.

FOOTBALL TRADITION

At USC, you'll be part of one of the nation's most famous, tradition-rich football programs

When you think of USC football, you think of great players, great coaches, great games and great moments. USC is among this nation's elite college football programs.

Since its first team in 1888, USC has won 8 national championships, played in 34 bowl games, been ranked in the final Top 20 some 33 times, and won more than 70% of its games. The 1992 squad will be Troy's 100th!

There have been 115 first team All-Americans at USC. Trojans have won 4 Heisman Trophies (and been runner-up 4 other times), plus an Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award and Thorpe Award. Seventeen Trojans are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

While USC is known nationally as "Tailback U."—O.J. Simpson, Marcus Allen, Ricky Ervins, Mike Garrett, Charles White, Ricky Bell, and Anthony Davis, to name a few—there have been great players at every position. Offensive linemen? How about Anthony Munoz, Bruce Matthews, Don Mosebar, Keith Van Horne, Marvin Powell, Brad Budde, Ron Yary, Dave Cadigan, and Pat Harlow. In fact, since 1964 there have been 24 first team All-American offensive linemen at USC. Defensive backs? How about Ronnie Lott, Mark Carrier, Dennis Smith, Tim McDonald, Joey Browner, and

John Robinson

Howard Jones

John McKay

"Gloomy Gus" Henderson

Winning Catches (L-R): Al Krueger's TD reception in 1939 Rose Bowl; Shelton Diggs' 2-point conversion to clinch 1974 national championship; and Johnnie Morton's first of 2 TD catches in the last 3:09 to beat UCLA in 1990.

Dennis Thurman. Linebackers? Ever hear of Duane Bickett, Junior Seau, Clay Matthews, Riki Ellison, Chip Banks, and Richard Wood. Quarterbacks? How about Rodney Peete, Todd Marinovich, Vince Evans, Pat Haden, Paul McDonald, or Sean Salisbury. Wide receivers? There have been Lynn Swann, Bob Chandler, John Jackson, Erik Affholter, and Gary Wellman. Tight ends? These include Hoby Brenner, Charle Young, and Bob Klein. Fullbacks? How about Mosi Tatupu, Sam "Bam" Cunningham, and Leroy Holt. Defensive linemen? There have been Tim Ryan, Dan Owens, Gary Jeter, Tim Rossovich, and Al Cowlings.

John McKay, John Robinson, Howard Jones and "Gloomy Gus" Henderson all were head coaches at USC. Current and former NFL head coaches Joe Gibbs, Wayne Fontes, Al Davis, and Don Coryell at one time were Trojan assistants.

USC plays in the Pacific-10 Conference, known as the "Conference of Champions." Year in and year out, the Pac-10—judged as the nation's most competitive league—sends more teams to bowls and more players to the NFL than any other conference. Besides the rugged Pac-10 schedule and the annual battle with Notre Dame, Trojan opponents in the near future include Penn State, Houston and Illinois.

USC attracts players from throughout the country. The 1992 Trojans feature players from 13 states. While many hail from California, there are also 11 Texans on the roster.

At USC, you'll play for one of college football's outstanding coaches

USC head coach Larry Smith has a long track record for producing successful teams both on the field and in the classroom.

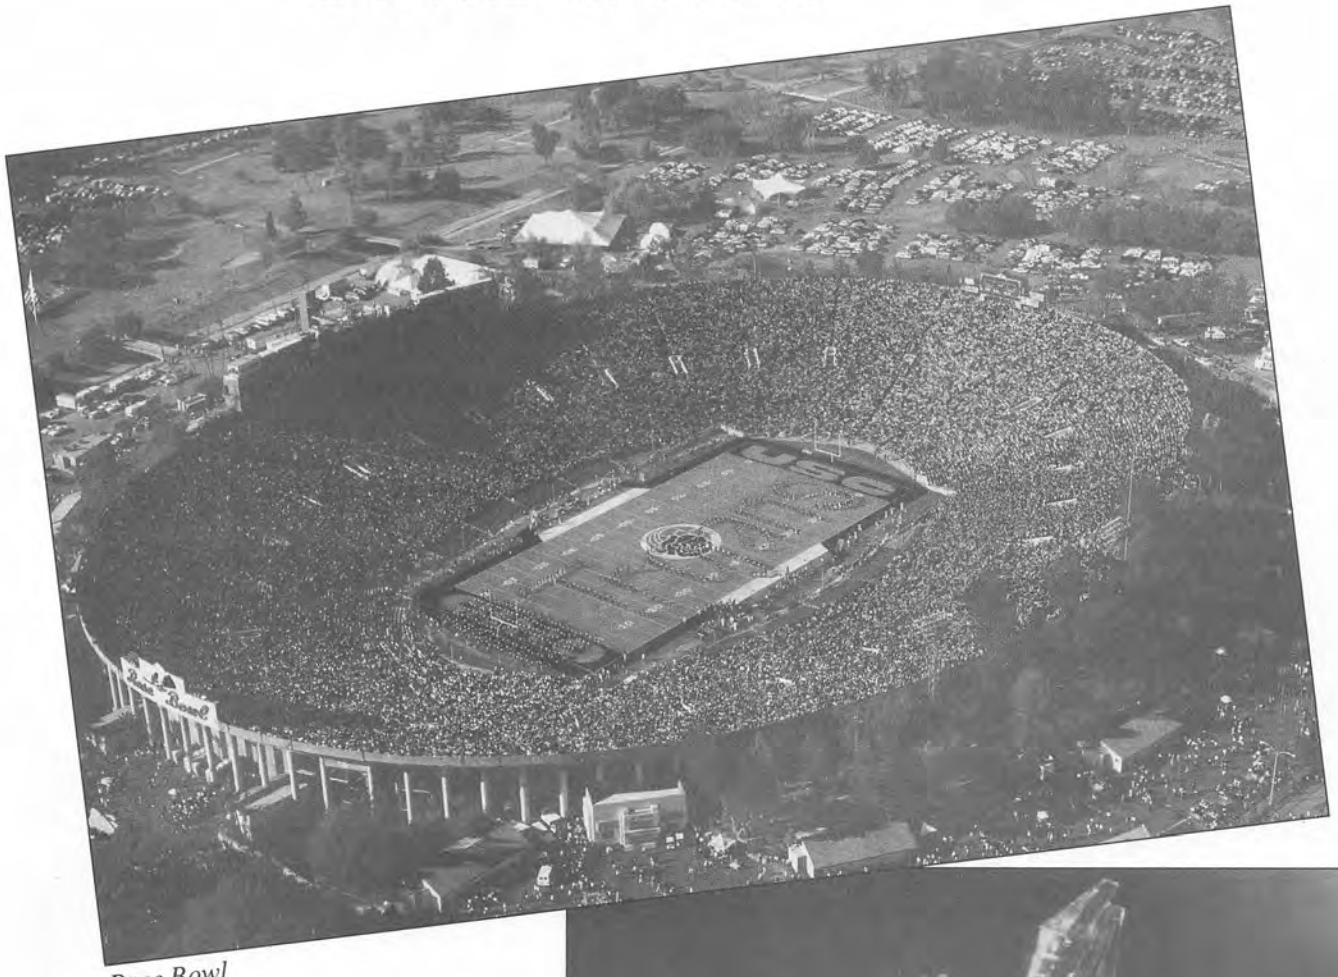
He has guided the Trojans to 4 post-season bowl appearances in his 5 years. At USC, he has recorded an impressive 28-9-2 record against Pac-10 opponents and was twice named Pac-10 Coach of the Year. His accomplishments are especially impressive since Smith's teams always play one of the nation's toughest schedules.

Before coming to USC, Smith worked wonders at Arizona and Tulane, where he is credited with building both programs to national prominence. Along the way, he has had numerous "big" wins and has consistently beaten Top 10 teams (with 11 such wins in his career, including 5 at USC). He ranks fifth on the all-time list for Pac-10 victories.

Smith stresses fundamentals, discipline and hard work, all characteristics that he acquired while working for 6 years under legendary college coach Bo Schembechler. Smith also emphasizes academics (the football team's grade point averages increased steadily at each institution he has coached) and community service (his Trojan squad annually hosts a holiday party for sick children).

Working with Smith is a top-notch staff of assistants. Each of the full-time assistant coaches averages 18 years of collegiate experience. And recruiting coordinator Jack Himebauch is nationally-regarded in his field.

BOWL GAMES



Rose Bowl

At USC, you'll have a very good chance of ending your season with a bowl game

USC is one of the nation's premier bowl teams. Troy has made 34 post-season appearances, winning 22 times. Included have been 27 trips to the Rose Bowl, the "Granddaddy of All Bowl Games." USC has played in 7 different bowls, such as the Fiesta Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Aloha Bowl and John Hancock Bowl. At one point, USC recorded 9 consecutive bowl wins.

Under coach Larry Smith, USC has been to 4 bowls in the past 5 years: 3 Rose Bowls and the John Hancock Bowl.

NFL

Hall of Famer O.J. Simpson

At USC, you could join the many Trojans in the NFL

Year in and year out, USC has more players in the NFL than any school. There are 54 ex-Trojans on 1992 NFL rosters. In all, more than 300 USC alums have played in the NFL. Some 51 Trojans have been NFL first round draft picks, including 20 since 1980. Seventeen Trojan offensive linemen have been first rounders since 1968. Sixty-six Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. Five Trojans are in the NFL Hall of Fame, including O.J. Simpson, Frank Gifford, Willie Wood and Ron Mix.

Why do USC players have such success in the pros? NFL player personnel directors ranked USC first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

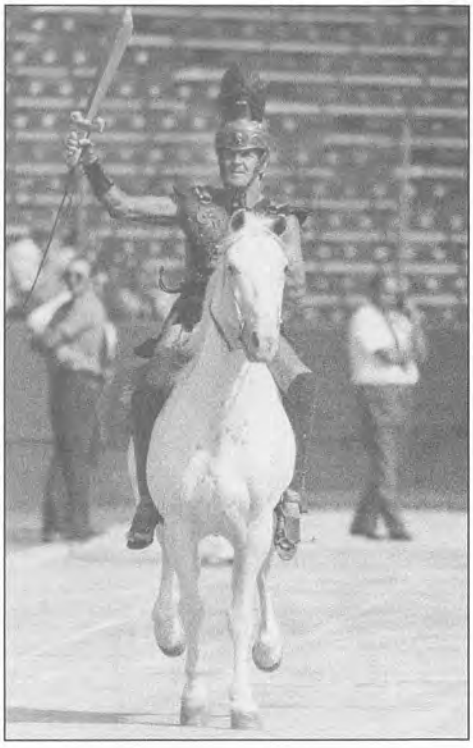
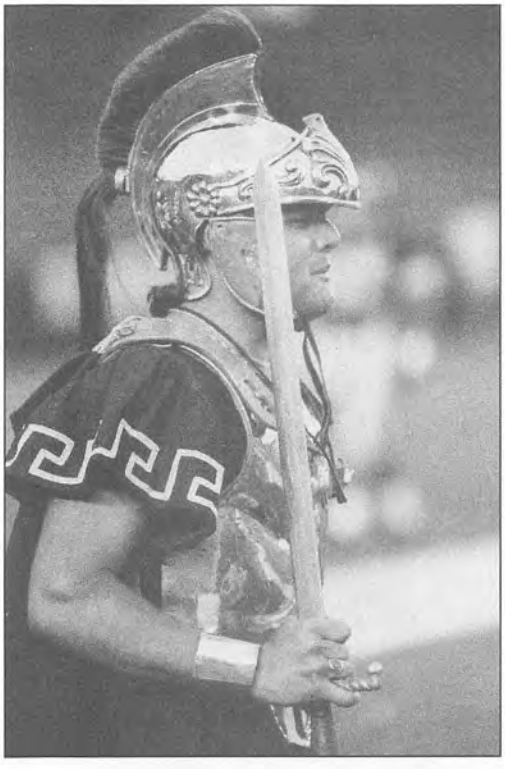
FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE





At USC, you'll be surrounded by the unique Trojan Football Experience

Playing football at USC means much more than competing on the field and in the classroom.

USC football also means: fans tailgating before games in Exposition Park; Traveler (the white horse ridden by a Trojan warrior), the most famous mascot in college football; the acclaimed Trojan Marching Band (the band travels to all games) playing the well-known "Fight On" and "Conquest" songs; the beautiful USC Song Girls; the "V" victory sign; the distinctive Cardinal and Gold uniforms (with black shoes and no names on the jerseys); running down the Coliseum's historic tunnel; USC versus Notre Dame; USC versus UCLA; the Rose Bowl.

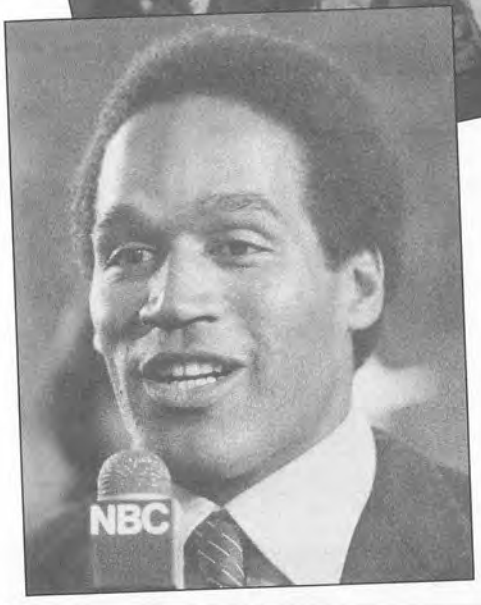
Trojan footballers play in front of packed stadiums. Attendance at USC home games in the Coliseum has averaged at least 64,000 the past 4 years, including a record 76,000-plus in 1988. Of the college and pro football teams in California, USC annually is tops in average home attendance. USC has some of the most loyal fans you'll find. In fact, one fellow has viewed every USC game since 1926 (714 in a row!). And Trojan fans are generous in their financial support of the program. In the past 6 years, they've contributed more than $40 million to the USC athletic department.

MEDIA EXPOSURE



At USC, you'll receive tremendous media exposure

USC is located in the nation's second largest media market. Los Angeles is the home to dozens of daily newspapers (including the Los Angeles Times, the country's second largest), 7 commercial television stations (including ABC, CBS and NBC affiliates) and ESPN and CNN bureaus, scores of radio stations, plus bureaus for USA Today, Sports Illustrated, and the AP and UPI wire services. Also in town is the Prime Ticket cable network, which has shows devoted entirely to USC sports (it replays every Trojan football game).

USC football is one of America's most popular television attractions. Trojan games have been televised live 175 times, including an average of 10 live telecasts each of the last 6 years. Seven of the 12 highest-rated regular season televised college football games have involved USC, more than any school.

Did you know that USC football players have been on the cover of Sports Illustrated, the world's most famous sports magazine, 32 times?

Many members of the media are USC alums, including many ex-football players. Some of the nation's top sports broadcasters are former Trojans, including Frank Gifford, Pat Haden, O.J. Simpson and Lynn Swann.

FACILITIES

Memorial Coliseum

USC Weight Room

Howard Jones Field

At USC, you'll compete in some of the nation's best and most famous playing facilities

USC plays its home games in the grand, 92,500-seat Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (located across the street from the USC campus). Built in 1923 and site of 2 Olympic Games (1932 and 1984), the Coliseum, with its characteristic peristyle and Olympic flame, is identified around the world. The Los Angeles Raiders also play in the Coliseum, which is the site of numerous other sporting events, concerts and special events. Plans call for the stadium's renovation and modernization in the near future.

On campus, Howard Jones Field holds 2 football practice fields. The football locker room, located in the nearby athletic department building called Heritage Hall, was renovated and expanded this year. The 8,000-square-foot weight room is one of the finest in the country and has a staff of 3 full-time strength and conditioning coaches. Heritage Hall, with its spectacular trophy showcase in the lobby, has plenty of meeting rooms convenient to the coaches' offices. Football players eat their nightly, nutritionally-designed training table dinner in a special area of USC's Faculty Club.

USC uses many other athletic facilities, including the Lyon Center (a new student recreation building featuring 2 gyms, a weight room, racquetball courts, saunas and an exercise room), the McDonald's Swim Stadium (home of the 1984 Olympic aquatic events), Cromwell Track and Field, baseball's Dedeaux Field, the Los Angeles Sports Arena (home of the NBA's Clippers), Marks Tennis Stadium, and the Physical Education Building.

ATHLETIC HERITAGE

At USC, you'll rub shoulders with great athletes in many sports

USC, which fields 20 intercollegiate varsity teams (plus nearly 50 club teams and 30 intramural teams), has an athletic heritage second to none. USC has won more national team championships than any school (87, including a streak of at least 1 crown for 26 consecutive years). USC's men's program has won USA Today's all-sports title 6 times (based on NCAA finishes and poll rankings) and has been the nation's top-ranked private institution the past 4 years. Trojan men have won a record 264 NCAA individual titles, too.

There have been 250 Trojan Olympians, more than any university. USC athletes have won 81 gold medals, including at least 1 in every Olympics since 1912.

Some famous Trojan athletes: baseball (Tom Seaver, Mark McGwire, Fred Lynn), basketball (Harold Miner, Paul Westphal, Cheryl Miller), golf (Scott Simpson, Craig Stadler, Al Geiberger), swimming (John Naber, Dave Wharton, Sippy Woodhead), tennis (Stan Smith, Dennis Ralston, Leslie Allen), track (Quincy Watts, Bob Seagren, Randy Wiliams), and volleyball (Steve Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Paula Weishoff).
